scenes and things hallowed to the feelings of every American I felt a hope that a record of the pilgrimage interwoven with that of the facts of past history would attract the attention and win to the perusal of the chronicles of our Revolution many who could not be otherwise decoyed into the apparently arid and flowerless domains of mere history I accordingly determined to make the record of the tour to the important localities of the Revolution a leading feature in the work Here another difficulty was encountered So widely scattered are those localities and so simultaneous were many of the events that a connected narrative of the journey must necessarily break up the chronological unity of the history and at times produce some confusion To give incidents of the journey and sketches and descriptions of the scenery and relics as they appear at present in fragmentary notes would deny to the work the charm of a book of travel and thus almost wholly remove the prime object in view in giving such narrative The apparently less objectionable course was chosen and the history was broken into fragments arranged in the exhibition in accordance with the order in which each locality was visited the fragments individualized as much as possible yet always maintaining a tie of visible relationship with the whole The apparent difficulties in the way of the student which this plan suggests are removed by the aid of a complete Analytical Index at the close of the work while the narrative of the tour remains unbroken except by the continually recurring appendices of history How far this arrangement shall accomplish the desired result the candid judgment of the reader must determine Officers and Boards of Managers, Charters, Constitution and By-laws, Ancestral Records and Roll of Membership ...
