The Round Table Movement and the Fall of the 'Second' British Empire (1909-1919) Andrea Bosco, 2017-01-06 In spite of the general phobia of federalism there is a strong federalist trend within British political culture In three very different historical contexts federalism inspired the action of political movements such as the Imperial Federation League the Round Table and the Federal Union Indeed it was regarded as the solution to problems arising from the first signs of the possible collapse of Great Britain and its Empire The Round Table Movement played a particularly interesting role in this regard attempting to reverse the rapid and inexorable decline of the British Empire It was a political organisation with roots in all the major peripheries of the Empire and almost unlimited financial resources This volume discusses the strategies and means employed by the group in order to maintain the British Empire's global prominence The book's main argument is that we did not have a British century the nineteenth and an American century the twentieth but rather four centuries of Anglo Saxon supremacy which witnessed the affirmation of the national principle expression of the Continental political tradition and its overcoming through its opposite the federal principle the expression of the insular political tradition

The Politics of Viewing in Xenophon's Historical Narratives Rosie Harman, 2023-01-12 This book considers cultural identity and power relations in early fourth century BCE Greece through a reading of Xenophon's historical narratives the Hellenica Anabasis and Cyropaedia These texts depict conflicts between Greek states conflicts between Greeks and non Greeks and relations between the elite individual and society In all three texts politically significant moments are imagined in visual terms We witness spectacles of Spartan military victory vistas of Asian landscape or displays of Persian imperial pomp and historical protagonists are presented as spectators viewing and responding to events Through this visual form of narration the reader is encouraged imaginatively to place themselves in the position of the historical protagonists In viewing events from different perspectives and therefore occupying multiple often conflicting political positions the reader not only experiences the problems faced by historical actors but becomes engaged in the political conflicts acted out in the narratives The reader is prompted to take pleasure in the sight of Panhellenic achievement but also to witness the divisions and conflicts between Greeks on class and ethnic lines Similarly the reader is invited to identify with spectacular Greek and non Greek figures of power as emblems of Greek imperial potential but also to see through the eyes of those communities subjugated at their hands The depiction of spectacles and spectators draws the reader into an active participation in the ideological contradictions of their time in a period when Panhellenic aspiration co existed with hegemonic competition between Greek states and when Greeks could be both beneficiaries and victims of imperialism
