

A New Vision for Immigrant Integration

Societies are facing dramatic pressures from immigration, political upheaval, digitisation and labour-market change, and population ageing. To help newcomers and communities manage social change of all kinds, policymakers need to think big. MPI Europe, in its Integration Futures series, explores leading-edge strategies to help European governments meet these challenges head on.

1

Encourage immigrant integration from the ground up

Help workers adapt to labour-market change

2

3

Rethink social protection systems to support workers in the gig economy

Think more creatively about how newcomers can contribute

4

Educate the citizens of tomorrow

Use technology to help bridge education gaps

6

7

Help everyone build the skills to live in superdiverse societies

Explore ways to 'nudge' social cohesion

9

Teach common values with carrots, not sticks

Create a space for difficult conversations on immigration and integration

Immigration Intergration Iri:

Migration, EU Integration and the Balkan Route Marko Kmezić, Alexandra Prodromidou, Pavlos Gkasis, 2023-10-20

Contributing to our understanding of the impact of the 2015 migrant crisis on the future of EU integration this book views the crisis as an accelerant to existing problems namely Brexit the growing popularity of anti immigrant far right parties and the rise of xenophobic and antiliberal governments from the Baltics to the Balkans Providing analysis at the national regional level and EU level this book shows how the countries on the migrant route have been affected according to their degree of integration with the EU and the specific socio political and economic conditions of each country The volume will be of interest to scholars or international relations security studies border studies EU policies migration studies and Southeast European studies

A Relational Ethics of Immigration Dan Bulley, 2023-10-31 To understand the ethics of immigration we need to start from the way it is enacted and understood by everyday actors through practices of hospitality and hostility Drawing on feminist and poststructuralist understandings of ethics and hospitality this book offers a new approach to immigration ethics by exploring state and societal responses to immigration from the Global North and South Rather than treating ethics as a determinable code for how we ought to behave toward strangers it explores hospitality as a relational ethics an ethics without moralism that aims to understand and possibly transform the way people already do embrace and deflect obligations and responsibilities to each other Building from specific examples in Colombia Turkey and Tanzania as well as the EU US and UK hospitality is developed as a structural and emotional practice of drawing and redrawing boundaries of inside and outside belonging and non belonging It thereby actively creates a society as a communal space with a particular ethos from a welcoming home to a racialised hostile environment Hospitality is therefore treated as a critical mode of reflecting on how we create a we and relate to others through entangled histories of colonialism displacement friendship and exploitation Only through such a reflective understanding can we seek to transform immigration practices to better reflect the real and aspirational ethos of a society Instead of simple answers removing borders or creating global migration regimes the book argues for grounded negotiations that build from existing local capacities to respond to immigration

