Worldmaking as Techné Mark-David Hosale, Sana Murrani, Alberto de Campo, 2019-10-03

Worldmaking as Techn Participatory Art Music and Architecture outline a practice that challenges the World and how it could be through a kind of future making and or other world making by creating alternate realities as artworks that are simultaneously ontological propositions In simplified terms the concept of techn is concerned with the art and craft of making In particular a kind of practice that embodies the enactment of a theoretical approach that helps determine the significance of the work how it was made and why By positioning worldmaking as a kind of techn we seek to create a discourse of art making as an enframing of the world that results in the expression of ontological propositions through the creation of art worlds The volume focuses on the involvement of the techn of worldmaking in participatory art practice Such practice can be found in all areas of art however under scrutiny for this particular book are interactive generative and prosthetic art architecture and music practices that depend for their vitality and development on the participation of their observers The book is organized into three sections poetic machinic and cybernetic which explore the aesthetics systems methods and ontological underpinnings of a worldmaking based practice Each section contains historical texts alongside new texts The texts were carefully chosen to highlight the integration of theory and practice in their approach While the foundation of this worldmaking is deeply philosophical and rigorous in its approach there is a need to connect this work to the World of our everyday experience As we contemplate issues of why we might want to make a world we are confronted with the responsibilities of making the world as well Contributors Sofian Audry Philip Beesley Laura Beloff Peter Blasser James Coupe Alberto de Campo Heinz von Foerster Felix Guattari Mark David Hosale Kathrine Elizabeth L Johansson Sang Lee Sana Murrani Dan Overholt Andrew Pickering Esben Bala Skouboe Chris Salter Nicolas Schiffer Edward Shanken Graham Wakefield

Reflecting Shekinah Barbara R Wieler, 2025-07-26 In Reflecting Shekinah Feminine Images of the Divine and Women's Sense of Self Barbara Wieler reflects on the nature and significance of the relationship between feminine images of the Divine and the sense of self for women from the Mennonite tradition Barbara Wieler approaches this question by interviewing six women with varied backgrounds and connections to the Mennonite church Their discussions cover a number of topics all revolving around the impact of imaging and experiencing the Divine as female as opposed to exclusively male on their relationships with themselves and others Parenting intimacy and faith are just some of the areas explored and the author derives implications not only for the women but also the church counsellors and feminist theory overall Through her methodology Ms Wieler presents her research in a personal and accessible way and her strength as a communicator makes this book a valuable read for academics and laypeople alike

Narratives Unfolding Martha Langford, 2017-07-18 Somewhere between global and local the nation still lingers as a concept National art histories continue to be written some for the first time while innovative methods and practices redraw the boundaries of these imagined communities Narratives Unfolding considers the mobility of ideas transnationalism and entangled histories in essays that define new ways to see national art in ever changing nations Examining works that were designed to reclaim or rethink issues of territory and dispossession home and exile contributors to this volume demonstrate that the writing of national art histories is a vital project for intergenerational exchange of knowledge and its visual formations Essays showcase revealing moments of modern and contemporary art history in Canada Egypt Iceland India Ireland Israel Palestine Romania Scotland Turkey and the United Arab Emirates paying particular attention to the agency of institutions such as archives art galleries milestone exhibitions and artist retreats Old and emergent art cities including Cairo Dubai New York and Vancouver are also examined in light of avant gardism cosmopolitanism and migration Narratives Unfolding is both a survey of current art historical approaches and their connection to the source art making and art experience happening somewhere

The Matter of Images Richard Dyer, 2013-04-15 Now published in a revised second edition The Matter of Images searches through the resonances of the term representation analysing images in terms of why they matter what they are made of and the material realities they refer to Richard Dyer's analyses consider representations of out groups and traditionally dominant groups alike and encompass the eclectic texts of contemporary culture from queers to straights political correctness representations of Empire and films including Gilda Papillon and The Night of the Living Dead Essays new to the second edition discuss Lillian Gish as the ultimate white movie star the representation of whiteness in the South in Birth of a Nation and society's fascination with serial killers The Matter of Images is distinctive in its commitment to writing politically about contemporary culture while insisting on the importance of understanding the formal qualities and complexity of the images it investigates

Refracted Visions Karen Strassler, 2010-04-20 A young couple poses before a painted backdrop depicting a modern building set in a volcanic landscape a college student grabs his camera as he heads to a political demonstration a man poses stiffly for his identity photograph amateur photographers look for picturesque images in a rural village an old woman leafs through a family album In Refracted Visions Karen Strassler argues that popular photographic practices such as these have played a crucial role in the making of modern national subjects in postcolonial Java Contending that photographic genres cultivate distinctive ways of seeing and positioning oneself and others within the affective ideological and temporal location of Indonesia she examines genres ranging from state identification photos to pictures documenting family rituals Oriented to projects of selfhood memory and social affiliation popular photographs recast national iconographies in an intimate register They convey the longings of Indonesian national modernity nostalgia for rural idylls and tradition desires for the trappings of modernity and affluence dreams of historical agency and hopes for political authenticity Yet photography

also brings people into contact with ideas and images that transcend and at times undermine a strictly national frame

Photography's primary practitioners in the postcolonial era have been Chinese Indonesians Acting as cultural brokers who translate global and colonial imageries into national idioms these members of a transnational minority have helped shape the visual contours of Indonesian belonging even as their own place within the nation remains tenuous Refracted Visions illuminates the ways that everyday photographic practices generate visual habits that in turn give rise to political subjects and communities
