Classicism and Christianity in Late Antique Latin Poetry Prof. Philip Hardie, 2019-08-27 After centuries of near silence Latin poetry underwent a renaissance in the late fourth and fifth centuries CE evidenced in the works of key figures such as Ausonius Claudian Prudentius and Paulinus of Nola This period of resurgence marked a milestone in the reception of the classics of late Republican and early imperial poetry In Classicism and Christianity in Late Antique Latin Poetry Philip Hardie explores the ways in which poets writing on non Christian and Christian subjects used the classical traditions of Latin poetry to construct their relationship with Rome s imperial past and present and with the by now not so new belief system of the state religion Christianity The book pays particular attention to the themes of concord and discord the cosmic sense of late antiquity novelty and renouatio paradox and miracle and allegory It is also a contribution to the ongoing discussion of whether there is an identifiably late antique poetics and a late antique practice of intertextuality Not since Michael Robert's classic The Jeweled Style has a single book had so much to teach about the enduring power of Latin poetry in late antiquity
