Images Of Cult And Devotion:

Images of Cult and Devotion Søren Kaspersen, Ulla Haastrup, 2004 Medieval pilgrims not only worshipped relics they also venerated statues and paintings These images or idols were of particular importance in the day to day religion of ordinary people judged superstitious by the Church

Grammatology of Images Sigrid Weigel, 2022-08-16 Grammatology of Images radically alters how we approach images Instead of asking for the history power or essence of images Sigrid Weigel addresses imaging as such The book considers how something visible gets transformed into an image Weigel scrutinizes the moment of mise en apparition of making an appearance and the process of concealment that accompanies any imaging Weigel reinterprets Derrida's and Freud's concept of the trace as that which must be thought before something exists In doing so she illuminates the threshold between traces and iconic images between something immaterial and its pictorial representation Chapters alternate between general accounts of the line the index the effigy and the cult image and case studies from the history of science art politics and religion involving faces as indicators of emotion caricatures as effigies of defamation and angels as embodiments of transcendental ideas Weigel's approach to images illuminates fascinating unexpected correspondences between premodern and contemporary image practices between the history of religion and the modern sciences and between things that are and are not understood as art

Devotion to St. Anne in Texts and Images Elena Ene D-Vasilescu, 2018-06-21 St Anne was popular with representatives of various segments of society from monks nuns members of the clergy royal patrons to churchgoers of every rank This book looks into both the public and private worship of this holy woman and brings to the surface some underexposed aspects of it It does so through the examination of manuscripts monumental art relics sculpture and texts of various genres The contributors employ a historical as well as a theological perspective on how the cult of St Anne sometimes also with glimpses concerning that of Joachim established itself referring to areas in Europe which are not frequently discussed in English language scholarship This new contribution to the field of hagiography will be of interest to academics from a variety of research fields including theologians Byzantinists art and church historians and historians of a larger scope

Women in Italian Renaissance Art Paola Tinagli, 1997-06-15 This is the first book which gives a general overview of women as subject matter in Italian Renaissance painting It presents a view of the interaction between artist and patron and also of the function of these paintings in Italian society of the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries Using letters poems and treatises it examines through the eyes of the contemporary viewer the way women were represented in paintings

Miraculous Images and Votive Offerings in Mexico Frank Graziano, 2016 Miraculous Images and Votive Offerings in Mexico offers an exploration of miracles petitionary devotion and ex votos based on extensive fieldwork in Guanajuato Jalisco Quer taro San Luis Potos and Zacatecas A sequel to Graziano's Culture of Devotion 2006 this study contributes to the fields of material religion and psychology of religion

Saints and Their Cults in the Atlantic World Margaret Jean Cormack, 2007 Saints and Their Cults in the Atlantic World traces the changing significance of a dozen saints and holy sites from the fourth century to the twentieth and from Africa Sicily Wales and Iceland to Canada Boston Mexico Brazil and the Caribbean Scholars representing the fields of history art history religious studies and communications contribute their perspectives in this interdisciplinary collection also notable as the first English language study of many of the saints treated in the volume Several chapters chart the changing images and meanings of holy people as their veneration traveled from the Old World to the New others describe sites and devotions that developed in the Americas The ways that a group feels connected to the holy figure by ethnicity or regionalism proves to be a critical factor in a saint's reception and many contributors discuss the tensions that develop between ecclesiastical authorities and communities of devotees

Seventeenth-Century Flemish Garland Paintings Susan Merriam, 2017-07-05 Focusing on three celebrated northern European still life painters Jan Brueghel Daniel Seghers and Jan Davidsz de Heem this book examines the emergence of the first garland painting in 1607 1608 and its subsequent transformation into a widely collected type of devotional image curiosity and decorative form The first sustained study of the garland paintings the book uses contextual and formal analysis to achieve two goals One it demonstrates how and why the paintings flourished in a number of contexts ranging from an ecclesiastical center in Milan to a Jesuit chapter house and private collections in Antwerp to the Habsburg court in Vienna Two the book shows that when viewed over the course of the century the images produced by Brueghel Seghers and de Heem share important similarities including an interest in self referentiality and the exploration of pictorial form and materials Using a range of evidence inventories period response the paintings themselves Susan Merriam shows how the pictures reconfigured the terms in which the devotional image was understood and asked the viewer to consider in new ways how pictures are made and experienced

Images and Identity in Fifteenth-century Florence Patricia Lee Rubin, 2007-01-01 An exploration of ways of looking in Renaissance Florence where works of art were part of a complex process of social exchange Renaissance Florence of endless fascination for the beauty of its art and architecture is no less intriguing for its dynamic political economic and social life In this book Patricia Lee Rubin crosses the boundaries of all these areas to arrive at an original and comprehensive view of the place of images in Florentine society The author asks an array of questions Why were works of art made Who were the artists who made them and who commissioned them How did they look and how were they looked at She demonstrates that the answers to such questions illuminate the contexts in which works of art were created and how they were valued and viewed Rubin seeks out the meeting places of meaning in churches in palaces in piazzas places of exchange where identities were taken on and transformed often with the mediation of images She concentrates on questions of vision and visibility on seeing and being seen With a blend of exceptional illustrations close analyses of sacred and secular paintings by artists including Fra Angelico Fra Filippo Lippi Filippino Lippi and Botticelli and wide ranging bibliographic essays the book shines new light on fifteenth century Florence a special place that made beauty one of its defining features
