Inventing Herself:

Inventing Herself Elaine Showalter, 2001-03-20 Sure to take its place alongside the literary landmarks of modern feminism Elaine Showalter's brilliant provocative work chronicles the roles of feminist intellectuals from the eighteenth century to the present With sources as diverse as A Vindication of the Rights of Woman and Scream 2 Inventing Herself is an expansive and timely exploration of women who possess a boundless determination to alter the world by boldly experiencing love achievement and fame on a grand scale These women tried to work travel think love and even die in ways that were ahead of their time In doing so they forged an epic history that each generation of adventurous women has rediscovered Focusing on paradigmatic figures ranging from Mary Wollstonecraft and Margaret Fuller to Germaine Greer and Susan Sontag preeminent scholar Elaine Showalter uncovers common themes and patterns of these women's lives across the centuries and discovers the feminist intellectual tradition they embodied The author brilliantly illuminates the contributions of Eleanor Marx Zora Neale Hurston Simone de Beauvoir Margaret Mead and many more Showalter a highly regarded critic known for her provocative and strongly held opinions has here established a compelling new Who's Who of women's thought Certain to spark controversy the omission of such feminist perennials as Susan B Anthony Eleanor Roosevelt and Virginia Woolf will surprise and shock the conventional wisdom This is not a history of perfect women but rather of real women whose mistakes and even tragedies are instructive and inspiring for women today who are still trying to invent themselves The Created Self Robert John Weber, 2000 The Created Self takes readers to as yet unexplored regions in the modern psyche's preoccupation with self invention Character and Satire in Post War Fiction Ian Gregson, 2008-04-01 This monograph analyses the use of caricature as one of the key strategies in narrative fiction since the war Close analysis of some of the best known postwar novelists including Toni Morrison Philip Roth Joyce Carol Oates Angela Carter and Will Self reveals how they use caricature to express postmodern conceptions of the self In the process of moving away from the modernist focus on subjectivity postmodern characterisation has often drawn on a much older satirical tradition which includes Hogarth and Gillray in the visual arts and Dryden Pope Swift and Dickens in literature Its key images depict the human as reduced to the status of an object an animal or a machine or the human body as dismembered to represent the fragmentation of the human spirit Gregson argues that this return to caricature is symptomatic of a satirical attitude to the self which is particularly characteristic of contemporary culture Nations of Nothing But Poetry Matthew Hart, 2010-04-22 Modernism is typically associated with novelty and urbanity So what happens when poets identify small communities and local languages with the spirit of transnational modernity Are vernacular poetries inherently provincial or implicitly xenophobic How did modernist poets use vernacular language to re-imagine the relations between people their languages and the communities in which they live Nations of Nothing But Poetry answers these questions through case studies of British Caribbean and American poetries from the 1920s through the 1990s With a combination of fresh insights and attentive close readings

Matthew Hart presents a new theory of a synthetic vernacular writing that explores the aesthetic and ideological tensions within modernism's dual commitments to the local and the global. The result is an invigorating contribution to the field of transnational modernist studies. Chapters focus on a mixture of canonical and non canonical writers combining new literary histories such as the story of how Melvin B Tolson while a resident of Oklahoma was appointed Poet Laureate of Liberia with analyses of poems by Gertrude Stein W H Auden Ezra Pound and T S Eliot. More broadly the book reveals how the language of modernist poetry was shaped by the incompletely globalized nature of a world in which the nation state continued to be a primary mediator of cultural and political identity even as its authority was challenged as never before. Through deft juxtaposition Hart develops a new interpretation of modernist poetry in English one that disrupts the critical opposition between nationalism and the transnational paving the way for a political history of modernist cosmopolitanism.

The 7th Magpie R. K. McVeigh, 2013-09-18 Fate these things can make or break our world that's what fascinates us or fills us with fear. Do we really guide our own lives or are we following a pre-determined pathway? Karen's life started with poor fortune poverty her single mum and abuse. Gran had thrown them out. Then confusion as her religious Gran tries to make amends but insists that Karen mustn't use her visions. When Gran takes her back to live with her Karen turns her back on her promiscuous teens and works hard to secure a first class degree a career and a wealthy husband. Hard won fate seems to be smiling on her at last. Then her fortunes change and she is now single and frustrated with a stalled career what is she to do now? A chance meeting in a small hotel and a one night stand leads to a pathway that changes her life and all that she could wish for falls into her lap. Was this always meant to be? As her life blossoms Karen becomes aware that all of this has roots in the past and events that seemed inconsequential are now weaving a tapestry of well being. Was she being guided to this all of her life? What chance took her to that fateful meeting?

