

5 Themes of Geography

Student Learning Objective: Describe the 5 themes of Geography IOT Evaluate how geography determines development.

Watch the following Video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EH0yu-CqGws&feature=emb_logo

Based on the following Video, create definitions for the following terms:

Key Term	Definition
Location:	The position of a place on the earth surface.
Place:	An area that is defined by everything in it.
Region:	Is an area that is defined by certain similar characteristics
Movement:	Refers to the way people, products, information, and ideas move from one place to another.
Human Environment Interaction:	Looks at the relationships between people and their environment

Key Notes

The study of geography is broader than knowing the location of states, capitals, far away places, bodies of water, continents and countries. The scope of geography includes the study of people and culture, their resources, their relationship with their environment, their conflicts, and their relationships with other people and nations.
