I've Always Laughed Count Arthur Strong, 2013-10-31 Count Arthur Strong tells the story of his extraordinary journey from his humble early years as the only son of a contortionist in wartime Doncaster to the dizzy heights and excesses of fame as one of the shining lights of popular entertainment. Count Arthur Strong is a show business legend, after-dinner speaker and a leading authority on Ancient Egypt, having been stationed there during his national service. He has countless friends in the showbiz world. People like Barry Cryer, the white-haired one with glasses off. I'm Sorry I Haven't Got a Clue and Jokers Wild. This is his first volume of what he believes may be a 6-volume collection of his memoirs. He has a few select dates still available for anything except window cleaning and is represented if you can call it that by Richard Daws at Komedica Entertainment. Or if you want to go directly through me and pay cash, I can do that as well. In fact, I prefer that. Thank you.

Rushford, 2004-02-01 Patricia Rushford kicks off a thrilling new crime series set in the cozy coastal hamlet of Sunset Cove, Oregon. Featuring determined police officer Angel Delaney, the first episode is sure to have armchair sleuths turning the pages as fast as they can to discover whodunit. When a police shootout results in the death of a 12-year-old boy, Officer Angel Delaney is blamed, convicted and condemned by the media and the Sunset Cove community before the case even goes to trial. Angel will have her day in court, but before she has the chance to defend herself, the situation spirals out of control. Key evidence is missing, evidence that could have verified her claim of firing only one shot in self-defense. In short order, the body count rises and suddenly Angel is a suspect in more than one murder investigation. Heartsick about the young boy's death and questioning her judgment as a police officer, Angel joins forces with Detective Callen Riley to fight the mounting charges against her. Classic CD., 1998.
