

Regional stereotypes

- Regional stereotypes exist within Poland which reflect the character of previous occupying powers.
(Any association with the former partition of Poland is never appreciated).
  - Poznan and the Western part of Poland: Germanic, sense of order, good business acumen.
  - Krakow and the Austrian South: relaxed, less materialistic, the cultural and intellectual heart of Poland.
  - Warsaw and Eastern Poland: A degree of disorganisation and unpredictability is driven by creativeness and self-importance.
