Felicity Leng, 2013-01-25 Many silent and forgotten voices are brought to life in this volume which presents the accumulated wisdom of women mystics theologians spiritual directors poets visionaries mothers and activists over eleven centuries Featured writers include Julian of Norwich Hildegard of Bingen Catherine of Siena Teresa of Avila Therese of Lisieux Bernadette of Lourdes Bridget of Sweden Wendy Beckett Joan Chittister and many more some translated into English for the first time Their concerns are broad ranging and they reflect on Prayer Family life a woman's lot suffering comfort and consolation women's ministry and its restrictions and more All these varied voices are linked by a common thread in every age women have sought authentic spiritual self expression This anthology is an inspiration for all women today who are seeking opportunity to define and realise their charisma The INTRAFaith Conversation: How Do Christians Talk Among Ourselves About INTERfaith Matters? Susan Strouse, 2016-03-18 This crisp and cogent book by the Rev Dr Strouse is published at a time when both interfaith and intrafaith dialogue are critical to the vitality of spiritual life in our nation As a parish pastor in a small struggling congregation I have become increasingly aware of the insularity and isolation of many of our parishioners This seems less the result of inadequate parish education as it is the byproduct of too many people getting their information from biased TV networks so called social media or word of mouth We parish pastors need to examine our internal intra congregational conversations about diverse faith traditions and how they bear on congregational mission I was particularly impressed by the author's use of footnotes and her extensive bibliography The book is a walking talking workshop in print with its detailed reflection discussion questions and suggestions for further reading Thank you Pastor Strouse for such a comprehensive presentation of how to approach constructively this timely and important conversation

Review by Richard G Eddy Voice of the Living Light Barbara Newman, 2023-09-01 Hildegard of Bingen 1098 1179 would have been an extraordinary person in any age But for a woman of the twelfth century her achievements were so exceptional that posterity has found it hard to take her measure Barbara Newman a premier Hildegard authority brings major scholars together to present an accurate portrait of the Benedictine nun and her many contributions to twelfth century religious cultural and intellectual life Written by specialists in fields ranging from medieval theology to medicine to music these essays offer an understanding of how one woman could transform so many of the traditions of the world in which she lived Hildegard of Bingen was the only woman of her age accepted as an authoritative voice on Christian doctrine as well as the first woman permitted by the pope to write theological books She was the author of the first known morality play an artist of unusual talents the most prolific chant composer of her era and the first woman to write extensively on natural science and medicine including sexuality as seen from a female perspective She was the only woman of her time to preach openly to mixed audiences of clergy and laity and the first saint whose biography includes a first person memoir Adding to the significance of this volume is the fact that Hildegard s oeuvre reflects the entire sweep of twelfth century culture and society Scholars and lay readers alike will find this collection a rich introduction to a remarkable figure and to her tumultuous world With the commemoration of the 900th anniversary of Hildegard s birth in September 1998 the publication of Voice of the Living Light is especially welcome Hildegard of Bingen 1098 1179 would have been an extraordinary person in any age But for a woman of the twelfth century her achievements were so exceptional that posterity has found it hard to take her measure from transitional thinkers Invincible Spirits ,2007-02 Evelyn Underhill has said that every religion looks for and most have possessed some revealer of the Spirit In Invincible Spirits Felicity Leng presents wise inspiring words from brilliant women who have been the revealers of their times Many silent and forgotten voices throughout history come back to life in this sparkling collection of spiritual writings From a ninth century mother in France writing a poignant self help book for her estranged son to a modern day social campaigner in New York Invincible Spirits is full of reflections on classic themes and questions in the search for a deeper experience of God Some writers Julian of Norwich Teresa of Avila Christina Rossetti Emily Dickinson Corrie ten Boom Dorothy Day are quite familiar Others Ranssa Maritain Hadewijch Margiad Evans Dhuoda are less widely known but no less inspiring Invincible Spirits ends with Biographies and Bibliographies more than thirty pages of informative notes on all of the many women represented here The profound wisdom of these women mystics saints mothers activists poets and visionaries still has great appeal for twenty first century readers seeking spiritual guidance and direction This is a volume not to be missed A Dream in the World Robin van Löben Sels,2004-03-01 How can science and religion co exist in the modern discipline of psychotherapy A Dream in the World explores the interfaces between religious experience and dream analysis At the heart of this book is a selection of dreams presented by the author s patient during analysis which are compared with the dreams of Hadewijch a thirteenth century woman mystic The patient s dreams led the modern woman to an unanticipated breakthrough encounter with the divine her experience of soul The experience reoriented and energized her life and became her dream in the world Following Jung s idea that the psyche has a religious