Nordic Dance Spaces Petri Hoppu, 2016-05-06 Dance has been connected to the practices and ideologies that have shaped notions of a Nordic region for more than a century and it is ingrained into the culture and society of the region This book investigates different dance phenomena that have either engaged with or dismantled notions of Nordicness Looking to the motion of dancers and dance forms between different locations organizations and networks of individuals its authors discuss social dancing as well as historical processes associated with collaborations in folk dance and theatre dance They consider how similarities and differences between the Nordic countries may be discerned for instance in patterns of reception at the arrival of dance forms from outside the Nordic countries and vice versa how dance from the Nordic countries is received in other parts of the world as seen for example in the Nordic Cool Festival at the Kennedy Centre in 2013 The book opens a rare window into Nordic culture seen through the prism of dance While it grants the reader new insights into the critical role of dance in the formation and imagining of a region it also raises questions about the interplay between dance practices and politics

Buddhism and Postmodern Imaginings in Thailand Jim Taylor, 2008 This book presents a rethink on the significance of Thai Buddhism in an increasingly complex and changing post modern urban context especially following the financial crisis of 1997 Defining the cultural nature of Thai urbanity the implications for local global flows interactions and emergent social formations James Taylor opens up new possibilities in understanding the specificities of everyday urban life as this relates to perceptions conceptions and lived experiences of religiosity Changes in the centre are also reverberating in the remaining forests and the monastic tradition of forest dwelling which has sourced most of the nation's modern saints The text is based on ethnography taking into account the rich variety of everyday practices in a range of the religious In Thailand Buddhism is so intimately interconnected with national identity and social economic and ethno political concerns as to be inseparable Taylor argues here that in recent years there has been a marked reformulation of important conventional cosmologies through new and challenging Buddhist ideas and practices These influences and changes are as much located outside as inside the Buddhist temples monasteries

Dialogues in Urban and Regional Planning 6 Christopher Silver, Robert Freestone, Christophe Demaziere, 2017-08-24 The Dialogues in Urban and Regional Planning series offers a selection of some of the best scholarship in urban and regional planning from around the world The internationally recognized authors of these award winning papers take up a range of salient issues from the theory and practice of planning This 6th volume incorporates essays that explore the salient issue commonly referred to as The Right to the City This theme speaks to a growing new movement within planning theory and practice with multiple aims and strategies but with the common objective of advancing a more just and equitable world The right to the city functions as a manifesto advancing academic explorations of the opportunities for and barriers to expanding human and environmental justice At the same time it extends beyond academic inquiry to engage directly with the policy legal and political dimensions of human rights The right to the city has been invoked by global bodies such as United Nations Habitat and the United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization to bolster not only their agendas around fundamental human rights but advance urban policies promoting inclusion sustainability and resilience Dialogues 6 offers engaging explorations into the academic expeditions by the global planning community that have helped to energize this movement. The papers assembled here through processes of peer review represent an invaluable collection to untangle the complexities of this dynamic new approach to urban and regional planning. The Dialogues in Urban and Regional Planning (DURP) series is published in association with the Global Planning Education Association Network (GPEAN) and its member national and transnational planning schools associations.

City of Crisis Frank Eckardt, Javier Ruiz Sánchez, 2015-08-15 The ongoing crisis in Europe has dramatic impact on the life in many Southern European cities. Unemployment, social deprivation, poverty, political instability, severe cuts in the welfare state budgets and a wide spread feeling of despair have eroded much of the social foundation of the cities. In this book, contributors from Spain, Greece, Portugal and Italy provide an insight into the complex interference between the different aspects of the crisis. They show that the recent urban crisis is not purely a result of the budgetary problems of the nation state, austerity, urbanism, but needs to be seen as multiple contestations. The Crisis of the City is therefore understood as a result of a changing nation state, cultural diversity, challenged urban planning and politics and a globalized economy.

Analysing Media Discourses John E. Richardson, Joseph D. Burridge, 2014-02-25 The continual growth in the significance of mass mediated communication makes it essential that we are able to reflect upon and critically appreciate the semiotic processes that are involved in their impact upon social and cultural life. This edited collection showcases a range of diverse approaches to the analysis of various forms of mediated communications including varying degrees of attention to their associated textual, discursive and social practices. Individual contributions are devoted to exploring in analytical depth multiple dimensions of each of the following media: newspaper articles, magazines, both historical advertising and contemporary editorial discourse, television, both situation comedy and reality TV programmes, books, covers and content in two genres, political leaflets and a flight simulation computer game. The collection will be an important resource for scholars and students within disciplines including communication studies, sociology, media studies, cultural studies, discourse studies and journalism studies. This book was published as a special issue of Social Semiotics.

