Finns In The Shadow Of The Aryans:

Finns in the shadow of the "Aryans" Aira Kemiläinen, 1998 Racial Science in Hitler's New Europe, 1938-1945 Anton Weiss-Wendt, Rory Yeomans, 2020-04-01 In Racial Science in Hitler's New Europe 1938-1945 international scholars examine the theories of race that informed the legal political and social policies aimed against ethnic minorities in Nazi dominated Europe. The essays explicate how racial science preexisting racist sentiments and pseudoscientific theories of race that were preeminent in interwar Europe ultimately facilitated Nazi racial designs for a New Europe. The volume examines racial theories in a number of European nation states in order to understand racial thinking at large, the origins of the Holocaust and the history of ethnic discrimination in each of those countries. The essays by uncovering neglected layers of complexity, diversity and nuance demonstrate how local discourse on race paralleled Nazi racial theory but had unique nationalist intellectual traditions of racial thought. Written by rising scholars who are new to English language audiences, this work examines the scientific foundations that central, eastern, northern and southern European countries laid for ethnic discrimination, the attempted annihilation of Jews and the elimination of other so-called inferior peoples. Finland in World War II, 2011-11-25 This volume brings together a rich array of original contributions hitherto unavailable in English on Finland during World War II and the place of the war in Finnish collective memory. Providing readers with a solid narrative of the war's political and military framework from a Finnish perspective, this volume also offers well-argued analyses of the ideological, social and cultural aspects of a society at war. As part of the complex legacy of the war, it discusses the Karelian question and the Holocaust in Finnish public memory, topics often neglected in international scholarship. Besides a historical narrative, this volume with its thorough introduction also reveals to readers the history and current state of Finnish historiography of World War II. Contributors are Outi Fingerroos, Sonja Hagelstam, Antero Holmila, Markku Jokisipilä, Michael Jonas, Marianne Junila, Tiina Kinnunen, Ville Kivimäki, Helene Laurent, Henrik Meinander, Tenho Pimiö, Pasi Silvennoinen, Tuomas Tepora and Pasi Tuunainen. Finland's Holocaust S. Muir, H. Worthen, 2013-06-13 Finland's Holocaust considers antisemitism and the figure of the Holocaust in today's Finland. Taking up a range of issues from cultural history, folklore and sports to the interpretation of military and national history, this collection examines how the writing of history has engaged and evaded the figure of the Holocaust. Passages Westward Maria Lähteenmäki, Hanna Snellman, 2006-12-27 The West has always been a resource for the Finns. Scholars, artists and other professionals have sought contacts from Europe throughout the centuries. The Finnish experience in Western Europe and the New World is a story of migrant laborers, expatriates and specialists working abroad. But you don't have to be born in Finland to be a Finn. The experiences of second-generation Finnish immigrants and their descendants open up new possibilities for understanding the relationship between Finland and the West. The Finnish passage westward has not always crossed national borders. Karelian evacuees headed west as did young people from the Finnish countryside when opportunities to make a living in agriculture and forestry diminished in the post war era The legacy of these migrants is still visible in the suburbs of Finnish cities today This book is a joint effort of the Department of Ethnology and the Department of History at the University of Helsinki It was written by Ph D students supervised by Academy Research Fellows Maria L hteenm ki and Hanna Snellman in collaboration with colleagues abroad interested in current research in ethnology and history Legacies of Violence: Eastern Europe's First World War Jochen Böhler, Włodzimierz Borodziej, Joachim von Puttkamer, 2014-02-27 The First World War began in the Balkans and it was fought as fiercely in the East as it was in the West Fighting persisted in the East for almost a decade radically transforming the political and social order of the entire continent The specifics of the Eastern war such as mass deportations ethnic cleansing and the radicalization of military paramilitary and revolutionary violence have only recently become the focus of historical research This volume situates the Long First World War on the Eastern Front 1912 1923 in the hundred years from the mid 19th to the mid 20th century and explores the legacies of violence within this context Content Jochen B hler W odzimierz Borodziej Joachim von Puttkamer Introduction I A World in Transition Joachim von Puttkamer Collapse and Restoration Politics and the Strains of War in Eastern Europe Mark Biondich Eastern Borderlands and Prospective Shatter Zones Identity and Conflict in East Central and Southeastern Europe on the Eve of the First World War Jochen B hler Generals and Warlords Revolutionaries and Nation State Builders The First World War and its Aftermath in Central and Eastern Europe II Occupation Jonathan E Gumz Losing Control The Norm of Occupation in Eastern Europe during the First World War Stephan Lehnstaedt Fluctuating between Utilisation and Exploitation Occupied East Central Europe during the First World War Robert L Nelson Utopias of Open Space Forced Population Transfer Fantasies during the First World War III Radicalization Maciej G rny War on Paper Physical Anthropology in the Service of States and Nations Piotr J Wr bel Foreshadowing the Holocaust The Wars of 1914 1921 and Anti Jewish Violence in Central and Eastern Europe Robert Gerwarth Fighting the Red Beast Counter Revolutionary Violence in the Defeated States of Central Europe IV Aftermath Julia Eichenberg Consent Coercion and Endurance in Eastern Europe Poland and the Fluidity of War Experiences Philipp Ther Pre negotiated Violence Ethnic Cleansing in the Long First World War Dietrich Beyrau The Long Shadow of the Revolution Violence in War and Peace in the Soviet Union Commentary J rn Leonhard Legacies of Violence Eastern Europe s First World War A Commentary from a Comparative Perspective “Gypsies” in European Literature and Culture V. Transforming Identities in Contemporary Europe Elisabeth L. Engebretsen, Mia Liinason, 2023-08-30 Interdisciplinary in perspective this book explores contemporary struggles around identity politics in Europe offering a unique glimpse into contemporary tensions and paradoxes surrounding identities belonging exclusions and their deep seated gendered colonial and racist legacies With a particular focus on the Nordic region it provides insights into the ways in which people who find themselves in minoritized positions struggle against multiple injustices Through a series of case studies documenting counter struggles against racist colonialist sexist forms of discrimination and exclusion Transforming Identities in Contemporary Europe asks how the paradigm and politics of the welfare state operate to discriminate against the most marginalized by instating a naturalized hierarchy of human ness As such it will appeal to scholars across the social sciences and humanities with interests in race gender colonialism and postcolonialism citizenship and belonging The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license Whiteness and Postcolonialism in the Nordic Region Kristín Loftsdóttir, Lars Jensen, 2016-02-11