instinct Robin van Loben Sels demonstrates that the healing process possible through psychotherapy can come from beyond the psyche and can not be explained by our usual theories of scientific psychology Written in flowing easily read language A Dream in the World details a classical Jungian analysis of a woman s dreams and searches the relationship between religious encounter psyche and soul The Secret in Medieval Literature Albrecht Classen,2022-10-17 The Secret in Medieval Literature Alternative Worlds in the Middle Ages explores the many strange phenomena both in the Middle Ages and today that do not find any good rational explanations Those do not pertain to magic or to religion in the traditional sense of the word they are secrets of an epistemological kind and tend to defy human rationality without being marginal or irrelevant At first sight we might believe that we face elements from fairy tales but the medieval cases discussed here go far beyond such a simplistic approach to the mysterious dimension of secrets In fact as this book argues medieval poets commonly engaged with alternative forces and described their workings within the human context both in the Latin West and in the East without being able to come to terms with them critically Those mysteries appear both in heroic epics and courtly romances among other genres and they figure more frequently than we might have assumed On the one hand we could conceive of those secrets as the product of literary liberties and imagination on the other those secrets prove to be rather serious agents intervening in the lives of the fictional protagonists By the same token our modern world is not all rationality and material conditions either The study of secrets in the Middle Ages thus opens the pathway toward a new epistemology both for the people in the pre modern age and us today Medieval and Renaissance Spirituality Maria Jaoudi,2010 Displays the theology and spirituality of the Middle Ages and Renaissance in the three major western religious traditions Judaism Christianity and Islam Passionate Spirituality Elizabeth Dreyer,2005 Passionate Spirituality explores the roots and meanings of passion in Western culture and then examines how passion is expressed in the works of two medieval women mystics Hildegard of Bingen and Hadewijch of Brabant and in the lives of contemporary Christians seeking to deepen their own spiritual journeys Too often the term passion is associated only with steamy films sexual sin and emotional excess cutting off the breadth of its meaning and expression for positive good But the great mystics succeed precisely because they hold together both the affective and the intellectual aspects of the spiritual life in creative and convincing ways Their accounts of their mystical experience are important resources for information and understanding about how to talk about God more formally and for what it means to be passionately in love with God and the world BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Mental Health, Spirituality, and Religion in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Age Albrecht Classen,2014-07-28 This volume continues the critical exploration of fundamental issues in the medieval and early modern world here concerning mental health spirituality melancholy mystical visions medicine and well being The contributors who originally had presented their research at a symposium at The University of Arizona in May 2013 explore a wide range of approaches and materials pertinent to these issues taking us from the early Middle Ages to the eighteenth century capping the volume with some reflections on the relevance of religion today Lapidary sciences matter here as much as medical psychological research combined with literary and art historical approaches The premodern understanding of mental health is not taken as a miraculous panacea for modern problems but the contributors suggest that medieval and early modern writers scientists and artists commanded a considerable amount of arcane sometimes curious and speculative knowledge that promises to be of value and relevance even for us today once again Modern palliative medicine finds for instance intriguing parallels in medieval word magic and the mystical perspectives encapsulated highly productive alternative perceptions of the macrocosm and microcosm that promise to be insightful and important also for the post modern world What If ... I Truly Believed? Ginna Callahan,2015-03-11 Ginna was given one hour to live What follows is an extraordinary tale of courage the courage to live and the challenge to trust Her one hour has now become almost fourteen years more than a decade of battling a host of cancerous tumors debilitating treatments and several near death experiences Follow the journey that took her from her sick bed years ago to her unabashed belief today of the absolute certainty that God not only exists but loves us unconditionally It is this certainty that has both enabled and challenged her to maintain her trust and faith in God when tested with pain and suffering This is Ginna's love story to God the creator who never abandoned her Holy Power, Holy Presence Elizabeth Dreyer,2007 Western theology is frequently criticized for not having a fully developed pneumatology According to these critics preoccupation with Christology and an excessive focus on the nature and unity of God have come at the expense of a full theology of the three persons While admitting that there is some truth to these criticisms Elizabeth Dreyer maintains that those who level them base their conclusions on a narrow range of texts and thus fail to establish a true neglect of the Holy Spirit Medieval authors offer a wealth of creative language and insight that speaks to the role of the Holy Spirit in contemporary spirituality and contributes to a renewed pneumatology for the twenty first century Book jacket
