Imperative Of Response The Holocaust In Human Context:

Bibliography On Holocaust Literature Abraham J Edelheit,2021-11-28 In this second supplement to their Bibliography on Holocaust Literature the authors have compiled 4000 new entries to keep pace with the outpouring of literature on the subject Readers attention is directed to new materials and to items newly available including books pamphlets and journal articles many of which are catalogued for the first time There is a new section on Soviet anti Semitism and expanded coverage of neo Nazism neo fascism

The Genocidal Temptation Robert Seitz Frey,2004 The fact that Auschwitz Hiroshima and Rwanda cast ominous shadows forward into the future compels us to confront these horrific results of the human head heart and hand In Genocidal Temptation Robert Frey presents a compelling integrated focus directed toward the Nazi killing programs American atomic bombings in Japan Tutsi massacres in Rwanda Soviet genocide in Lithuania and other mass killing and repression programs

British Jewry and the Holocaust Richard Bolchover,2003-07-17 How did British Jewry respond to the Holocaust how prominent was the Holocaust on the communal agenda and what does this response tell us about the values politics fears and identity of the Anglo Jewish community This book studies the priorities of that community and thereby seeks to analyse the attitudes and philosophies which informed actions It paints a picture of Anglo Jewish life and its reactions to a wide range of matters in the external non Jewish world For this paperback the author has added a new Introduction summarizing research in the field since the book s first appearance

Long Night's Journey into Day Alice L. Eckardt,A. Roy Eckardt,Irving Greenberg,Franklin H. Littell,2016-11-08 Long Night s Journey Into Day is a stimulating and provocative attempt to deal with the impact and meaning of the Holocaust within contemporary Christian and Jewish thought To Jews the Holocaust is the most terrible happening in their history but it must also be seen as a Christian event The Eckardts call for a radical rethinking of the Christian faith in the light of the Holocaust examining such issues as the relation between human and demonic culpability the charge of God s guilt and the reality of forgiveness They clarify the theological meaning of the Holocaust and the responsibility that must be borne for it by the Christian Church and discuss possible responses to it as exemplified in the writings of selected modern theologians and church councils This enlarged and revised edition takes into account new topics and developments including the issue of Austrian responsibility for the Holocaust the significance and aftermath of Bitburg and antisemitism in German feminism More detailed attention is also given to other modern genocides and occasions of humanly caused mass death Additional literary historical and religious works are considered and appropriate quotations incorporated The new edition also includes a revised preface an updated bibliography and two new appendices
