Form Follows Fun Bruce Peter, 2013-05-13 Authoritative and readable this excellent text illustrated by a unique pictorial record of period architecture surveys and examines how and why the architecture of pleasure related to the stylistic and ideological concerns of modernism in 1930s Britain Responding to the current interest in modernism and packed with a substantial archive of high quality photographs and other documentation it relates the professional entrepreneurial and institutional infrastructures affecting the pleasure industry s architectural development and appearance in 1930s A broad range of building through which the general public first experienced Modernism are covered including commercial holiday camps cinemas and greyhound racing stadia municipal and governmental projects zoos seaside pavilions concert halls and imperial and international exhibitions Arguing that the responses to modernism through the architecture of pleasure were conditioned by wider debates about the role of design in relation to high and mass culture this book is an ideal resource for all those interested in architectural history and design in Britain between the wars The Furnishing World ,1937

Cinema Memories Melvyn Stokes, Matthew Jones, Emma Pett, 2022-03-10 Cinema Memories brings together and analyses the memories of almost a thousand people of going to the cinema in Britain during the 1960s It offers a fresh perspective on the social cultural and film history of what has come to be seen as an iconic decade with the release of films such as A Taste of Honey The Sound of Music Darling Blow Up Alfie The Graduate and Bonnie and Clyde Drawing on first hand accounts authors Melvyn Stokes Matthew Jones and Emma Pett explore how cinema goes constructed meanings from the films they watched through a complex process of negotiation between the films concerned their own social and cultural identities and their awareness of changes in British society Their analysis helps the reader see what light the cultural memory of 1960s cinema going sheds on how the Sixties in Britain is remembered and interpreted Positioning their study within debates about memory 1960s cinema and the seemingly transformative nature of this decade of British history the authors reflect on the methodologies deployed the use of memories as historical sources and the various ways in which cinema and cinema going came to mean something to their audiences Cinema of Basil Dearden and Michael Relph Alan

Burton, 2009-12-14 A historical and critical assessment of the cinema of Basil Dearden and Michael Relph one of the most significant filmmaking teams that characterised British cinema in the postwar decades To-day's Cinema News and Property Gazette ,1914 Film ,1997 David Lean Kevin Brownlow, 1996-08-15 The life and its biographer provide a landmark work on the cinema Emerging from a childhood of nearly Dickensian darkness David Lean found his great success as a director of the appropriately titled Great Expectations There followed his legendary black and white films of the 1940s and his four film movie collaboration with Noel Coward Lean s 1955 film Summertime took him from England to the world of international moviemaking and the stunning series of spectacular color epics that would gain for his work twenty seven Academy Awards and fifty six Academy Award nominations All are classics including The Bridge on the River Kwai Lawrence of Arabia Doctor Zhivago and A Passage to India Kevin Brownlow a film editor in his own right and author of the seminal silent film trilogy initiated with The Parade s Gone By brings to Lean s biography an exhaustive knowledge of the art and the industry One learns about the making of movies as realized by a master but also of the highly personal costs of genius The troubled Quaker family from which Lean came influenced his relationship with his son his brother and his six wives Yet he showed in his work a deep understanding of humanity The vastness of this scholarly and entertaining enterprise is augmented by sixteen pages of scenes from Lean s color films thirty two pages from his black and white movies and throughout the text a vast number of photographs from his life and location work Middlesex ,2005 The Bioscope ,1914 The Journal of Decorative Art ,1937 The Buildings Around Us Thom Gorst,2003-09-02 Buildings surround and affect us all In this clear and concise introduction to buildings Thom Gorst demystifies the culture of architecture and shows how an interest in our environment whatever our cultural position can be of great value to us The Municipal Year Book and Public Services Directory ,1986 Greater London Recreation Study: Supply study Greater London Council,1975
