The Story Paradox Jonathan Gottschall,2021-11-23 Storytelling a tradition that built human civilization may soon destroy it Humans are storytelling animals Stories are what make our societies possible Countless books celebrate their virtues But Jonathan Gottschall an expert on the science of stories argues that there is a dark side to storytelling we can no longer ignore Storytelling the very tradition that built human civilization may be the thing that destroys it In The Story Paradox Gottschall explores how a broad consortium of psychologists communications specialists neuroscientists and literary quants are using the scientific method to study how stories affect our brains The results challenge the idea that storytelling is an obvious force for good in human life Yes storytelling can bind groups together but it is also the main force dragging people apart And it s the best method we ve ever devised for manipulating each other by circumventing rational thought Behind all civilization s greatest ills environmental destruction runaway demagogues warfare you will always find the same master factor a mind disordering story Gottschall argues that societies succeed or fail depending on how they manage these tensions And it has only become harder as new technologies that amplify the effects of disinformation campaigns conspiracy theories and fake news make separating fact from fiction nearly impossible With clarity and conviction Gottschall reveals why our biggest asset has become our greatest threat and what if anything can be done It is a call to stop asking How we can change the world through stories and start asking How can we save the world from stories Photo Spotlight ,1927

guide,1979 Director's Cut Arthur Japin,2010-02-09 Based on a true story Arthur Japin's new novel is a tale of consuming love and artistic creation that reimagines the last romance of the legendary filmmaker Federico Fellini In Director's Cut we enter the mind of Snaporaz the lion of Italian cinema as he slips into a coma in his final days Having always drawn inspiration from the world of his dreams he welcomes the chance to take account of his life and in particular his most recent love affair with a beautiful but tempestuous young actress called Gala Here is the story as Snaporaz tells it Lured by the glamour of Rome Gala and her boyfriend Maxim an actor as well are hoping to be discovered when they manage the impossible entrance to the studio of the great master Despite an age difference of four decades Gala soon becomes Snaporaz's mistress leaving Maxim guardian of her secrets and her fragile health to be an anxious and helpless observer of her physical and spiritual decline As Gala becomes increasingly dependent on Snaporaz's attentions her desperation never to disappoint him leads her down a reckless path to anorexia and prostitution before the one true bond in her life is restored Snaporaz's intoxicatingly baroque Felliniesque account of the affair slyly challenges us again and again to ask what is dream and what is reality and to conclude that the difference is irrelevant when such a genius immerses himself in his most natural element the imagination A dazzling tale from one of Europe's most celebrated writers
