That Their Work Will Be a Joy Cameron Lee, Kurt Fredrickson, 2012-09-01 For those who are called to it pastoral ministry can be a source of deep joy But there are also challenges An increasing number of pastors seem to be burning out under the load Congregations may not be aware of the many and conflicting demands placed on a pastor's time and energies nor the pastor's need for rest and personal support. That Their Work Will Be a Joy was written to encourage mutual understanding between pastors and congregations about the stresses of ministry. The authors present five principles that will help ministry remain more of a joy than a burden. Every chapter contains practical recommendations targeted specifically for pastors, congregational leaders, and even seminarians preparing for ministry. A dozen personal responses to the book, written as letters from people in ministry, have been collected together at the end. The book is helpful as a ministry preparation text, a guide for those serving as pastors, or as a discussion starter for pastors' support groups. It will help church committees smooth a pastoral transition or calm seminary graduates anticipating their first placement. The hope is that stressed-out pastors will recover their sense of vocation and congregations will begin to fulfill their calling as the body of Christ.

This leadership course will fit perfectly in a leadership training program.

R.E.S.C.U. E.: a Church Navigational System for Transformation J. Lindsay Sadler Jr. DMin, 2015-09-10 R E S C U E is a response to the whys in church life. Why do the majority of churches have only half or less members attend on the Lord's Day? Why have approximately 40% of pastors been involved in affairs and 50% of their marriages ended in divorce? Why is there infighting in the church and why are there so many church splits? Why are there so many pharisaical people in churches? Why is the power of the Holy Spirit absent in churches? Why is Biblical truth watered down? Why is pastor or elder leadership not trusted? Why do congregations think they can lead themselves? Why isn't the church reaching more lost souls? Why is church discipline off most church radars? Why is the average percentage of giving per member only between 1 and 3 percent? Why is a pastor's tenure only two to four years? Why do churches fear change? After 33 years of ministry overseeing all sizes of congregations, I have dealt with those whys. If churches do not address the whys, many will sink into the ecclesiastical graveyard or remain afloat in stagnate waters. I believe R E S C U E can navigate churches to be transformed into an impactful and fruitful body of believers that glorifies our Lord.