THE MILLIONAIRE'S BABY Diana Hamilton, 2011-07-15 NANNY WANTED Finn needed a stand in mommy for his little girl. He got a stand in nanny. They needed a nanny. When millionaire Finn Helliar walked into her nanny agency looking for help Caro couldn't believe her luck. This was the man who'd hurt her sister and what better way to make him pay than to accept the position he was offering and look what they get Unfortunately Caro had reckoned without two things Sophie who was adorable and Finn who was even more adorable The more time she spent with them the more she realized her plan had one fatal flaw how could she ever leave      Home Fires Elizabeth Day,2013-01-01 Max Weston twenty one and a newly commissioned lance corporal leaves home for his first posting in central Africa Fiercely patriotic and completely at home in the army he is eager to make a difference He never comes back His parents Caroline and Andrew are devastated by the death of their only child The overwhelming love Caroline has always felt for her son is now matched by the intensity of her loss and as she is borne away on a private ocean of grief the moorings of their marriage begin to come loose The silence is broken by the arrival of Andrew s mother Elsa who at the age of ninety eight can no longer look after herself Caroline has never felt good enough for this elegant cuttingly courteous lady and has lived for years in fear of putting a foot wrong Now suddenly Caroline has the upper hand As Elsa lies marooned and disorientated in the spare room the past unspools in her mind throwing up fragments of her anxious childhood in 1920s Richmond under the shadow of her father a soldier who came back from the Great War a different man A stunning delicate portrait of a family bookended by war Home Fires explores the legacy of loss the strictures of class and the long road to redemption      Lady Churchill's Rosebud Wristlet No. 40 Kelly Link,Gavin J. Grant,2019-11-26 The contents of this zine were produced under pressure but contain a short break and distraction from the everyday      Narrating Violence, Constructing Collective Identities G. Chandra,2008-12-17 A study of distinct forms of mass violence the narratives each kind demands and the collective identities constructed from and upon these this book focuses around readings of popular and influential novels such as Toni Morrison s Beloved Amy Tan s The Joy Luck Club and Isabel Allende s The House of Spirits      Turning Your Knowledge Into Income Chris Day (Business journalist),2010 Chris Day and his team of expert contributors share their experience and knowledge to help readers dive into their Bank of Knowledge and turn their knowledge into income      Philip Roth Ira Nadel,2021-02-01 This new biography of famed American novelist Philip Roth offers a full account of his development as a writer Philip Roth was much more than a Jewish writer from Newark as this new biography reveals His life encompassed writing some of the most original novels in American literature publishing censored writers from Eastern Europe surviving less than satisfactory marriages and developing friendships with a number of the most important writers of his time from Primo Levi and Milan Kundera to Isaac Bashevis Singer Saul Bellow and Edna O'Brien The winner of a Pulitzer Prize National Book Award and the Man Booker International Prize Roth maintained a remarkable productivity throughout a career that spanned almost fifty years creating 31 works But beneath the success was illness angst and anxiety often masked from his readers This biography drawing on archives interviews and his books delves into the shaded world of Philip Roth to identify the ghosts the character and even identity of the man      Writing Centers in the Higher Education Landscape of the Arabian Gulf Osman Z. Barnawi,2017-09-06 This book addresses issues surrounding writing centers in the Arabian Gulf region Including a foreword by Professor Ken Hyland it brings together a number of thought provoking chapters on the history concept and ground realities coupled with critical comparative discussions of writing centres in the region The book begins by offering critical historical accounts of writing centers in the Gulf countries before moving onto empirical research and reports on pedagogical practices that vividly capture the on the ground realities faced and experienced by different actors These accounts serve to highlight how the writing centers vary between countries as well as how they differ from the more well known writing centers in the US and the UK Finally the book explores what sort of commonalities and differences the current trend of writing centres is producing within and between the six countries of the Arabian Gulf This book will be highly relevant to those involved with writing centres along with directors policymakers researchers and teacher educators in the fields of Education and Sociology particularly those with an interest in the Arabian Gulf area      Communities of Care Talia