Critiques of Everyday Life Michael Gardiner, 2002-01-04 Recent years have witnessed a burgeoning interest in the study of everyday life within the social sciences and humanities. In Critiques of Everyday Life, Michael Gardiner proposes that there exists a counter tradition within everyday life theorising. This counter tradition has sought not merely to describe lived experience but to transform it by elevating our understanding of the everyday to the status of a critical knowledge. In his analysis, Gardiner engages with the work of a number of significant theorists and approaches that have been marginalized by mainstream academe, including the French tradition of everyday life theorising from the surrealists to Henri Lefebvre and from the Situationist International to Michel de Certeau, Agnes Heller and the relationship between the everyday, rationality and ethics, Carnival, prosaics and intersubjectivity in the work of Mikhail Bakhtin, Dorothy E. Smith's feminist perspective on everyday life. Critiques of Everyday Life demonstrates the importance of an alternative multidisciplinary everyday life paradigm and offers a myriad of new possibilities for critical social and cultural theorising and empirical research      Routledge Handbook of Critical International Relations Jenny Edkins, 2019-03-11 Critical international relations is both firmly established and rapidly expanding and this Handbook offers a wide ranging survey of contemporary research It affords insights into exciting developments more challenging issues and less prominent topics examining debates around questions of imperialism race gender ethics and aesthetics and offering both an overview of the existing state of critical international politics and an agenda setting collection that highlights emerging areas and fosters future research Sections cover critique and the discipline relations beyond humanity art and narrative war religion and security otherness and diplomacy spaces and times resistance and embodiment and intimacy An international group of expert scholars whose contributions are commissioned for the volume provide chapters that facilitate teaching at advanced undergraduate and postgraduate level inspire new generations of researchers in the field and promote collaboration cross fertilisation and inspiration across sub fields often treated separately such as feminism postcolonialism and poststructuralism The volume sees these strands as complementary not contradictory and emphasises their shared political goals shared theoretical resources and complementary empirical practices Each chapter offers specific focused in depth analysis that complements and exemplifies the broader coverage making this Routledge Handbook of Critical International Relations essential reading for all students and scholars of international relations      Everyday Life Michael Sheringham, 2006-03-09 In the last twenty years the concept of the quotidien or the everyday has been prominent in contemporary French culture and in British and American cultural studies This book provides the first comprehensive analytical survey of the whole field of approaches to the everyday It offers firstly a historical perspective demonstrating the importance of mainstream and dissident Surrealism the indispensable contribution over a 20 year period 1960 80 of four major figures Henri Lefebvre Roland Barthes Michel de Certeau and Georges Perec and the recent proliferation of works that investigate everyday experience Secondly it establishes the framework of philosophical ideas on which discourses on the everyday depend but which they characteristically subvert Thirdly it comprises searching analyses of works in a variety of genres including fiction the essay poetry theatre film photography and the visual arts consistently stressing how explorations of the everyday tend to question and combine genres in richly creative ways By demonstrating the enduring contribution of Perec and others and exploring the Surrealist inheritance the book proposes a genealogy for the remarkable upsurge of interest in the everyday since the 1980s A second main objective is to raise questions about the dimension of experience addressed by artists and thinkers when they invoke the quotidien or related concepts Does the everyday refer to an objective content defined by particular activities or is it best thought of in terms of rhythm repetition festivity ordinariness the generic the obvious the given Are there events or acts that are uniquely everyday or is the quotidien a way of thinking about events and acts in the here and now as opposed to the longer term What techniques or genres are best suited to conveying the nature of everyday life The book explores these questions in a comparative spirit drawing new parallels between the work of numerous writers and artists including Andr Breton Raymond Queneau Walter Benjamin Michel Leiris Maurice Blanchot Michel Foucault Stanley Cavell Annie Ernaux Jacques R da and Sophie Calle

Spaces of Aid Lisa Smirl, 2015-03-12 Aid workers commonly bemoan that the experience of working in the field sits uneasily with the goals they've signed up to visiting project sites in air conditioned Land Cruisers while the intended beneficiaries walk barefoot through the heat or checking emails from within gated compounds while surrounding communities have no running water Spaces of Aid provides the first book length analysis of what has colloquially been referred to as Aid Land It explores in depth two high profile case studies the Aceh tsunami and Hurricane Katrina in order to uncover a fascinating history of the objects and spaces that have become an endemic yet unexamined part of the delivery of humanitarian assistance

