takes us with her on her postoperative journey She discusses how to prepare for hip surgery and the potential complications of the operation A detailed description of her rehabilitation is provided along with interviews with 10 people from all over the world whose recovery time from hip surgery varied considerably This reader friendly book is written with wit candor and empathy for the prospective hip patient It offers useful tips for acquiring essential services and coping physically and psychologically with hip surgery as well as important information about how to treat a new hip in order for it to last as long as possible GETTING HIP provides the most up to date information on different implants such as the ceramic hip which received FDA approval in February of 2003 the metal on metal prosthesis hip resurfacing and exciting advances in cartilage regeneration and stem cell transplantation It also provides an extensive bibliography and Internet references What Remains Karen Von Hahn, 2017-04-09 A funny poignant and at times heartbreaking memoir about one mother and her love of beautiful objets and how it ultimately proved destructive Being left with a strand of even the highest quality milky white pearls isn't quite the same thing as pearls of wisdom to live by as Karen von Hahn reveals in her memoir about her stylish and captivating mother Susan a mercurial grandiose Guerlain and vodka soaked narcissist whose search for glamour and fulfillment through the acquisition and collection of beautiful things ultimately proved hollow A tale of growing up in 1970s and 1980s Toronto in the fabulousness of a bourgeois Jewish family that valued panache over pragmatism and making a design statement over substance von Hahn's recollections of her dramatic and domineering mother are exemplified by the objects she held most dear from a strand of prized pearls to a Venetian mirror worthy of the palace of Versailles to the silver satin sofas that were the epitome of her signature style She also describes the misunderstandings and sometimes hurt and pain that come with being raised by her stunning larger than life mother who in many ways embodied the flash and glam high flying wealth accumulating generation that gave birth to our modern day material culture Alternating between satire and sadness von Hahn reconstructs the past through a series of exquisitely impressionistic memories ultimately questioning the value of the things we hold dear and after her complicated yet impossible to forget mother is gone what exactly remains