Schaffer,2025-07-08 What we can learn about caregiving and community from the Victorian novel In Communities of Care Talia Schaffer explores Victorian fictional representations of care communities small voluntary groups that coalesce around someone in need Drawing lessons from Victorian sociality Schaffer proposes a theory of communal care and a mode of critical reading centered on an ethics of care In the Victorian era medical science offered little hope for cure of illness or disability and chronic invalidism and lengthy convalescences were common Small communities might gather around afflicted individuals to minister to their needs and palliate their suffering Communities of Care examines these groups in the novels of Jane Austen Charlotte Bront Charles Dickens George Eliot Henry James and Charlotte Yonge and studies the relationships that they exemplify How do carers become part of the community How do they negotiate status How do caring emotions develop And what does it mean to think of care as an activity rather than a feeling Contrasting the Victorian emphasis on community and social structure with modern individualism and interiority Schaffer s sympathetic readings draw us closer to the worldview from which these novels emerged Schaffer also considers the ways in which these models of carework could inform and improve practice in criticism in teaching and in our daily lives Through the lens of care Schaffer discovers a vital form of communal relationship in the Victorian novel Communities of Care also demonstrates that literary criticism done well is the best care that scholars can give to texts      Unruly Narrative Samira Spatzek,2022-09-06 This study deals with the formative powers of modern liberal ideas of private property The liberal subject emerged with the formations of European liberalism Atlantic slavery and settler colonial expansion in the New World Toni Morrison s A Mercy is thus identified as a key literary text that generates a fundamental critique of the connections between self making and private property at its 17th century scene      The Bachelor's Bargain Jessica Steele,2014-08-15 It was Jarad Montgomery who picked Merren up and dusted her down after she d been mugged He even offered to replace her stolen money Merren was determined to repay Jarad and he was happy to suggest a solution be his steady girlfriend for a year At first Merren reckoned she d got the better part of their bargain being escorted by Jarad was no hardship until he decided that their deal included other duties as well

On the seventh day, God rested Franck Della Motte, 2010-04      Japanese English James Stanlaw, 2004-01-01 The volumes in this series set out to provide a contemporary record of the spread and development of the English language in South Southeast and East Asia from both a linguistic and literary perspective Each volume will reflect themes that cut across national boundaries including the study of language policies globalization and linguistic imperialism English in the media English in law government and education hybrid Englishes and the bilingual creativity manifested by the vibrant creative writing found in a swathe of Asian societies This book gives an in depth analysis of the use of the English language in modern Japan It explores the many ramifications the Japanese English language and culture contact situation has for not only Japanese themselves but also others in the international community Data for this book has been gathered using anthropological ethnographic fieldwork augmented by archival sources written materials and items from popular culture and the mass media An interdisciplinary approach including those of anthropological linguistics sociolinguistics cognitive science and symbolic anthropology is taken in the exploration of the topics here This book s arguments focus on four major theoretical linguistic and social issues namely the place of the Japanese English case in the larger context of World Englishes the place of the Japanese English case in a general theory of language and culture contact how Japanese English informs problems of categorization meaning construction and cognition and what it says about the social construction of identity and sense of self nationalism and race This book will be of interest to linguists anthropologists sociologists cognitive scientists and all readers who are interested in language contact sociolinguistics English as an international language and World Englishes It will also appeal to those who are interested in Japan and popular culture      Border Crossings and Beyond Carmen Haydée Rivera, 2009-09-23 Best known as the author of The House on Mango Street Sandra Cisneros is recognized as one the most important contemporary U S writers In this book the author examines the ways in which issues of cultural and racial identity are reflected in Cisneros writing and social activism She looks at Cisneros creative process when writing novels and analyzes her poetry collections highlighting the distinctions that she makes between the two forms of writing The author concludes with a discussion of Cisneros role as an activist involved in community affairs particularly those related to the development of Latino a lives This book is a revealing and multi faceted portrait of Cisneros as writer woman and Mexican American      A God of One's Own Ulrich Beck, 2014-11-05 Religion posits one characteristic as an absolute faith Compared to faith all other social distinctions and sources of conflict are insignificant The New Testament says We are all equal in the sight of God To be sure this equality applies only to those who acknowledge God s existence What this means is that alongside the abolition of class and nation within the community of believers religion introduces a new fundamental distinction into the world the distinction between the right kind of believers and the wrong kind Thus overtly or tacitly religion brings with it the demonization of believers in other faiths The central question that will decide the continued existence of humanity is this How can we conceive of a type of inter religious tolerance in which loving one s neighbor does not imply war to the death a type of tolerance whose goal is not truth but peace Is what we are experiencing at present a regression of monotheistic religion to a polytheism of the religious spirit under the heading of a God of one s own In Western societies where the autonomy of the individual has been internalized individual human beings tend to feel increasingly at liberty to tell themselves little faith stories that fit their own lives to appoint Gods of their own However this God of their own is no longer the one and only God who presides over salvation by seizing control of history and empowering his followers to be intolerant and use naked force
