Five Essays On Klee:

Five Essays on Klee [by M. Armitage, C. Greenberg, H. Devree, N.W. Ross ... Etc.], 1950      Five Essays of Klee Paul Klee, 1950      Five Essays on Paul Klee Merle Armitage, 1950      Paul Klee Annie Bourneuf, 2015-07-20 The book offers a new original look at the great European modernist Paul Klee and the interplay of word and image in the work he produced after WWI when the European avant garde was at its most adamant Bourneuf asks why was it that Klee immersed himself in crossings of image and text at the same time that so much avant garde art focused fiercely on the visual She proposes that Klee created forms that hover between the pictorial and the written to provoke the viewer to look slowly and contemplatively a mode of viewing the artist saw as both analogous to reading and threatened by new technological media such as film mass printing telephones and radio Bourneuf demonstrates how Klee's concern for the literary aspects of visual art is both the motive for and the means of his ironic play with modernist art theories and practices      Bauhaus Construct Jeffrey Sautnik, Robin Schuldenfrei, 2013-03 Looking at the status and meaning of Bauhaus objects in relation to the school's history this book features contributions from some of the most brilliant scholars writing in the field today It offers an entirely new treatment of the Bauhaus school and through a strong thematic structure the questions and subsequent conclusions presented by the contributors re-examine the history of the Bauhaus and its continuing legacy      The Collected Essays and Criticism, Volume 3 Clement Greenberg, 1986 Clement Greenberg is widely recognized as the most influential and articulate champion of modernism during its American ascendancy after World War II the period largely covered by these highly acclaimed volumes of The Collected Essays and Criticism Volume 3 Affirmations and Refusals presents Greenberg's writings from the period between 1950 and 1956 while Volume 4 Modernism with a Vengeance gathers essays and criticism of the years 1957 to 1969 The 120 works range from little known pieces originally appearing in Vogue and Harper's Bazaar to such celebrated essays as The Plight of Our Culture 1953 Modernist Painting 1960 and Post Painterly Abstraction 1964 Preserved in their original form these writings allow readers to witness the development and direction of Greenberg's criticism from his advocacy of abstract expressionism to his enthusiasm for color field painting With the inclusion of critical exchanges between Greenberg and F R Leavis Fairfield Porter Thomas B Hess Herbert Read Max Kozloff and Robert Goldwater these volumes are essential sources in the ongoing debate over modern art For each volume John O Brian has furnished an introduction a selected bibliography and a brief summary of events that places the criticism in its artistic and historical context      Crescent Moon over the Rational Stephen Watson, 2009-09-23 This work reveals an evolving theoretical constellation of interpretations and their questions that address and continually renew Klee's rich legacies      Between Word and Image Dennis J. Schmidt, 2012-11-14 A groundbreaking examination of word and image through the lenses of modern art and Continental philosophy Probing and lucid Stephen H Watson University of Notre Dame Engagement with the image has played a decisive role in the formulation of the very idea of philosophy since Plato Identifying pivotal moments in the history of philosophy Dennis J Schmidt develops the question of philosophy's regard of the image by considering painting where the image most clearly calls attention to itself as an image Focusing on the philosophies of Martin Heidegger and Hans Georg Gadamer and the art of Paul Klee Schmidt pursues larger issues in the relationship between word image and truth As he investigates alternative ways of thinking about truth through word and image Schmidt shows how the form of art can indeed possess the capacity to change its viewers      Approximation Theory Ole Christensen, Khadija Laghrida

