Five Legs And Communion:

Five Legs Graeme Gibson, 1979 Five Legs Graeme Gibson, 2012-10-13 First published by Anansi in 1969 Five Legs was a breakthrough for Canadian experimental fiction selling 1 000 copies in its first week At the time Scott Symons wrote that Five Legs has more potent writing in it page for page than any other young Canadian novel that I can think of Or indeed any young American novel including Pynchon and Farina Five Legs is the subversive tale of two guilt ridden young men Lucan Crackell and Felix Oswald one a professor the other his student caught in the grip of the North American Protestant ethic with its emotional web spinning and sexual torments Gibson captures both their mortifications and their spirited resistance to all things WASP themselves included in stream of consciousness prose that is at once fluid disjointed and hilarious Essential reading for any Canlit junkie and quite a trip This edition features a new introduction by Sean Kane

Wild Animal Story Ralph Lutts, 2001-09-12 At the beginning of the twentieth century the wild animal story emerged in Canadian literature as a distinct genre in which animals pursue their own interests survival for themselves their offspring and perhaps a mate or the pure pleasure of their wildness Bringing together some of the most celebrated wild animal stories Ralph H Lutts places them firmly in the context of heated controversies about animal intelligence and purposeful behavior Widely regarded as entertaining and educational the early stories by Charles G D Roberts Ernest Thompson Seton John Muir Jack London and others had an avid readership among adults and children But some naturalists and at least one hunter Theodore Roosevelt discredited these writers as nature fakers accusing them of falsely portraying animal behavior The stories and commentaries collected here span the twentieth century As present day animal behaviorists psychologists and the public attempt to sort out the meaning of what animals do and our obligations to them Ralph Lutts maps some of the prominent features of our cultural landscape Tales include The Springfield Fox by Ernest Thompson Seton The Sounding of the Call by Jack London Stickeen by John Muir Journey to the Sea by Rachel Carson Other selections include essays by Theodore Roosevelt John Burroughs Margaret Atwood and Ralph H Lutts postamble Survival Margaret Atwood, 2013-03-26 When first published in 1972 Survival was considered the most startling book ever written about Canadian literature Since then it has continued to be read and taught and it continues to shape the way Canadians look at themselves Distinguished provocative and written in effervescent compulsively readable prose Survival is simultaneously a book of criticism a manifesto and a collection of personal and subversive remarks Margaret Atwood begins by asking What have been the central preoccupations of our poetry and fiction Her answer is survival and victims Atwood applies this thesis in twelve brilliant witty and impassioned chapters from Moodie to MacLennan to Blais from Pratt to Purdy to Gibson she lights up familiar books in wholly new perspectives This new edition features a foreword by the author A Reader's Guide to the Canadian Novel John Moss, 1987 The Anansi Reader Lynn Coady, 2007 In 1967 then unknown writers David Godfrey and Dennis Lee founded a small press they grandly named The House of Anansi after an African trickster spider god Their goal was to publish groundbreaking new Canadian work in three core genres literary fiction poetry and topical nonfiction Forty years later Anansi is not only going strong but enjoying a fascinating creative renaissance bolstered by both its important backlist and its renewed commitment to seeking out the best new writers and ideas to publish alongside its established ones Assembled by award winning writer Lynn Coady The Anansi Reader features excerpts from ten of the best books from each decade of the existence of the press for a total of 40 entries Samples from Lynn Crosbie s Queen Rat Northrop Frye s The Educated Imagination and Kevin Connolly s Drift are among the treasures included In a thoughtful coda Coady shows readers the future with selections from seven exciting works in progress coming from Anansi in the next two years Eleven Canadian Novelists Interviewed by Graeme Gibson Graeme Gibson,2014-08-15 Originally published in 1970 Eleven Canadian Novelists Interviewed by Graeme Gibson is a collection of candid and wide ranging interviews with Canadian writers including Alice Munro Mordecai Richler Margaret Laurence and more With the intuition of an insider Gibson asks the important questions In what way is writing important to you Do writers know something special Does he or she have any responsibility to society The result is a fascinating and immensely readable series of conversations with famed writers at the beginning of their careers The A List edition will feature a new introduction by Graeme Gibson and interviews with the following authors Margaret Atwood Austin Clarke Matt Cohen Marian Engel Timothy Findley Dave Godfrey Margaret Laurence Jack Ludwig Alice Munro Mordecai Richler Scott Symons Five Legs Graeme Gibson,2003-01-01 First published by Anansi in 1969 Five Legs was a breakthrough for Canadian experimental fiction selling 1 000 copies in its first week At the time Scott Symons wrote that Five Legs has more potent writing in it page for page than any other young Canadian novel that I can think of Or indeed any young American novel including Pynchon and Farina Five Legs is the subversive tale of two guilt ridden young men Lucan Crackell and Felix Oswald one a professor the other his student caught in the grip of the North American Protestant ethic with its emotional web spinning and sexual torments Gibson captures both their mortifications and their spirited resistance to all things WASP themselves included in stream of consciousness prose that is at once fluid disjointed and hilarious Essential reading for any Canlit junkie and quite a trip This edition features a new introduction by Sean Kane Extraordinary Experiences ,2004-10-25 A collection of over seventy gripping personal accounts of past and present Canadian experiences and events that can be regarded as supernatural or paranormal Perpetual Motion Graeme Gibson,2010-09-21 Set in southern Ontario in the late nineteenth century at a time when the machine age was coming into its own Perpetual Motion chronicles the fortunes of settler Robert Fraser a man obsessed with power and control Driven by the idea of inventing a perpetual motion machine which will utilize natural energy he neglects and destroys not only the nature around him but his own family too as his overbearing rationality becomes a kind of tragic lunacy First published in 1982 Perpetual Motion is Graeme Gibson s superb evocation of a time when faith in material progress is still challenged by superstition and a lingering belief in magic It is an ironic yet compassionate examination of the painful consequences of
