Images Of Joyce:

Backgrounds for Joyce's Dubliners Donald T. Torchiana, 2015-12-22 First published in 1986 Dubliners was James Joyce's first major publication. Setting it at the turn of the century, Joyce claims to hold up a nicely polished looking glass to the native Irishman. In Backgrounds for Joyce's Dubliners, the author examines the national, mythic, religious, and legendary details which Joyce builds up to capture a many-sided performance and timelessness in Irish life. Acknowledging the serious work done on Dubliners as a whole in this study, Professor Torchiana draws upon a wide range of published and unpublished sources to provide a scholarly and satisfying framework for Joyce's world of the inept and the lower middle class. He combines an understanding of Joyce's subtleties with a long-standing personal knowledge of Dublin. This title will make fascinating reading for scholars and students of Joyce's writing as well as for those interested in early twentieth-century Irish social history.

James Joyce's A Portrait of the Artist As a Young Man Mark A. Wollaeger, 2003-03-27 James Joyce's A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man. A Casebook offers a comprehensive introduction to a landmark of modern fiction. The essays collected here will help first-time readers, teachers, and advanced scholars gain new insight into Joyce's semi-autobiographical story of an Irish boy's slow and difficult discovery of his artistic vocation.

A Contemporary Interpretation of James Joyce's A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man Indrani Deb, 2024-11-27 James Joyce is one of the most well-known modernist writers of the twentieth century whose novels are special in that they use a form that he popularized first in English literature: the stream of consciousness style. The novel A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man is just as contemporary as it was when it was written at the beginning of the twentieth century. It is the aim of Dr. Deb to discover the various ways that Joyce uses to bring out the thematic nuances of the novel. This book is a collection of nineteen critical essays on James Joyce's A Portrait of the Artist and the author has gone beyond the established critical material on this novel, providing analyses from twenty-first-century lenses. This book will serve as a reference point for all types of readers of the novel: students, scholars, teachers, and also the common reader.

Photo-textualities Marsha Bryant, 1996 This anthology investigates books that juxtapose photographs and written language: photo-texts considering a variety of examples from America, Britain, Canada, and France. Ranging from Nathaniel Hawthorne's The Marble Faun to Michael Ondaatje's postmodern novel Coming Through Slaughter and Edward Said's postdocumentary After the Last Sky, the contributors' analyses address photo-textuality's implications for representation and its cultural contexts. A truly interdisciplinary collection, Photo-Textualities features contributors who work in literary studies, English, romance languages, as well as contributors who work in media studies, film, graphic arts. Photo-Textualities invigorates critical inquiry with its range of literary and photographic genres, including photo-texts that elude genre classification. Besides documentary and biography, nonfiction literary genres include autobiography and travelogue. The range of photographic genres extends to landscapes, portraiture, documentary, tourist snapshots, and media images, as well as to the standard photo-textual forms of published album and photo essay.