Israeli Democracy at the Crossroads Raphael Cohen-Almagor, 2013-09-13 In recent years the discussion about Israel was dominated by post Zionist post Israeli opinions Important voices that represent large sectors of Israeli society were not heard To somewhat change this situation some of the best scholars in their respective fields participate in this ultimate collection of essays about Israeli society its politics and schisms The book aims to tackle timely concerns like Israel s fight against terror its relationships with the Palestinians the mutual relationships between the civic society and the army the status of women in society and separation between state and religion Particular attention is given to probing the state of human rights minority rights and health rights The volume also discusses the tensions between liberalism and socialism between state and religion and between immigration groups most notably resulting from the immigration from the former Soviet Union How Migration Really Works Hein de Haas,2023-12-19 An authoritative guide to global migration that corrects decades of misunderstanding and misguided policy defying orthodoxy on all sides of the debate Yascha Mounk author of The Identity Trap As debates on immigration have reached fever pitch so has political and media fearmongering But what are the facts behind the headlines Drawing on three decades of research migration expert Hein de Haas destroys the myths that politicians interest groups and media spread about immigration He reveals Global migration is not at an all time high Climate change will not lead to mass migration Immigration mainly benefits the wealthy not workers Border restrictions have paradoxically produced more migration Ultimately de Haas shows migration not as a problem to be solved nor as a solution to a problem but as it really is This book is an essential guide to one of our most divisive political issues showing how we can move beyond today s deeply polarized debate and make migration work better for everyone How to Do Migration Research Ricard Zapata-Barrero,Daniela Vintila,2024-07-05 This book provides a toolkit for tackling the fundamental questions and challenges in planning and conducting migration research It illustrates not only how to develop rigorous methodological procedures but also how to effectively disseminate research findings to both academics and practitioners Stereotypes and Intercultural Relations: Interdisciplinary Integration, New Approaches, and New Contexts John W. International Labour Documentation International Labour Office. Library,1970 More Than Two to Tango Anah Viladrich,2013-09-26 The world of Argentine tango presents a glamorous fa ade of music and movement Yet the immigrant artists whose livelihoods depend on the US tango industry receive little attention beyond their enigmatic public personas More Than Two to Tango offers a detailed portrait of Argentine immigrants for whom tango is both an art form and a means of survival Based on a highly visible group of performers within the almost hidden population of Argentines in the United States More than Two to Tango addresses broader questions on the understudied role of informal webs in the entertainment field Through the voices of both early generations of immigrants and the latest wave of newcomers Anah Viladrich explores how the dancers musicians and singers utilize their complex social networks to survive as artists and immigrants She reveals a diverse community navigating issues of identity class and race as they struggle with practical concerns such as the high cost of living in New York City and affordable health care Argentina s social history serves as the compelling backdrop for understanding the trajectory of tango performers and Viladrich uses these foundations to explore their current unified front to keep tango as their own authentic expression Yet social ties are no panacea for struggling immigrants Even as More Than Two to Tango offers the notion that each person is truly conceived and transformed by their journeys around the globe it challenges rosy portraits of Argentine tango artists by uncovering how their glamorous representations veil their difficulties to make ends meet in the global entertainment industry In the end the portrait of Argentine tango performers diverse career paths contributes to our larger understanding of who may attain the American Dream and redefines what that means for Migration and Diaspora Formation Ciprian Burlăcioiu, 2022-09-20 The role of migration for Christianity as a world religion during the last two centuries has drawn considerable attention from scholars in different fields The main issue this book seeks to address is the question whether and to what extent migration and diaspora formation should be considered as elements of a new historiography of global Christianity including the reflection upon earlier epochs By focusing on migration and diaspora the emerging map of Christianity will include the dimension of movement and interaction between actors in different regions providing a more comprehensive map of agency of individuals and groups previously regarded as passive Furthermore local histories will become parts of a broader picture and historiography might correlate both local and transregional perspectives in a balanced manner Behind this approach lies the desire to broaden the perspective of Ecclesiastical History and religious history in general in a more systematic manner by questioning the traditional criteria of selection This might help us to recover previously lost actors and forgotten dynamics

Rebuilding Communities After Displacement Mo Hamza, Dilanthi Amaratunga, Richard Haigh, Chamindi Malalgoda, Chathurangane Jayakody, Anuradha Senanayake, 2023-02-19 This book presents a collection of double blind peer reviewed papers under the scope of sustainable and resilient approaches for rebuilding displaced and host communities Forced displacement is a major development challenge not only a humanitarian concern A surge in violent conflict as well as increasing levels of disaster risk and environmental degradation driven by climate change has forced people to leave or flee their homes both internally displaced as well as refugees The rate of forced displacement befalling in different countries all over the world today is phenomenal with an increasingly higher rate of the population being affected on daily basis than ever These displacement situations are becoming increasingly protracted many lasting over 5 years Therefore there is a need to develop more sustainable and resilient approaches to rebuild these displaced communities ensuring the long term satisfaction of communities and enhancing the social cohesion between the displaced and host communities Accordingly chapters are arranged around five main themes of rebuilding communities after displacement Response management for displaced communities The Built environment in resettlement planning Governance of displacement Socio Economic interventions for sustainable resettlement
