Cassie's Last Goodbye Shawna Delacorte,1993-09 Horror Film Aesthetics Thomas M. Sipos,2014-01-10 This richly informed study analyzes how various cinematic tools and techniques have been used to create horror on screen the aesthetic elements sometimes not consciously noticed that help to unnerve frighten shock or entertain an audience The first two chapters define the genre and describe the use of pragmatic aesthetics when filmmakers put technical and budgetary compromises to artistic effect Subsequent chapters cover mise en scene framing photography lighting editing and sound and a final chapter is devoted to the aesthetic appeals of horror cinema Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Not Just Another Perfect Wife Robin Elliott,1993-10 Grand Prize Winner! Tracy Sinclair,1993-10 Taking Back Desire: A Psychoanalytic Approach to Queerness and Neoliberalism on Screen James Lawrence Slattery,2025-05-13 Taking Back Desire studies film television and video art texts through a Lacanian prism to restore a sense of queer as troubling identity and resistance to neoliberal forms of inclusion James Lawrence Slattery illuminates how the framing of desire identity enjoyment resistance and knowledge contribute to the investment in neoliberal formations of being and success despite the corrosive effects neoliberalism has had for much of society The book does not read queerness on screen as a discernible group of characters or narrative formulas but as a point that meaning fails in the visual and temporal field Examining the interrelation of the real the imaginary and the symbolic in contemporary politics and contemporary media Slattery investigates how a diverse selection of moving image texts forge queerness as a relationship to the lack while crucially resisting the creation of a new or definitive canon Taking Back Desire will be essential reading for academics and scholars of Freudian and Lacanian psychoanalysis queer theory late capitalism film television and media studies sexuality studies critical race theory cultural studies and feminist theory Pure-bred Dogs, American Kennel Gazette ,1968-12 Forgiveness from the Shadows Dr. Jacob Segale,2025-04-01 Imagine being trapped in the shadows of your own childhood where laughter is a distant memory and trauma echoes louder than hope

That's the world where Forgiveness from the Shadows A Quest of Perseverance and Restoration begins a place both raw and achingly real This book is more than just a story it's a journey through the tangled roots of pain resilience and the hard won grace of forgiveness From the very first page you'll step into the shoes of a young man shaped by chaos and neglect his world darkened by a father's alcoholism and the silent wounds it left behind Each chapter peels back the layers of his struggle revealing not only the scars but also the quiet strength that grows in their shadow The narrative doesn't shy away from the darkness moments of despair deferred dreams and the crushing weight of isolation but it also refuses to let those shadows define the journey What drove me to write this story It's simple I believe in the power of sharing our struggles By bringing hidden pain into the light we find connection understanding and most importantly hope Through careful research and heartfelt storytelling I've sought to craft a tale that feels both honest and universal a mirror for anyone who has ever felt lost or broken As you turn these pages you'll witness the protagonist's lowest moments but you'll also see the glimmers of hope that guide him forward When his estranged father finally reaches out the ensuing confrontation becomes a crucible for forgiveness a chance to break free from the past or be consumed by it This book is not just about pain it's about the winding unpredictable road to healing It's an invitation to reflect to heal and perhaps to discover your own path out of the shadows Welcome to the journey

Armor Kristin Thompson, 2020-05-05 Classical works have for us become covered with the glassy armor of familiarity wrote Victor Shklovsky in 1914 Here Kristin Thompson defamiliarizes the reader with eleven different films Developing the technique formulated in her Eisenstein's Ivan the Terrible Princeton 1981 she clearly demonstrates the flexibility of the neoformalist approach She argues that critics often use cut and dried methods and choose films that easily fit those methods Neoformalism on the other hand encourages the critic to deal with each film differently and to modify his or her analytical assumptions continually Thompson's analyses are thus refreshingly varied and revealing ranging from an ordinary Hollywood film Terror by Night to such masterpieces as Late Spring and Lancelot du Lac She proposes a formal historical way of dealing with realism using Bicycle Thieves and The Rules of the Game as examples Stage Fright and Laura provide cases in which the classical cinema defamiliarizes its own conventions by playing with audience expectations Other chapters deal with Tati's Les Vacances de Monsieur Hulot and Play Time and Godard's Tout va bien and Sauve qui peut la vie Although neoformalist analysis is a rigorous distinctive approach it avoids extensive specialized vocabulary and esoteric concepts the essays here can be read separately by those interested in the individual films The book's overall purpose however goes beyond making these particular films more accessible and intriguing to propose new ways of looking at cinema as a whole