Marxism and Urban Culture Benjamin Fraser, 2014-04-24 Marxism and Urban Culture is the first volume to reconcile social science and humanities perspectives on culture Covering a range of global cities Bologna Buenos Aires Guatemala City Liverpool London Los Angeles Madrid Mahalla al Kubra Mexico City Montreal Osaka Strasbourg Vienna the contributions fuse political and theoretical concerns with analyses of urban cultural practices and historical movements as well as urban themed literary and filmic art Conceived as a response to the persistent rift between disciplinary Marxist approaches to culture this book prioritizes the urban problematic and builds implicitly and explicitly on work by numerous thinkers not only Karl Marx but also David Harvey Henri Lefebvre Friedrich Engels and Antonio Gramsci among others Rather than reanimate reductive views either of Marx or of urban theory the chapters in Marxism and Urban Culture speak broadly to the interdisciplinary connections that are increasingly the concern of cultural scholars working across and beyond the boundaries of geography sociology history political science language and literature fields film studies and more A foreword written by Andy Merrifield the author of Metromarxism and an introduction by Benjamin Fraser the author of Henri Lefebvre and the Spanish Urban Experience situate the book's chapters firmly in interdisciplinary terrain

Dwelling Orsolya Katalin Petőcz, Naomi Segal, 2024-07-15 Dwelling is both an action and a location it combines the spatial idea of habitation dwelling in with the temporal idea of lingering dwelling on We live not only in bricks and mortar a tent a hut or a spaceship but also in that most changeable of forms our body or in a remembered or virtual home Especially since COVID 19 we have seen changes in the topography of everyday life In this multi disciplinary collection a complex of meanings is approached from a variety of specific often personal angles Framed by two longer essays which theorise how the psychology of home may change under sudden pressure and how social relations are embodied in windows doors walls and stairs the book includes 18 further essays Part I Informal settlements shows how a slum urban development or nomadic life may create a self sustaining identity in Part II Huts and bridges impermanence shapes the state of dwelling while Part III Liminal bodies presents bodies suspended at thresholds of change Movement in time and space characterises the last three sections Part IV Moving home depicts transitions and arrivals Part V Dwelling in Memory focuses on recollections of past places and Part VI Are we there yet points the way to a future in which the consulting room changes to 2D a family is exiled onto the small screen or we imagine breaking away altogether into outer space Digital Cities: The Interdisciplinary Future of the Urban Geo-Humanities Benjamin Fraser, 2015-07-30 This book highlights an interdisciplinary terrain where the humanities and social sciences combine with digital methods It argues that while disciplinary frictions still condition the potential of digital projects the nature of the urban phenomenon pushes us toward an interdisciplinary and digital future where the primacy of cities is assured Cultural Studies Vol18 Issue 2 Various Authors, 2021-12-24 Issue 2 3 2004 includes articles on rethinking everyday life the myth of everyday life the persistence of everyday everyday tragedy and creation time and space in everyday life everyday utopianism profane illuminations a different life looking at Barthes and Foucault routine and ambiguity shame presences a mundane voice limitations and consumption of digital commodities in everyday life to name a few Building the Body Politic Margaret E. Farrar, 2008 Power language and urban planning politics in Washington D C Visions of the City David Pinder, 2013-11-12 Visions of the City is a dramatic history of utopian urbanism in the twentieth century It explores radical demands for new spaces and ways of living and considers their effects on planning architecture and struggles to shape urban landscapes The author critically examines influential utopian approaches to urbanism in western Europe associated with such figures as Ebenezer Howard and Le Corbusier uncovering the political interests desires and anxieties that lay behind their ideal cities He also investigates avant garde perspectives from the time that challenged these conceptions of cities especially from within surrealism At the heart of this richly illustrated book is an encounter with the explosive ideas of the situationists Tracing the subversive practices of this avant garde group and its associates from their explorations of Paris during the 1950s to their alternative visions based on nomadic life and play David Pinder convincingly explains the significance of their revolutionary attempts to transform urban spaces and everyday life He addresses in particular Constant's New Babylon finding within his proposals a still powerful provocation to imagine cities otherwise The book not only recovers vital moments from past hopes and dreams of modern urbanism It also contests current claims about the end of utopia arguing that reconsidering earlier projects can play a critical role in developing utopian perspectives today Through the study of utopian visions it aims to rekindle elements of utopianism itself A superb critical exploration of the underside of utopian thought over the last hundred years and its continuing relevance in the here and now for thinking about possible urban worlds The treatment of the Situationists and their milieu is a revelation David Harvey Distinguished Professor of Anthropology City University of New York Graduate School Leadership in Spaces and Places Arja Ropo, Perttu Salovaara, Erika Sauer, Donatella De Paoli, 2015-06-29 By combining new research on leadership and workspaces Leadership in Spaces and Places argues for a radical reconceptualization of leadership They argue leadership is not only about leaders themselves but is also affected by the built environment
