Im Not Really Here:

I'm Not Really Here Paul Lake, 2011-08-04 Paul Lake was Manchester born a City fan from birth His footballing talent was spotted at a young age and in 1983 he signed coveted schoolboy forms for City Only a short time later he was handed the team captaincy An international career soon beckoned and after turning out for the England under 21 and B teams he received a call up to the England training camp for Italia 90 Earmarked as an England captain in the making Paul became a target for top clubs like Manchester United Arsenal Spurs and Liverpool but he always stayed loyal to his beloved club deeming Maine Road the spiritual home at which his destiny lay But then in September 1990 disaster struck Paul ruptured his cruciate ligament sustaining the worst possible injury that a footballer can suffer And so began his nightmare Neglected ignored and misunderstood by his club after a succession of failed operations Paul s career began to fall apart Watching from the sidelines as similarly injured players regained their fitness he spiralled into a prolonged bout of severe depression With an enforced retirement from the game he adored the death of his father and the collapse of his marriage Paul was left a broken man Set against a turning point in English football I m Not Really Here is the powerful story of love and loss and the cruel irreparable damage of injury of determination spirit and resilience and of unfulfilled potential and broken dreams
