Poems Sextus Propertius, 2018-09-27 The Poetry Book Society Autumn 2018 Recommended Translation Asked to name the great Latin love poets today's reader is likely to offer Catullus Ovid Virgil Horace Propertius a successor of the first and influential peer to the others has not been blessed by posterity Yet at their best his poems match any of the period They are poems of love of desire of insecurity and obsession of struggle too as they resist the Augustan Empire's attempts to turn its love poets into propagandists The result is a highly refined irony a subtlety of tone and humour that is unique Patrick Worsnip's translations bring out Propertius playfulness and his psychological acuity reinstating his poems at the heart of Latin literature's golden age

Beyond Jupiter's Kneecaps Spencer Payne, 2015-01-27 When Wilson is taken away from his high school he finds himself in the center of the Bulbous Wood with little clue of how to get out A stranger called Jarlsberg instructs him to make his way to Boxen Roxen the city of children that cannot grow In search of a purpose that will prove to his school principal he has worth Wilson must make his way through this newfound land and get home Getting home is not that easy though for he is light years from Earth and Wilson still wonders if his adventure is real at all or if he died in the bus crash and has reached paradise
