Hildegard Of Bingen Selections From Her Writings:

The Ways of the Lord Hildegard of Bingen, 2005-09-27 The HarperCollins Spiritual Classics series presents short accessible introductions to the classic spiritual writers of the West Abridged from Paulist Press's distinguished Classics of Western Spirituality series which boasts the best modern translations available this new series seeks to find new readers for these dynamic spiritual voices voices that have changed lives throughout the centuries and still do today I saw a great mountain the color of iron and enthroned on it One of such great glory that it blinded my sight On each side of him there extended a soft shadow like a wing of wondrous breadth and length Before him at the foot of the mountain stood an image full of eyes on all sides in which because of those eyes I could discern no human form Hildegard of Bingen 1098 1179 Hildegard of Bingen was widely consulted as an oracle and prophet and wrote prolifically on doctrinal matters as well as on secular matters like medicine Scivias her major religious work consists of twenty six visions which are first set down literally as she saw them and are then explained exegetically As a group the visions form a theological summa of Christian doctrine and are famous for their feminine and creative imagery of the divine This volume is especially significant for feminist historians and theologians It elucidates the life of medieval women and is a striking example of a special form of Christian spirituality

Secrets of God Hildegard of Bingen, 1996-07-09 A unique glimpse into the mind of the 12 century visionary Hildegard of Bingen through her creative and insightful writings on medicine spirituality and more Booklist Visionary mystic poet musician naturalist healer theologian the Rhineland nun Hildegard of Bingen 1098 1179 was a Renaissance woman long before there was a Renaissance This is the first book in English to offer a representative selection of writings from all of her amazing range of work Hildegard wrote many volumes on subjects from mystical vision to sexuality from theology to natural medicine in letters treatises poetry and songs all in an age when few women wrote more than an occasional letter She was a woman of extraordinary influence whose work not only surpassed that of her male contemporaries in its range but also outshone them in visionary beauty and intellectual power This collection includes a brief biography of Hildegard and selections from the following works Scivias literally know the ways the record of Hildegard's visions and her commentary on them The Book of Life's Merits visionary work The Book of Divine Works a work of cosmology and anthropology Natural History a record of plants animals and minerals translated here into English for the first time Causes and Cures a compendium of her writing on natural medicine Symphonia her songs and poetry Biographical works Selected letters

Selected Writings Hildegard of Bingen, 2005-03-31 Benedictine nun poet and musician Hildegard of Bingen 1098 1179 was one of the most remarkable figures of the Middle Ages She undertook preaching tours throughout the German empire at the age of sixty and was consulted not only by her religious contemporaries but also by kings and emperors yet it is largely for her apocalyptic and mystical writings that she is remembered This volume includes selections from her three visionary works her treatises on medicine and the natural world her devotional songs and fascinating letters to prominent figures of her time Dealing with such eternal subjects as the relationship between humans and nature and men and women Hildegard's works show her to be a wide ranging thinker who created such fresh startling images and ideas that her writings have been compared to Dante and Blake Hear the Ancient Wisdom Charles R. Ringma, 2013-03-08 There is a hunger in the modern world for spirituality One vast resource of spiritual wisdom comes from the pre Reformation church from the martyrs of the first centuries of Christianity through the long tradition of monasticism to the medieval Christian mystics These are the deep wells of Christian reflection from persons such as John Chrysostom Augustine Benedict Francis of Assisi Bonaventure Bernard of Clairvaux Meister Eckhart Hildegard of Bingen and Julian of Norwich to mention just a few The spiritual insights of over seventy men and women of pre Reformation Christianity are found in these pages From these figures we can learn more about the practices of prayer and contemplation a life of following Christ the relevance of community the challenge of asceticism the movement of withdrawal and engagement the love of God for God's own sake living the gospel sacrificing for the kingdom of God the longing for union with God the practices of justice and a life of prophetic witness For us so embedded and shaped by the modern world this ancient wisdom will come as refreshing water and as a breath of fresh air with the wings of the Spirit and whispers of angels Hildegard of Bingen: A Spiritual Reader Carmen Acevedo
