The Humanities and the Dynamics of African Culture in the 21st Century John Ayotunde Isola Bewaji, Kenneth W. Harrow, Eunice E. Omonzeje, 2017-05-11 That Africa is at a crossroads in an increasingly globalised world is indisputable Equally unassailable is the fact that the humanities as a broad field of intellection research and learning in Africa appears to have been pigeonholed in debates of relevance in the development aspirations of many African nations Historical experiences and contemporary research outputs indicate however that the humanities in its various shades is critical to Africa's capacity to respond effectively to such problems as security corruption political ineptitude poverty superstition and HIV AIDS among many other mounting challenges which confront the people of Africa The vibrancy and resilience of Africa's cultures against these and other odds of globalisation episodes in the course of our history demand the focused attention of academia to exploit their relevance to contemporary issues This collection provides a comprehensive overview of issues in the humanities at the turn of the 21st century which create a veritable platform for the global redefinition and understanding of Africa's rich cultures and traditions Such areas covered include ruminations in metaphysics and psychology pathos and ethos cinematic and literary connections and historical conceptualisations University of Michigan Official Publication University of Michigan,1993

Introduction to African American Studies Talmadge Anderson,James Benjamin Stewart,2007 There is an ongoing debate as to whether African American Studies is a discipline or multidisciplinary or interdisciplinary field Some scholars assert that African American Studies use a well defined common approach in examining history politics and the family in the same way as scholars in the disciplines of economics sociology and political science Other scholars consider African American Studies multidisciplinary a field somewhat comparable to the field of education in which scholars employ a variety of disciplinary lenses be they anthropological psychological historical etc to study the African world experience In this model the boundaries between traditional disciplines are accepted and researches in African American Studies simply conduct discipline based an analysis of particular topics Finally another group of scholars insists that African American Studies is interdisciplinary an enterprise that generates distinctive analyses by combining perspectives from d

Interpretation and the African Culture David J. Ndegwah,2020-01-15 This book can be summarized in one sentence that culture plays a determinant role in the way people perceive interpret and therefore respond to reality around them ideas events people and literature including sacred literature Thus when people encounter new reality they perceive and conceptualize it in accordance with their worldview which is shaped by their culture that is modeled to suit various geographical locations In order to understand why people around the world behave and act as they do they choose certain words in what they say and do certain things rather than others it is important to understand and appreciate this fact Failure to do so would make it very difficult to engage in any dealings with them secular or religious like doing business or evangelization This is what happened to the Pokot people whose worldview is predominantly communitarian and yet they were introduced to hermeneutics that are predominantly individualistic which is at loggerheads with their communal aspirations The manifestation of this reality is the interpretation of the Good Shepherd parable in the Gospel of John which the Pokot have understood and contextualized in line with their worldview against the intentions goals and disposition of their evangelizers Esotericism in African American Religious Experience ,2014-11-06 In Esotericism in African American Religious Experience There is a Mystery Stephen C Finley Margarita Simon Guillory and Hugh R Page Jr assemble twenty groundbreaking essays that provide a rationale and parameters for Africana Esoteric Studies AES a new trans disciplinary enterprise focused on the investigation of esoteric lore and practices in Africa and the African Diaspora The goals of this new field while akin to those of Religious Studies Africana Studies and Western Esoteric Studies are focused on the impulses that give rise to Africana Esoteric Traditions AETs and the ways in which they can be understood as loci where issues such as race ethnicity and identity are engaged and in which identity embodiment resistance and meaning are negotiated
