The Philosophy of Art; an Introduction to the Scientific Study of Aesthetics Georg Wilhelm Friedrich Hegel,2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1886 edition Excerpt absolute work of Art which is the highest of all is that in which the individual mind although finite rising to the consciousness of the infinite within itself at once receives theoretically into itself the whole ideal content of the Beautiful as presented in the objective work of Art and at the same time again reproduces it out of itself The mind thus becomes one with the active living power and idea of the Beautiful This is the highest stage and condition of mind attainable in Art It is the absolute and perfect union of practical design and theoretical contemplation as realised in the spiritual creations of poetry the highest of the Arts It thus combines in principle and essence the lower utilitarian and objective forms The work of Art as such furnishes the highest and purest pleasure involving as it does a perfect activity realising its own end and bringing with it the repose of the spirit in theoretical contemplation 2 A further distinction in the Beautiful rests upon the relation of the embodied ideal or spiritual idea to the material in which it is represented Here the differences are determined by the predominance of the one or the other of the two sides or by their being in equal proportion so that there is a relation of equality and balance between them In connection with this second distinction of the Beautiful we have the historical development of Art and this unfolds the different forms of Art First the work of Art appears in a purely external and direct form the Beautiful being exhibited mainly in material objects The thought or subjective ideal is indeed present but it is in a manner sunk in the material and is often exhibited only as an ornamentation on the form of the object This Philosophy of Art Noel Carroll,2004 Philosophy of Art Hegel Georg Wilhelm Friedrich,1901 But is it Art? Cynthia A.
