Encounters at the Edge of the Muslim World Eugene Huskey, 2018-09-08 This unique work provides the only sustained political history of independent Kyrgyzstan explaining events in the context of its society and the broader international order Drawing on three decades of personal encounters with ordinary citizens and leading public figures Eugene Huskey takes readers on a journey through the unlikely birth and tumultuous development of Central Asia's most open society Starting with the heady romantic first days of independence and moving through the popular uprisings and inter ethnic violence of recent years he chronicles the struggles of a new state to establish a democratic order and to find its place in the international community while caught between China the Middle East and the Russian world At the center are the very human stories of leaders and citizens trying to navigate the transition from communism where identities property and the rules of the political game were constantly in dispute With citizens of independent Kyrgyzstan stripped of their Soviet identity the book illustrates how alternative loyalties based on kinship geography statehood and religion competed for prominence in ways that often complicated the new country's political social and economic development

Animal Death Jay Johnston, Fiona Probyn-Rapsey, 2013

Animal death is a complex uncomfortable depressing motivating and sensitive topic For those scholars participating in Human Animal Studies it is accompanied by the concept of life the ground upon which their studies commence whether those studies are historical archaeological social philosophical or cultural It is a tough subject to face but as this volume demonstrates one at the heart of human animal relations and human animal studies scholarship books have power Words convey moral dilemmas Human beings are capable of being moral creatures So it may prove with the present book Dear reader be warned Reading about animal death may prove a life changing experience If you do not wish to be exposed to that possibility read no further In the end by concentrating our attention on death in animals in so many guises and circumstances we the human readers are brought face to face with the reality of our world It is a world of pain fear and enormous stress and cruelty It is a world that will not change anytime soon into a human community of vegetarians or vegans But at least books like this are being written for public reflection From the Foreword by The Hon Michael Kirby AC CMG The African Cinema James S. Williams,2019-03-21 Since the beginnings of African cinema the realm of beauty on screen has been treated with suspicion by directors and critics alike James S Williams explores an exciting new generation of African directors including Abderrahmane Sissako Mahamat Saleh Haroun Fanta R gina Nacro Alain Gomis Newton I Aduaka Jean Pierre Bekolo and Mati Diop who have begun to reassess and embrace the concept of cinematic beauty by not reducing it to ideological critique or the old ideals of pan Africanism Locating the aesthetic within a range of critical fields the rupturing of narrative spectacle and violence by montage the archives of the everyday in the afropolis the plurivocal mysteries of sound and language male intimacy and desire the borderzones of migration and transcultural drift this study reveals the possibility for new non conceptual kinds of beauty in African cinema abstract material migrant erotic convulsive queer Through close readings of key works such as Life on Earth 1998 The Night of Truth 2004 Bamako 2006 Daratt Dry Season 2006 A Screaming Man 2010 Tey Today 2012 The Pirogue 2012 Mille soleils 2013 and Timbuktu 2014 Williams argues that contemporary African filmmakers are proposing propitious ethical forms of relationality and intersubjectivity These stimulate new modes of cultural resistance and transformation that serve to redefine the transnational and the cosmopolitan as well as the very notion of the political in postcolonial art cinema Judgment and Strategy Robin Holt,2018-01-19 Holt argues strategy is the process by which an organization presents itself to itself and others To bring this about exponents of strategic inquiry attempt to gather knowledge about the conditions in which any organization is being organized emerging markets restless geo political environments networks of technological ordering populations with differing skill sets and the like The upshot of such inquiry is a succession of images by which an organization attains distinction as a unity or self Using work from literature art and philosophy Holt explores what it means to present such an organizational self In strategy practice he identifies three related forms of presentation First comes strategy as a project of representational knowledge Here strategists generate accurate timely and complex information to build successive images of the organization and its place in the world Though pervasive and persistent these overtly technical images remain subject to the basic skeptical challenge that things could be otherwise In response come the second and third forms of self presentation the creation of visionary images or assertions of competitive brute will Here too come problems With vision comes the risk of collective thoughtlessness and with brute will a one dimensional condition of acquisitive competition Holt suggests judgment offers another way of responding to the skeptics challenge Tracing a narrative through the ideas of David Hume Immanuel Kant Adam Smith William Shakespeare William Hazlitt Hannah Arendt Stanley Cavell Harold Pinter Virginia Woolf Martha Nussbaum and others Holt finds much might be gained from associating strategic inquiry with a form of critical or poetic spectating It is he argues by having this un homely sense of being besides oneself that an organization can best present itself to itself and others