German Expressionist Painting Peter Selz, 2023-04-28 Published in 1957 German Expressionist Painting was the first comprehensive study of one of the most pivotal movements in the art of this century When it was written however German Expressionism seemed like an eccentric manifestation far removed from what was then considered the mainstream of modern art But as historians well know each generation alters the concept of mainstream to encompass those aspects of the past which seem most relevant to the present The impact of German Expressionism on the art and thought of later generations could never have been anticipated at the time of the original writing of this book During the subsequent years an enormous body of scholarly research and an even larger number of popular books on German expressionist art has been printed Numerous monographs and detailed studies on most of the artists exist now and countless exhibitions with accompanying catalogues have taken place Much of this new research could have been incorporated in a revised edition and the bibliography certainly could have been greatly expanded to include the important writings which have been published in Germany the United States and elsewhere since this book was originally issued The author however was faced with the choice of reprinting the original text with only the most necessary alterations such as updating the captions to indicate present locations of the paintings or the preparation of a revised text and bibliography Desirable as a revision appeared present printing costs would have priced the paperback out of reach for students It is for this reason that I decided to reissue the original text which stands on its own as a primary investigation of German Expressionist Painting

Time, Narrative & the Fixed Image / Temps, narration & image fixe, 2021-10-18 This volume focuses on the relationship between time narrative and the fixed image As such it highlights renewed interest in the temporality of the fixed image probably one of the most important trends in the formal and semiotic analysis of visual media in the past decade The various essays discuss paintings the illustrated covers of books comics or graphic novels photo stories postcards television and video art as well as aesthetic practices that defy categorization such as Chris Marker's masterpiece La Jetée The range of works and practices examined is reflected in the different theoretical approaches and methods used with an emphasis on semiology and narratology and to a lesser extent aesthetics and psychoanalysis The interest of this book however does not stem exclusively from the range and scope of the artefacts examined or the methodological issues that are addressed its fundamental importance rests in the contributors' readiness to question the differentiation between fixed and moving images which all too often provides a convenient if not altogether convincing starting point for image analysis The originality and value of the contribution that Time Narrative and the Fixed Image Temps Narration et image fixe makes to the body of theoretical writing on visual media lies in this challenging and comprehensive approach

Fannie Hillsmith James Thompson, 1996 Fannie Hillsmith was personally picked out by Josef Albers to replace him as a 1945 summer teacher at Black Mountain College where she taught alongside Lyonel Feininger and Ossip Zadkine and was succeeded by Robert Motherwell Inspired principally by Klee and Cubism she exhibited frequently and successfully with the American Abstract Artists as one of its most notable female members

Essays on German Literature Michael S. Batts, Marketa G. Stankiewicz, 1968-12-15 The present Festschrift serves a dual purpose firstly to honour Professor Joyce Hallamore for her contribution to German studies in Canada particularly at the University of British Columbia secondly to document the flourishing state of German studies in this country Former and present students of Professor Hallamore were asked to contribute essays from their varied fields of interest which she has stimulated and fostered furthermore colleagues across Canada were invited to contribute the results of their research the broad theme of this second group of essays is the complex relationship between nineteenth and twentieth century literature which has been the centre of Professor Hallamore's own scholarly work This volume commemorates Professor Hallamore's forty years of scholarship and teaching the time given by her to the University of British Columbia not only to the formation and growth of the Department of German which she has headed for some twenty years but to the expansion of the University as a whole It demonstrates at the same time through breadth and variety the coming of age of German studies in Canada which Professor Hallamore has fostered Although the essays in this volume vary in approach the result shows a remarkable harmony of outlook which gives evidence of the authors' conscious effort to reconsider critically traditional categories and attitudes in literary criticism This harmony of outlook found in the whole range of papers from the youngest to the most mature scholar reflects the spirit and work of the person whom the volume is honouring

English translator of Antonin Artaud and he understood Artaud's incisive scholarship and technological prophecies as few others would. As he writes of his translations in How I Became One of the Invisible: "You have to identify with the man or the woman. If you don't then you shouldn't be translating it. Why would you translate something that you didn't think had an important message for other people? I translated Artaud because I wanted to turn my friends on and pass a message that had relevance to our lives. Not to get a grant or be hired by an English department." Compiled in the months before his untimely death at age 57, How I Became One of the Invisible is the only volume of Rattray's prose. This new edition, edited by Robert Dewhurst, includes five additional pieces, two of them previously unpublished. The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints.
