period inf mation and communication technologies ICT have been an important factor in the development of scienti c communication Applications such as c munication over digital networks converging towards a single network the Internet the use of computerized systems for creating storing and retrieving 1 The scienti c journal is also referred to as scholarly or research journal We use the former term in this study 2 Although no longer distributed over AEDNET but through the World Wide Web The rst issue is now available at http www nova edu aed horizons vol1n1   Handbook of Research on the Global View of Open Access and Scholarly Communications Alemneh, Daniel Gelaw,2022-04-29 In an information and knowledge society access to information and knowledge is a basic human right making equitable and fair access to information and knowledge paramount Open Access OA plays a huge role in addressing inequities as well as broad based and inclusive scientific progress On the surface the number of publications discussing OA issues from various angles are on the rise However what is missing is a comprehensive assessment of the extent of OA implementation and a discussion of how to proceed in integrating OA issues from various perspectives The Handbook of Research on the Global View of Open Access and Scholarly Communications articulates OA concepts and issues while demystifying the state of the art knowledge domain in the areas of OA and scholarly communications from diverse perspectives as well as implications for the information and knowledge society Covering topics such as ethics copyright challenges and open access initiatives this book is a dynamic resource for publishers librarians higher education administrators policymakers students and educators of higher education researchers and academicians   Electronic Expectations Tony Stankus,2019-12-06 This book first published in 1999 analyses the convergence of financial technical and public policy considerations that turned what seemed like science fiction twenty years ago into a library fact of life today It shows that while electronic publication greatly speeds issuance of important scientific results of enduring value it also has the potential to lower the economic threshold at which crank papers and marginal publications can gain a wide if sadly misled audience in the short run It demonstrates that while scientists invented the web they no longer control it and that even the very largest research organizations libraries publishers and journal aggregators will to a substantial degree be at the technological and economic mercy of commercial users of the web

Distance and E-learning in Transition András Szücs,Alan Tait,Martine Vidal,Ulrich Bernath,2013-03-01 The rushed development of information and communication technologies and their impact on the world of learning in the last decade have profoundly changed the paradigms scenarios and values at all levels of education The professionalization of tools and practices in addition to the consolidation of academic and practical knowledge has been a major continuing issue throughout these years The annual conferences of the largest European professional community in distance and e learning have been setting the landmarks in this process The selection from this unique knowledge pool demonstrates the deepening and consolidation of knowledge and experience This book presents the developments in the field of open distance and e learning through new technologies methodologies and tools which have profoundly changed the paradigms scenarios and values at all levels of education over the last decade   Electronic Publishing for Physics and Astronomy Andre Heck,2012-12-06 The ship has left the Miraflores Locks let loose from the mules run by the crews of the Panama Canal Commission She has picked up speed while passing under the Bridge of the Americas which links de facto the Northern and Southern parts of the continent and has headed resolutely towards the Pacific Ocean waters along the rows of boats of all kinds waiting to cross the Canal in the other direction Through a layer of tropical clouds the setting Sun is bleakly illuminating the tall white highrises of Panama City on the port side It took a full day to cautiously move through the whole system of locks and cuts Back in the stateroom I open again a working copy of this book and type down this foreword on the pocket computer The last chapter was received the day before while speeding through the Caribbean Sea and my main work as Editor is now over It has been a real pleasure and a great honour to be given the oppor tunity of compiling this book and interacting with the various contributors through the latest technologies while being sometimes in geographically very different places The quality of the authors the scope of experiences they cover the messages they convey make of this book a unique and timely publication The reader will certainly enjoy as much as I did going through such a variety of well inspired chapters from so many different horizons   Assessing Quality in European Educational Research Ingrid Gogolin,Fredrik Åström,Antje Hansen,2014-05-06 Competition based models for research policy and management have an increasing influence throughout the research process from attracting funding to publishing results The introduction of quality control methods utilizing various forms of performance indicators is part of this development The authors presented in this volume deal with the following questions What counts as quality and how can this be assessed What are the possible side effects of current quality control systems on research conducted in the European Research Area especially in the social sciences and the humanities   Electronic Publishing '01 Arved Hübler,Peter Linde,John W. T. Smith,2001 An overview of the situation in electronic publishing and its interference between new digital technologies and the publishing and librarian applications Over 30 papers cover the research and application of electronic publishing The papers were presented at the 5th International Conference on Electronic Publishing held in Canterbury UK 2001 The papers cover such topics as models and expirencies in infrastructure of publishing processes content management and integrated multimedia networking XML technologies navigation and user interaction with digital library systems   Digital Archaeology Thomas Laurence Evans,Patrick T. Daly,2006 The authors address how digital technologies have been and can be incorporated within different aspects of archaeology and heritage management They aim to stimulate widespread thought and debate on how IT can be holistically integrated into the study of past cultures   Work at the Boundaries of Science C.L. Palmer,2013-06-29 Interdisciplinary inquiry has become more pervasive in recent decades yet we still know little about the conduct of this type of research or the information problems associated with it This book is one of few empirical studies of interdisciplinary knowledge practices It examines how interdisciplinary scientists discover and exchange information and knowledge highlighting how the boundaries between disciplines affect how information is used and how knowledge is constructed It is written for scholars and practitioners with an interest in developing information systems and research environments to foster innovative scientific work Target groups include researchers in information science science studies communication as well as research administrators and information professionals Copy(write) Martine Courant Rife,Shaun Slattery,2011-10-09 Brings together stories theories and research that can further inform the ways in which writing teachers situate and address intellectual property issues in writing classrooms The essays in the collection identify and describe a wide range of pedagogical strategies consider theories present research explore approaches and offer both cautionary tales and local and contextual successes