Musical Mosaic Eric Antoni, 2020-11-29 Follow a multi faceted journey by an improviser and a musicosopher Eric Antoni from the cobbled streets of Paris to the Far East Musical Mosaic lays coherent excursus of the author s thought provoking collection of anecdotes With the absence of lengthy verbiage of a political social economic nature the book is full of compassionate truthful descriptions of persons and experiences and written with total objectivity brevity originality and musical creativity as inspired by the sense of tonality throughout the history of music in Europe since Monteverdi and all over the world nowadays As a text that is musico sophical instead of being musico logical it is inspired by the founder of phenomenology Edmund Husserl 1859 1938 and his philosophical seizure of consciousness It discusses the author s journey in the world of music and describes musical consciousness and the ways in which it moves and works within us The book presents to the readers the author s account of the composers he met along the way Slamet Sjukur Giacinto Scelsi and the composers who are currently active Jean Fran ois Laporte Pierre Michaud Myriam Boucher George Benjamin along with historical narratives that center around Monteverdi Bach Ravel Debussy and Bart k It underlines the interrogations held by today s musicians in light of yesterday s mutations With this book the author would like to reach out to composers performers and music lovers and contribute towards opening them to the scope of experimentation in music and in the world of sound all of which keep on becoming more expansive and more intensely conscious nineteenth century Americanist literary studies the volume suggests directions into underexamined facets of Emerson's writing life and reputation From Emerson's engagements with energy infrastructure and the processes of extraction that undergirded the locomotives he rode and the energy economies he sometimes extolled to the vicissitudes of age he experienced alongside the romantic tropes of youthful vigour he both re-circulated and re-tooled to Emerson's poetry both in its philosophical formulations and in its reflections of the material circumstances of nineteenth century print culture to Emerson's resonance beyond the United States elsewhere in the western hemisphere to the Black press and its refractions of Emersonian transcendentalism in the midst of ante and post bellum justice struggles to the legacies of Emerson to be found in the writings of W E B Du Bois James Baldwin Rachel Carson and in the versions of Emerson to be found in children's literature to his often fraught and often fruitful engagements with reform movements of various sorts to the prospects for digital processes of re-reading Emerson and his contemporaries styles of textual production and engagement The Oxford Handbook of Ralph Waldo Emerson is a necessary resource for students scholars and general readers committed to the study of Emerson transcendentalism and current critical approaches to United States literature Meeting the Melissae

Elizabeth Ashley, 2023-08-15 The Eleusinian Mysteries were the most prestigious initiation of the ancient world The ritual's secrets were protected by death vows and have been speculated about for more than 4 000 years The nine day festival was run by a group of women called Melissae or bees married women second only in rank to the Priestess of Athena Polias who presided over Athens They amassed incredible wealth fame and political status Temple accounts from the period reveal that it was the priestesses' money that paid for Greece's glorious architecture Fees were earned for sacrifices and granting access to divinity In return the priestess made Greece a magnificent place to live Oracles diviners soul midwives and creatrixes of innumerable festivals these women ensured that the city state kept favour with the goddess They achieved that by emulating the ways of the world's most successful matriarchal community a bee colony Herbal textbooks speak of a relationship between these women and the Lemon Balm herb Melissa officinalis Journey into the past and into the enchanting dreamscape of the hive with aromatherapist Elizabeth Ashley A delightful odyssey for anyone interested in herbal wisdom ancient Greek history female empowerment and humankind's greatest allies the bees Sex, Sexuality, and the Anthropologist Fran Markowitz, Michael Ashkenazi, 1999 Sex in the field the dilemma of whether to cover up or display sexual identities and desires during the course of anthropological fieldwork is one of the best kept secrets in the discipline Contending that the conventional pose of a genderless asexual ethnographic researcher is impossible to sustain this volume brings sex and sexuality into the open as essential components of ethnographic study that must be overtly recognized and proactively addressed Sex Sexuality and the Anthropologist recounts the real life experiences of anthropologists who are forced to acknowledge that their hosts in the field view them as gendered beings in a social context not as asexual objective observers Far from controlling the research environment and defining the terms of interviewer informant relationships these researchers find they must engage in a process of negotiating their position including their sexual position within the communities they study Ranging from public baths in Austria to lesbian bars in Taiwan and from Mexico to Nigeria to Finland to Japan Sex Sexuality and the Anthropologist raises critical questions about ethnographers reflexivity subjectivity and detachment confronting the challenge of a holistic approach to the anthropological enterprise Psychoanalysis, Aesthetics, and Politics in the Work of Julia Kristeva Kelly Oliver, S. K. Keltner, 2009-06-02 The social and political relevance of Julia Kristeva's work is perhaps the central question in Kristeva studies and the essays in this collection provide a sustained interrogation of this complicated problematic from a variety of perspectives and across the various contexts and moments of Kristeva's forty year writing career Presenting Kristeva's thought as the sustained interrogation of a political problematic the contributors argue that her use of psychoanalysis and aesthetics offers significant insight into social and political issues that would otherwise remain concealed The collection addresses the entirety of Kristeva's oeuvre from her earliest work on poetic language to her most recent work on female genius and it includes two previously untranslated essays by Kristeva as well as original contributions from scholars working in several countries and a variety of disciplines The God That I Know Tommy Almonte, 2004 In order to develop an intimate relationship with Jesus we need to reevaluate our perception about the Holy Spirit states author Tommy Almonte in his new release The God That I Know A Journey to Intimacy Almonte chronicles his journey towards greater intimacy with the Holy Spirit and how the Holy Spirit radically transformed his life He writes I have come to understand that the pursuit of intimacy in a relationship is like water or oxygen to our bodies The desire and pursuit of intimacy keeps a relationship alive As time passes by intimacy in a relationship becomes the road map to a long and happy friendship and life Written in an easy to read style this book is formatted in six different sections including a study guide that allows readers to go deeper into the concepts highlighted in the book Among the many topics covered in The God That I Know A Journey to Intimacy are How to develop a relationship with the Holy Spirit The personality of the Holy Spirit Requirements for intimacy with the Holy Spirit What God expects from our relationship with Him About the author Tommy Almonte is a native of the Dominican Republic His family relocated to the United States when he was very young Tommy has devoted his life to helping others develop a closer relationship with God and he has developed curricula and classes for this purpose He and his wife Theresa reside in Grand Rapids Michigan with their daughter Sophia
