

Part 1, Improving Immediately

Exercise 1, Chapter 1, 25 Ways to Improve Writing Immediately (Handbook 1-14)

Pages 1-14 in Chapter 1 of Media Writer's Handbook present readers with 25 ways to improve their writing immediately. From whatever sources you choose (newspapers, magazines, textbooks, broadcasts, public relations releases, advertisements, bulletin boards, etc.), find 10 different types of errors discussed in Chapter 1. Identify your source and the error and explain how the error should be corrected.

1. In this weeks US Weekly, there is an article about the show The Bachelor. In the article there is a sentence that says, "If you don't get the results you want, it's probably because you give more than what you receive, so watch out. That's not good," said the soothsayer." The sentence should be corrected to say "If you don't get the results you want, its probably because you give more than what you receive, so watch out. That's not good," the soothsayer said.
2. The celebrity gossip site TMZ shared an article on the Real Houswives of New Jersey star Teresea Guidice and her marital troubles. She opens up to the reporter about her husbands "pre-jailed" behavior. There is an error with the word "pre-jailed" as writers should resisit using nouns as verbs. The reporter should fix this and say "her husbands behavior before prison".
3. In a press release for the Bachelor, it says "Chris Harrison will anounce in Septemeber who the next Bachelor will be". The sentence should say "Chris Harrison said he will announce the next Bachelor in September".
4. In Manor/Forest Hills lease argeement it says "You must bring photo ID in order to get a parking pass". It should say "Tenants are required to bring photo ID in order to receive a parking pass".
5. My soriority weekly newsletter states "Our national headquarters will celebrate our founders day on October 12th". It should say "Our national headquarters will celebrate founders day Ocotober 12th".
6. An Estee Lauder advertisment said "Estee Lauder will announce a new spokesperson as Kendall Jenner". It should say "Estee Lauder said they will announce a new spokesperson as Kendall Jenner"
7. Saint Catherines Church in Fairfax Virginia sends weekly emails about their meetings during the week. Last week their email said "The Church will hold its weekly meeting on Sunday". It should say "The Church will meet on Sunday"
