Encuentro Con Cantabria:

Encuentros Iker Jiménez,2002 En esta obra están todos los nombres, fotografías, expedientes y testimonios de casos impresionantes. Incidentes protagonizados por personas como usted, muchos de ellos rescatados de archivos confidenciales y otros sacados a la luz tras la paciente investigación periodística del autor. Nunca antes se había abordado el apasionante asunto de los OVNI con tal torrente informativo y documental a disposición de los lectores. Existen verdaderamente. Que son. Desde dónde vienen. Interrogantes que se plasman en la fuerza del dibujo de un niño o la grabación de un piloto militar o en los impactantes documentos sonoros contenidos en un CD. Construyendo escuela Sebastián Gertrúdx Romero de Ávila,2017-05-01 Las técnicas pedagógicas de Célestin Freinet penetraron en España y se extendieron rápidamente a finales de los años veinte del pasado siglo y durante la Segunda República Española. La guerra civil y posterior triunfo del bando fascista llevó a la muerte o al exilio a muchos de los seguidores del maestro y pedagogo francés introductor de la imprenta en la escuela. A finales de los años sesenta la pedagogía Freinet vuelve con fuerza a nuestras escuelas de la mano de muchos educadores, la mayoría jóvenes deseosos de poner en marcha una escuela de calidad democrática y con un sentido profundamente social. Esta preocupación por mejorar la escuela les lleva a crear el Movimiento Cooperativo de Escuela Popular MCEP, un colectivo pedagógico que fue implantándose en todas las autonomías y que actualmente sigue trabajando por mejorar la educación en España. Porque aquella lucha continúa. Esperamos que algún día la sociedad y nuestros políticos consideren la educación como una cuestión de Estado y el sistema educativo se convierta definitivamente en una herramienta que haga florecer los talentos e inteligencias que los niños y las niñas poseen. En el 50º aniversario de la muerte de Célestin Freinet ofrecemos el testimonio de 55 educadores y educadoras en representación de un colectivo que concibe la educación como un compromiso.

Urbanisation in Roman Spain and Portugal Pieter Houten,2021-03-03 The principal aims of Urbanisation in Roman Spain and Portugal. Civitates Hispaniae in the Early Empire are to provide a comprehensive reconstruction of the urban systems of the Iberian Peninsula during the Early Empire and to explain why these systems looked the way they did. While some chapters focus on settlements that were cities or towns from a juridical point of view, the implications of using a purely functional definition of towns are also explored. Key themes include continuities and discontinuities between pre-Roman and Roman settlement patterns, the geographical distribution of cities belonging to various size brackets, economic relationships between self-governing cities and their territories, and the role of cities as nodes in road systems and maritime networks. In addition, it is argued that a considerable number of self-governing communities in Roman Spain and Portugal were polycentric rather than based on a single urban centre. The volume will be of interest to anyone working on Roman urbanism as well as those interested in the Iberian Peninsula in the Roman period.

The Archaeology of Europe's Drowned Landscapes Geoff Bailey, Nena Galanidou, Hans Peeters, Hauke Jöns, Moritz Mennenga,2020-04-09 This open access volume provides for the first time a comprehensive description and scientific evaluation of underwater archaeological finds referring to human occupation of the continental shelf around the coastlines of Europe and the Mediterranean when sea levels were lower than present. These are the largest body of underwater finds worldwide amounting to over 2500 find spots ranging from individual stone tools to underwater villages with unique conditions of preservation. The material reviewed here ranges in date from the Lower Palaeolithic period to the Bronze Age and covers 20 countries bordering all the major marine basins from the Atlantic coasts of Ireland and Norway to the Black Sea and from the western Baltic to the eastern Mediterranean. The finds from each country are presented in their archaeological context with information on the history of discovery, conditions of preservation and visibility, their relationship to regional changes in sea level and coastal geomorphology and the institutional arrangements for their investigation and protection. Editorial introductions summarise the findings from each of the major marine basins. There is also a final section with extensive discussion of the historical background and the legal and regulatory frameworks that inform the management of the underwater cultural heritage and collaboration between offshore industries, archaeologists and government agencies. The volume is based on the work of COST Action TD0902 SPLASHCOS, a multi disciplinary and multi national research network supported by the EU funded COST organisation European Cooperation in Science and Technology. The primary readership is research and professional archaeologists, marine and Quaternary scientists, cultural heritage managers, commercial and governmental organisations, policy makers and all those with an interest in the sea floor of the continental shelf and the human impact of changes in climate, sea level and coastal geomorphology.

Sourcebook of Paleolithic Transitions Marta Camps, Parth Chauhan, 2009-09-01. As the study of Palaeolithic technologies moves towards a more analytical approach, it is necessary to determine a consistent procedural framework. The contributions to this timely and comprehensive volume do just that. This volume incorporates a broad chronological and geographical range of Palaeolithic material from the Lower to Upper Palaeolithic. The focus of this volume is to provide an analysis of Palaeolithic technologies from a quantitative empirical perspective. As new techniques, particularly quantitative methods for analyzing Palaeolithic technologies, gain popularity, this work provides case studies, particularly showcasing these new techniques. Employing diverse case studies and utilizing multivariate approaches, morphometrics, model based approaches, phylogenetics, cultural transmission studies and experimentation, this volume provides insights from international contributors at the forefront of recent methodological advances.

La expulsión de los españoles de México y su destino incierto, 1821-1836 Jesús Ruiz de Gordejuela Urquijo, 2006. Los temas de este libro son por una parte la política antiespañola que se puso en marcha en la América hispánica en general y en México en particular cuando culminó el proceso que condujo a la independencia de los nuevos estados y por otra la evolución política de México desde el final de la época colonial hasta la expulsión de los españoles. A esos españoles que el autor identifica y recoge en su mina, en los anexos les aguardaba un destino incierto y luego fueron rechazados en su mayor parte por el gobierno español. El libro da a conocer el drama humano que vivieron esos hombres y mujeres exiliados entre 1821 y 1836 que en parte por la política del rey español Fernando VII y en parte por las ambiciones de la naciente burguesía mexicana se vieron obligados a abandonar la tierra en la que habían formado su familia y su fortuna

Memorias de Historia Antigua XXIII-XXIV , Family, Work, and Household in Late Medieval Iberia Jeff Fynn-Paul,2017-09-11 Family Work and Household presents the social and occupational life of a late medieval Iberian town in rich unprecedented detail The book combines a diachronic study of two regionally prominent families one knightly and one mercantile with a detailed cross sectional urban study of household and occupation The town in question is the market town and administrative centre of Manresa in Catalonia whose exceptional archives make such a study possible For the diachronic studies Fynn Paul relied upon the fact that Manresan archives preserve scores of individual family notarial registers and the cross sectional study was made possible by the Liber Manifesti of 1408 a cadastral survey which details the property holdings of individual householders to an unusually thorough degree In these pages the economic and social strategies of many individuals including both knights and burghers come to light over the course of several generations The Black Death and its aftermath play a prominent role in changing the outlook of many social actors Other chapters detail the socioeconomic topography of the town and examine occupational hierarchies for such groups as rentiers merchants leatherworkers cloth workers women householders and the poor
