Danielle,2011-04-13 There once was a time I did not enjoy the things I most enjoy today writing was one of them This is one of my first writings at the age of 30 I wondered if there would be more Little did I know it was just the beginning My aunt had given me a womans devotional Bible to read In the commentary it said Take notice today of ten things God has created As I left my home to go to work all I saw was buildings houses and the highway much more concrete than nature And then I prayed about it Lord its so hard to find you in all this cement Thats when I looked up and saw the most beautiful sky and started to notice God in this place Deanna Danielle An Ordinary Person An Extraordinary Gift is a well reflected practical piece of work Deanna extensively shared her own personal faith experience that is enshrined with failure rejection success and trials However in them through the common obedience to the teachings of Jesus Christ that is always love based She was able to see the extraordinary in the ordinary The coming together of people from different Diaspora that made up the collage of the Apostles demonstrates how a profound understanding came to be possible in that community when the apostles accepted the ordinariness of their lives through the extraordinary teachings of Jesus Christ Deanna was positively poised in her work to help her readers on a practical level see how Jesus Christ our primary teacher is always transforming us into what he wants us to be and represent Always ready to transform the ordinariness of our lives into the extraordinary vision of strength courage and hope Fr Paul Nwambu MAPCC BCC An Ordinary Person An Extraordinary Gift is a lullaby for the soul composed not in the colloquial sense but in the cadence of loving experience shared with the hope of reawakening the message of Gods love to our collective overwrought heart The text is succor for an audience searching for the simple and welcoming reminder of the very real existence of divine love Elaine Caughlan Copy Line Editor What a beautiful personinside and out What a BIG heart she has Such a pleasure being her friend and relative God has truly been such an integral part of her life You have to read this book to see for yourself Maria Staropoli Womens Leadership Honor at Daybreak Elmer Kelton,2002 Caprock Texas is a sleepy cow town where not much happened until oil is discovered in the 1920s Suddenly the Speaking Our Selves Asiimwe Deborah Kawe,Robert H. Vorlicky,2025-03-04 Speaking Our Selves brings together eight remarkable plays by women writers from the under represented African countries of Tanzania Mozambique Ethiopia Mali Burundi Benin and Sudan plus a play by award winning Ugandan playwright and volume coeditor Asiimwe Kawe Four of the plays are translated into English from Kiswahili French or Kirundi and French while most of the plays preserve African indigenous languages including Runyankore Lusoga Mina Fon Bambara Luganda Kiswahili and Kirundi Although the plays are united in presenting women as central figures who own their voices they also represent a rich diversity of story telling Each unique dramaturgy is rooted in African forms of story telling that occasionally merge with recognizable Western forms to create hybrid dramatic forms These hybrid methods emphasize the striking ways in which African women writers continue to experiment with form moving beyond Western influenced dramaturgy if and when it jeopardizes their authentic ways of artistic expression and creation through language movement and music centered in African Cosmology The plays within Speaking Our Selves confront a range of ideas and issues including women embracing the potential of agency in often contested subject positions confronting their historical object positions in worlds of devastating patriarchal authority resisting toxic masculinity and persistent oppressive binaries of gender roles finding power in communities of women increasing their acumen in financial business and economic spheres facing tensions between traditional religious tenets and efforts toward secularization living with perpetual acts of violence toward their bodies and the rising mental health issues among girls and women across the continent Readers and audiences are challenged by these plays not to be passive witnesses by observing from safe vantage points but rather to be active participants in the stories being told