This book examines the influence of imperialism and colonialism on the formation of national identities in the Nordic countries exploring the manner in which contemporary discourses in Nordic society are rendered meaningful or obscured by references to past events and tropes related to the practices and ideologies of colonialism Against the background of Nordic exceptionalism it explores the manner in which the interwoven racial gendered and nationalistic ideologies associated with the colonial project form part of contemporary Nordic identities An important challenge to national identities that can become increasingly inward looking Whiteness and Postcolonialism in the Nordic Region sheds light on the ways in which certain notions and structural inequalities understood as residue from the colonial period become recreated or projected onto different groups Presenting a variety of case studies drawn from Sweden Finland Norway Greenland Denmark and Iceland this book will be of interest to scholars across the social sciences and humanities conducting research in the fields of race and ethnicity identity and belonging media representations of the other and colonialism and postcolonialism 1998

Massimo Mastrogregori, 2013-05-08 Annually published since 1930 the International bibliography of Historical Sciences IBOHS is an international bibliography of the most important historical monographs and periodical articles published throughout the world which deal with history from the earliest to the most recent times The works are arranged systematically according to period region or historical discipline and within this classification alphabetically The bibliography contains a geographical index and indexes of persons and authors Finnish Colonial Encounters Raita Merivirta, Leila Koivunen, Timo Särkkä, 2022-01-01 Breaking new ground in the study of European colonialism this book focuses on a nation historically positioned between the Western and Eastern Empires of Europe Finland Although Finland never had overseas colonies the authors argue that the country was undeniably involved in the colonial world with Finns adopting ideologies and identities that cannot easily be disentangled from colonialism This book explores the concepts of colonial complicity and colonialism without colonies in relation to Finland a nation that was oppressed but also itself complicit in colonialism It offers insights into European colonialism on the margins of the continent and within a nation that has traditionally declared its innocence and exceptionalism The book shows that Finns were active participants in various colonial contexts including Southern Africa and S pmi in the North Demonstrating that colonialism was a common practice shared by all European nations with or without formal colonies this book provides essential reading for anyone interested in European colonial history Chapters 1 7 and 8 are available open access under a via link springer.com Redescriptions Kari Palonen,2009 Redescriptions was recently renamed as the Yearbook of Political Thought Conceptual History and Feminist Theory In volume 12 2008 aspects of studying the politics of the past are thematized through feminist historians discussion on war and the role of the worker in communist regimes One article and two comments on an article published in volume 11 deal with contemporary theories of democracy One of the included articles discusses the chances of democratization in the EU and one carries out a fictional analysis of an undemocratic regime Three articles propose rhetorical redescriptions of key political concepts namely objectivity decision and patriotism Baltic Eugenics Björn M. Felder,Paul J. Weindling,2013-09-01 The history of eugenics in the Baltic States is largely unknown The book compares for the first time the eugenic projects of Estonia Latvia and Lithuania and the related disciplines of racial anthropology and psychiatry and situates them within the wider European context Strong ethno nationalism defined the nation as a biological group which was fostered by authoritarian regimes established in Lithuania in 1926 and in Estonia and Latvia in 1934 The eugenics projects were designed to establish a nation in biological terms Their aims were to render the nation ethnically genetically and racially homogeneous The main agenda was a non democratic state that defined its population in biological terms Eugenic policies were to regenerate the nation and to reconstruct it as a pure and original race Such schemes for national regeneration contained strong elements of secular religion The Cambridge History of Scandinavia: Volume 2, 1520-1870 E. I. Kouri,Jens E. Olesen,2016-03-24 Volume 2 of The Cambridge History of Scandinavia provides a comprehensive and authoritative account of the Scandinavian countries from the close of the Middle Ages through to the formation of the nation states in the mid nineteenth century Beginning in 1520 the opening chapters of the volume discuss the reformation of the Nordic states and the enormous impact this had on the social structures cultural identities and traditions of individual countries With contributions from 38 leading historians the book charts the major developments that unfolded within this crucial period of Scandinavian history Chapters address topics such as material growth and the centralisation of power in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries as well as the evolution of trade foreign policy and client states in the eighteenth century Volume 2 concludes by discussing the new economic and social orders of the nineteenth century in connection with the emergence of the nation states Untimely Sacrifices Daena Aki Funahashi,2023-04-15 Untimely Sacrifices questions why individuals may give their time and energy to the collective against their own self interest Turning to Finland where public health officials named occupational burnout as a new hazard of the new economy Daena Funahashi asks What moves people to work to the point of pathological stress Contrary to health experts who highlight the importance of self management and energetic conservation Funahashi questions the very economic premise of cognitive psychology that one could economize one s energy and thus save oneself By pitting anthropological takes on sacrifice next to the clinical discourses on pressure work and coping Funahashi offers ways to rethink what drives stress Untimely Sacrifices also provides a compelling critique of state welfare and political economy contesting the tendency to treat the gift economy as something separate from the force that makes redistributive mechanisms of state welfare work It is a book essential to those interested in how forces unassimilable to conventional economy come to matter in issues of labor stress and welfare

