Catalogue Harvard University. Graduate School of Design. Library, 1974 The Culture Box Harley Parker, 2025-07-02 In The Culture Box Harley Parker applies Marshall McLuhan's medium theory to the museum analyzes the museum as the site of many media and specifies the ways in which designer communicators can engage in inter sense design to connect audiences and artifacts Parker argues that museums should retrain the sensory perception of visitors and foster cultural engagement participation and empathy In order to accomplish this he recommends the construction of what he calls a new centre emphasizing both new and news a small newseum which would engender discussion and debate Parker envisions these centres being constructed adjacent to any existing large prestige museum and containing three exhibits a current public exhibit an exhibit in process and an area for gathering materials for a forthcoming exhibit This critical edition of The Culture Box revives Parker's unpublished manuscript one that promised to be a key contribution to the Toronto School of Communication before it was lost for some fifty years and then recently discovered by Parker's daughter Margaret Parker Gary Genosko presents an overview of the book's leading ideas and provides annotations outlining Parker's source materials and the salient texts by Marshall McLuhan and others Scholars in communication media and curatorial studies will benefit from Parker's book as will those interested in sensory design and McLuhan studies The Art of Museum Exhibitions Leslie Bedford, 2016-06-16 Leslie Bedford former director of the highly regarded Bank Street College museum leadership program expands the museum professional's vision of exhibitions beyond the simple goal of transmitting knowledge to the visitor Her

view of exhibitions as interactive emotional embodied imaginative experiences opens a new vista for those designing them Using examples both from her own work at the Boston Children s Museum and from other institutions around the globe Bedford offers the museum professional a bold new vision built around narrative imagination and aesthetics merging the work of the educator with that of the artist It is important reading for all museum professionals

Showing resistance Harriet Atkinson,2024-07-23 How did exhibitions become a vital tool for public communication in early twentieth century Britain Showing resistance reveals how exhibitions were taken up by activists and politicians from 1933 to 1953 becoming manifestos weapons of war and a means of signalling political solidarities Drawing on dozens of examples mounted in empty shops workers canteens station ticket halls and beyond this richly illustrated book shows how this overlooked form was created by significant makers including artists Paul Nash John Heartfield and Oskar Kokoschka architect Erno Goldfinger and photographer Edith Tudor Hart Showing resistance is the first study of exhibitions as communications in mid twentieth century Britain

Histories of Exhibition Design in the Museum Kate Guy,Hajra Williams,Claire Wintle,2023-11-30 Histories of Exhibition Design in the Museum Makers Process and Practice offers a new model for understanding exhibition design in museums as a human and material process It presents diverse case studies from around the world from the nineteenth century to the recent past It moves beyond the power of the finished exhibition over both objects and visitors to highlight historic exhibition making as an ongoing task of adaptation experimentation and interaction that involves intellectual creative and technical choices Attentive to hierarchies of ethnicity race class gender sexuality and ableism that have informed exhibition design and its histories the volume highlights the labour involved in making museum exhibitions It presents design as filled with personal and professional demands on the body senses and emotions Contributions from historians anthropologists and exhibition makers focus on histories of identity collaboration and hierarchy behind the scenes of the museum They argue for an emphasis on the everyday objects of museum design and the importance of a diverse range of actors within and beyond the museum from carpenters and label writers to volunteers and local communities Histories of Exhibition Design in the Museum offers scholars students and professionals working across the museum and design sectors insight into how past methods still influence museums today Through a postcolonial and decolonial lens it reveals the lineage of current processes and supports a more informed contemporary practice

Experimental Museology Marianne Achiam,Michael Haldrup,Kirsten Drotner,2021-06-28 Experimental Museology scrutinizes innovative endeavours to transform museum interactions with the world Analysing cutting edge cases from around the globe the volume demonstrates how museums can design apply and assess new modes of audience engagement and participation Written by an interdisciplinary group of researchers and research led professionals the book argues that museum transformations must be focused on conceptualizing and documenting the everyday challenges and choices facing museums especially in relation to wider social political and economic ramifications In order to illuminate the complexity of these challenges the volume is structured into three related key dimensions of museum practice namely institutions representations and users Each chapter is based on a curatorial design proposed and performed in collaboration between university based academics and a museum Taken together the chapters provide insights into a diversity of geographical contexts fields and museums thus building a comprehensive and reflexive repository of design practices and formative experiments that can help strengthen future museum research and design Experimental Museology will be of great value to academics and students in the fields of museum gallery and heritage studies as well as architecture design communication and cultural studies It will also be of interest to museum professionals and anyone else who is interested in learning more about experimentation and design as resources in museums The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
