His Human Majesty:

Kay Boyle, Artist and Activist Sandra Whipple Spanier, 1986 This first critical assessment of Kay Boyle's long career is both a portrait of the artist and a perceptive appraisal of her work Boyle has lent her cooperation and support to Spanier's efforts to gather biographical material Particularly enriching for this study were several meetings and extensive correspondence between author and critic Spanier draws on hundreds of pages of letters containing a wealth of new information about Boyle's life works literary relationships and current activities Boyle has provided Spanier with unpublished documents and works in progress yellowed news clippings and book reviews and detailed notes in which she reacted to this work Balancing her role of biographer and critic Spanier has created a vital perceptive and integrated study of the life and work of a remarkable woman From publisher's description The Lutheran Pioneer, 1904 Spiritus Creator Regin Prenter, 2001-03-27 As the first comprehensive study in the twentieth century of Luther's concept of the Holy Spirit this book should be welcomed by every serious student of Luther's theology for although Luther's view of the Holy Spirit dominates every aspect of his vast theological output it is not always easy to discover what he really thought Historians and theologians have at different times come to varying conclusions based on the same fundamental writings of Luther Enthusiastic followers of the Reformer in their efforts to convince others have from time to time fallen into the temptation to oversimplify his teachings Spiritus Creator is the answer to this confusion Laying aside the numerous interpretations of others Regin Prenter a noted Danish Theologian and scholar presents Luther's thought itself In this study he does not ask where Luther's thoughts came from or how they developed he asks only what Luther thought Questioning for example whether Luther's view of the Holy Spirit was really so traditional so much colored by medieval thought patterns as has been widely assumed Dr Prenter shows how Luther used Augustinian terms the vocabulary of his age yet gave them new content even new definitions He demonstrates how Luther's concept of the Holy Spirit did indeed take shape in a traditional form but that it then grew into what is for all Protestants a crucial evangelical insight Spiritus Creator is divided into two parts the concept of the Holy Spirit before Luther had to defend his teachings from the distortions of enthusiasts and this same concept during his struggle with the enthusiasts This pattern gives the author opportunity to present the basic statements of the early period without reference to the polemical situation of Luther's later life It also demonstrates the essential continuity that gives Luther's concept of the Holy Spirit importance for the thinking of all ages our own not excluded Luther's Creeds: Catechisms & Confessions Martin Luther, 2024-05-09 A new systematic of Luther's works across 7 volumes This volume contains new translations of the following major works 1 Eyn deutsch Theologia A German Theology 1518 2 Heidelberger Disputation Disputation Held at Heidelberg 1518 3 Bekenntnis der Artikel des Glaubens wider die Feinde des Evangeliums und allerlei Ketzereien Confession of the articles of faith against the enemies of the gospel and all sorts of heresies 1528 4 Enchiridion Der kleine Catechismus f r die gemeine Pfarrherrn und Prediger Enchiridion The little catechism for the common pastors and

T&T Clark Handbook of Suffering and the Problem of Evil

Matthias Grebe,Johannes Grössl,2023-07-13 This wide ranging work provides an extensive exploration of the theology of theodicy asking questions such as should all instances of suffering necessarily be understood as evil Why would an omnipotent and benevolent God allow or perpetrate evil Is God unable or unwilling to reduce human and non human suffering on Earth Does humanity have the capacity to exercise a moral evaluation of God s motives and intentions

Conventional disciplinary boundaries have tended to separate theological approaches to these questions from philosophical ones This volume aims to overcome these boundaries by including biblical Part I historical Part II doctrinal Part III philosophical Part IV and pastoral interreligious perspectives and alternative intersections Part V on theodicy Authors include thinkers from analytic and continental traditions multiple Christian denominations and other religions and both established and younger scholars providing a full variety of approaches What unites the essays is an attempt to answer these questions from the perspective of biblical testimony historical scholarship modern theological and philosophical thinking about the concept of God non Christian religions science and the arts The result is a combination of in depth analysis and breadth of scope making this a benchmark work for further studies in the theology of suffering and evil
