Experience Or Interpretation:

Experience or interpretation Nicholas Serota,1996 Tradition Vs. Traditionalism Abraham Sagi,2008 This book is a first attempt to examine the thought of key contemporary Jewish thinkers on the meaning of tradition in the context of two models The classic model assumes that tradition reflects lack of dynamism and reflectiveness and the present s unqualified submission to the past This view however is an image that the modernist ethos has ascribed to the tradition so as to remove it from modern existence In the alternative model a living tradition emerges as open and dynamic developing through an ongoing dialogue between present and past The Jewish philosophers discussed in this work Joseph B Soloveitchik Yeshayahu Leibowitz David Hartman and Eliezer Goldman ascribe compelling canonic status to the tradition and the analysis of their thought discloses the tension between these two models The book carefully traces the course they have plotted along the various interpretations of tradition through their approach to Scripture and to Halakhah Contents Editorial Foreword Introduction Returning to Tradition Paradox or Challenge The Tense Encounter with Modernity Soloveitchik Jewish Thought Confronts Modernity Compartmentalization From Ernst Simon to Yeshayahu Leibowitz The Harmonic Encounter with Modernity Religious Commitment in a Secularized World Eliezer Goldman David Hartman Renewing the Covenant Between Old and New Judaism as Interpretation Scripture in the Thought of Leibowitz and Soloveitchik Halakhah in the Thought of Leibowitz and Soloveitchik Eliezer Goldman Judaism as Interpretation Epilogue My Name s my Donors Name Notes Bibliography About the Author Index Metaphysics of Mystery Marijn de Jong,2020-02-06 How can we theologically reflect on universality in a world that increasingly focuses on particularities and differences Marijn de Jong argues that the question of universality calls for a reconceptualized form of metaphysical theology which he finds in the work of Karl Rahner and Edward Schillebeeckx Casting a new light on these theologians de Jong demonstrates that their methods contain a dialectical interrelation of hermeneutics and metaphysics an interrelation which seemingly has been lost in more recent hermeneutical theology Rahner and Schillebeeckx carefully balance particularity and universality without falling prey to relativist or absolutist ways of reasoning By analyzing fundamental themes such as experience and interpretation nature and grace faith and reason and intelligibility and mystery de Jong reveals the modest theological metaphysics that lies at the heart of their methods This critical retrieval demonstrates the enduring relevance of these thinkers and opens up new avenues of thought for theologians that do not want to shy away from the difficult question of the universality of God Alan Watts Here and Now Peter J. Columbus,Donadrian L. Rice,2012-06-01 Considers the contributions and contemporary significance of Alan Watts Studying European Theatre Audiences Joshua Edelman,Attila Szabó,Hedi-Liis Toome,Marline Lisette Wilders,Antine Zijlstra,2025-04-25 This book reports on one of the largest co ordinated efforts to survey the theatrical audience experience the City Study of the Project on European Theatre Systems which conducted over 7000 surveys and dozens of interviews and focus groups with audience members from four mid sized cities across Europe

This study aimed to capture the details of how audiences perceive and value theatre and resulted in a data set which while imperfect has no precedent in scale and comparability for theatre studies. Based on this very large data set the authors were able to create a portrait of varied segments of European theatrical audiences its experiences and how it values theatre that is more detailed and incisive than any previously available. The question is not just who comes to theatre but why and how those experiences are valuable to them. This book's key contribution however is methodological that offers a detailed and unsparing examination of the City Study's working methods their underlying theory their strengths and weaknesses and which survey and interview techniques were more successful in bringing out useful information. This makes this book essential reading for those interested in studying theatre's place in society but also for artists policy makers and arts professionals who want to make and share work with an understanding of their audience's engagement with it. The Expository Times, 1894

The Expository Times James Hastings, Ann Wilson Hastings, Edward Hastings, 1907 Organizational Studies: Modes of management, 2001 The Unity of Mystical Traditions Randall Studstill, 2018-08-14 This book argues that mystical doctrines and practices initiate parallel transformative processes in the consciousness of mystics. This thesis is supported through a comparative analysis of Tibetan Buddhist Dzogchen rdzogs chen and the medieval German mysticism of Eckhart Suso and Tauler. These traditions are interpreted using a system cybernetic model of consciousness. This model provides a theoretical framework for assessing the cognitive effects of mystical doctrines and practices and showing how different doctrines and practices may nevertheless initiate common transformative processes. This system's approach contributes to current philosophical discourse on mysticism by 1 making possible a precise analysis of the cognitive effects of mystical doctrines and practices and 2 reconciling mystical heterogeneity with the essential unity of mystical traditions. An Outline of the Idealistic Construction of Experience Sir James Black Baillie, 1906 Infinite Paths to Infinite Reality Ayon Maharaj, 2018 This pioneering study examines the philosophy of the nineteenth century Indian mystic Sri Ramakrishna bringing him into dialogue with Western thinkers. Sri Ramakrishna's expansive conception of God as the impersonal personal Infinite Reality Maharaj argues introduces a new paradigm for addressing central issues in the philosophy of religion.

Finding Ourselves at the Movies Paul W. Kahn, 2013-11-12 Academic philosophy may have lost its audience but the traditional subjects of philosophy love death justice knowledge and faith remain as compelling as ever. To reach a new generation Paul W. Kahn argues that philosophy must take up these fundamental concerns as we find them in contemporary culture. He demonstrates how this can be achieved through a turn to popular film. Discussing such well known movies as Forrest Gump 1994 The American President 1995 The Matrix 1999 Memento 2000 The History of Violence 2005 Gran Torino 2008 The Dark Knight 2008 The Road 2009 and Avatar 2009 Kahn explores powerful archetypes and their hold on us. His inquiry proceeds in two parts. First he uses film to explore the nature of action and interpretation arguing that narrative is the critical concept for understanding both. Second he explores the narratives of politics family and faith as they appear in popular films Engaging with genres as diverse as romantic comedy slasher film and pornography Kahn explores the social imaginary through which we create and maintain a meaningful world He finds in popular films a new setting for a philosophical inquiry into the timeless themes of sacrifice innocence rebirth law and love Bloody Meadows John Carman, Patricia Carman, 2006-02-16 By investigating the sites of historical battlefields this book shows that an insight can be developed into the minds of those who fought and into some of our own expectations about war It reveals differences in landscape type between battlefields from the tenth to nineteenth century in Britain Belgium France Spain and Portugal