Revista Română de studii Baltice și Nordice , Finnishness, Whiteness and Coloniality Josephine Hoegaerts,Tuire Liimatainen,Laura Hekanaho,Elizabeth Peterson,2022-08-22 This multidisciplinary volume reflects the shifting experiences and framings of Finnishness and its relation to race and coloniality The authors centre their investigations on whiteness and unravel the cultural myth of a normative Finnish white ethnicity Rather than presenting a unified definition for whiteness the book gives space to the different understandings and analyses of its authors This collection of case studies illuminates how Indigenous and ethnic minorities have participated in defining notions of Finnishness how historical and recent processes of migration have challenged the traditional conceptualisations of the nation state and its population and how imperial relationships have contributed to a complex set of discourses on Finnish compliance and identity With an aim to question and problematise what may seem self evident aspects of Finnish life and Finnishness expert voices join together to offer counter perspectives on how Finnishness is constructed and perceived Scholars from cultural studies history sociology linguistics genetics among others address four main topics 1 Imaginations of Finnishness including perceived physical characteristics of Finnish people 2 Constructions of whiteness entailing studies of those who do and do not pass as white 3 Representations of belonging and exclusion making up of accounts of perceptions of what it means to be Finnish and 4 Imperialism and colonisation including what might be considered uncomfortable or even surprising accounts of inclusion and exclusion in the Finnish context This volume takes a first step in opening up a complex set of realities that define Finland s changing role in the world and as a home to diverse populations American Indians, the Irish, and Government Schooling Michael C. Coleman,2007-01-01 For centuries American Indians and the Irish experienced assaults by powerful expanding states along with massive land loss and population collapse In the early nineteenth century the U S government acting through the Bureau of Indian Affairs BIA began a systematic campaign to assimilate Indians The East-West Discourse Alexander Maxwell,2011 This volume examines East West rhetoric in several different historical contexts seeking to problematise its implicit assumptions and analyse its consequences

Constructivism, Narrative and Foreign Policy Analysis Christopher S. Browning,2008 Building on constructivist approaches to international relations this book develops a narrative theory of identity action and foreign policy which is then applied to account for the evolution of Finnish foreign policy The book adopts an innovative approach by showing how foreign policy orientations need to be seen as grounded in overlapping and competing sets of identity narratives that reappear in different forms through history By emphasising the dynamism implicit within identity narratives the book not only challenges traditional rationalist materialist approaches to foreign policy analysis but also the current tendency to depict the story of Finnish foreign policy identity and history as one of a gradual move towards a Western location. Rather, the book emphasises elements of multiplicity and contingency whilst re-establishing foreign policy as a highly political process concerned with power and the right to define reality and national subjectivity.
