Five Great Catholic Ideas:

Five Great Catholic Ideas Edward William Clark, 2014-05 Written in simple prose that is accessible to the lay reader this is a concise and inspiring guide to the timeless essence of Catholic wisdom Presented in a fully revised and updated new edition each chapter presents one tenet in its meaning and wider context then provides an explanation of the practical application of that ideal in one's life of faith Subchapters explain how each idea relates back to the basic dogmas of the Catholic Church illustrating those core dogmas and debunking the many myths that surround them Five Great Catholic Ideas Edward Wm Clark, 1998 This book is an exploration of several foundational principles of Catholic doctrine presented on a level accessible to a broad range of readers It is rooted in the conviction that today many people who are neither professional theologians nor ministerial students share an interest in the work of theology Catholic by Choice Richard Cole, 2014-01-27 I look around the church as we sing I was expecting the Hollywood version of a monastery something European looking with vineyards and massive stone buildings and ivy covered cloisters I wanted sturdy monks singing with deep vibrant voices like the Gregorian chant CDs that I play at home when I take a hot bath and light candles and sticks of incense Why am I here To get a bit of rest Read a few books That's what I thought anyway Now I'm not sure Richard Cole initially saw his trip to a monastery in western Texas as a retreat to check out for a few days maybe a chance to catch up on his reading Instead Cole embarks on a zigzagging roller coaster of emotion and examination as he discerns dissects and discovers the incredible vibrancy of the Catholic community Catholic by Choice provides a funny and joyous look at adult Catholic conversion from the point of view of a modern convert telling a deeply personal yet relatable story of discovery doubt and finding a place at God's table Between Human and Divine Mary Reichardt, 2010 Between Human and Divine is the first collection of scholarly essays published on a wide variety of contemporary post 1980 Catholic literary works and artists Its aim is to introduce readers to recent and emerging writers and texts in the tradition Deep Down Things Joseph A. Cirincione, 2008-08-28 Deep Down Things: Essays on Catholic Culture explores common threads that characterize Catholicism The contributors look successively at Catholic culture and everyday life of the parish and of work at Catholic culture and the imaginative life of poets and fiction writers and at Catholic culture and postmodern life where individual conscience skepticism and relativism challenge Church authority and faith itself They do so while looking for foundational components that persist and comprise a culture that Catholics recognize regardless of their diverse ethnicity geographic location or historical epoch The authors of this collection have aimed to inspire both Catholics and non Catholics alike inside and outside the academic community to deepen their own knowledge and appreciation of the Christian tradition generally and Catholic culture particularly The authors hope to encourage sincere and open dialogue about Catholic culture in the best tradition of Catholic thought both to further the inquiry after truth and to enhance fruitful reflection upon Catholic culture and its contributions over time and across cultures Natural Law: Five Views Zondervan, 2025-05-27 The story of natural law the idea that God has written a law on the human heart so that ethical norms derive from human nature in twentieth century Protestant ethics is one of rejection and resurgence For half a century luminaries like Karl Barth Carl F H Henry and Cornelius Van Til cast a shadow over natural law moral reflection because of its putative link to natural theology autonomous reason associations with Catholic theology and ethical witness devoid of special revelation However over the past twenty years Protestant theologians have renewed their interest in the subject often animated by debates on Christian involvement in the public arena and on matters of life death and gender and sexuality Much of this engagement has happened within Reformed circles and has largely been conducted without reference to Roman Catholic construals of the natural law Conversely Catholic developments in natural law thinking have paid little attention to the surge of interest on the Protestant side As a result Protestant and Catholic natural proponents and even those skeptical of the natural law are not in conversation with one another The lack of dialog between the various schools of natural law has left a historic tradition within Christian moral thought underdeveloped in contemporary Protestant theology By bringing together a variety of perspectives in much needed conversation this book helps readers to understand the various construals of natural law within the broader strands of Christian and classical traditions and clarifies its unique importance for Christian moral witness in a secular culture The contributors address the following questions What is natural law Can moral norms be derived from immanent creaturely ends If so how specific or action guiding can those norms be How extensive might these moral norms be How does natural law endure despite Christian insistence on the noetic epistemological effects of sin What is the relationship between Christian reflection on natural law and the broader classical tradition s understanding of natural law How do Catholic and Protestant construals of natural law differ What is the relationship between faith and reason What s the relationship between human nature and natural law Does natural law mean secular moral reasons Or is natural law merely religious belief disguised as public reason How does natural law relate to public reason Does the affirmation of a natural law lead to a natural theology Or are these distinct What is the relationship between natural law and the laws of nature Five views Classical Natural Law Michael Pakaluk New Natural Law Melissa Moschella Reformed Natural Law W Bradford Littlejohn Lutheran Natural Law Joel D Bierman Anti Natural Law Peter J Leithart
