Eileen M. McMahon, 2021-12-14 For Irish Americans as well as for

Chicago's other ethnic groups the local parish once formed the nucleus of daily life. Focusing on the parish of St Sabina's in the southwest Chicago neighborhood of Auburn Gresham, Eileen McMahon takes a penetrating look at the response of Catholic ethnics to life in twentieth century America. She reveals the role the parish church played in achieving a cohesive and vital ethnic neighborhood and shows how ethno-religious distinctions gave way to racial differences as a central point of identity and conflict. For most of this century the parish served as an important mechanism for helping Irish Catholics cope with a dominant Protestant American culture. Anti-Catholicism in the society at large contributed to dependency on parishes and to a desire for separateness from the American mainstream. As much as Catholics may have wanted to insulate themselves in their parish communities, however, Chicago demographics and the fluid nature of the larger society made this ultimately impossible. Despite efforts at integration attempted by St Sabina's liberal clergy, white parishioners viewed black migration into their neighborhood as a threat to their way of life and resisted it even as they relocated to the suburbs. The transition from white to black neighborhoods and parishes is a major theme of twentieth century urban history. The experience of St Sabina's, which changed from a predominantly Irish parish to a vibrant African American Catholic community, provides insights into this social trend and suggests how the interplay between faith and ethnicity contributes to a resistance to change.

The Parish Guide to the New Evangelization Fr. Robert J. Hater, 2013-03-25. Finally a practical step by step guide to the new evangelization. Father Robert J. Hater takes the New Evangelization from concept and theory to practical application and shows pastoral leaders and ministers exactly how to implement it parish wide. In A Parish Guide to the New Evangelization you will learn: How to overcome challenges to the new evangelization. How to motivate parishioners to evangelize. How to coordinate efforts at the parish level. How to effectively reach inactive Catholics. How to use the web and other media to promote your evangelization efforts. What sets Catholic evangelization apart from Protestant evangelization. How to jump start parish evangelization. And much more. Father Robert J. Hater encourages all pastoral leaders to renew their commitment to the new evangelization and subsequently take pride in developing an evangelizing parish.

It's Not the Same Without You Mitch Finley, 2014-01-01. In a heartfelt invitation to lapsed or estranged Catholics, Mitch Finley takes a realistic look at the reasons people feel alienated and proposes ways to overcome the anger, bitterness, and resentment so that they may return. Sixty million people in the United States claim a Catholic identity. The next largest group, approximately nine million, is made up of people who are fallen away Catholics. Mitch Finley addresses this audience as well as parents struggling with the almost inevitable teenage rebellion against religion. Finley examines a wide variety of reasons Catholics choose to leave the Church, treating each one in a fair-minded way. He recounts dozens of true stories about people who left and returned, a few about those who have yet to return, and candidly acknowledges that many, perhaps most, active Catholics experience periods of estrangement Asking forgiveness on behalf of the Church for the ways lapsed Catholics may have been hurt by the institution or its official representatives he also reminds readers that forgiveness needs to go both ways Encouraging Catholics to begin a new relationship with their religion Finley suggests ways to become part of a parish once more He also discusses the Church's obligations to those who have left highlighting successful outreach programs In guiding readers along the path from alienation to reconciliation Finley shows that there are good reasons for coming home again

When a Loved One Leaves the Church Lorene Hanley Duquin, 2001-02-28 This compelling new work teaches you how to trust God when someone you love leaves the Church Author Lorene Hanley Duquin uses an engaging blend of stories from real people Church teaching sociological studies and plain old common sense to bring comfort and understanding to those who bear the burden of having a loved one leave the Faith Discover The single greatest factor involved in leaving the Church The five main reasons people drop out The only reason why some people must leave the Faith Why you shouldn't feel guilty when a family member leaves Sure fire ways to keep teens attending Mass And much more that will help you endure the pain suffering and heartache that comes when someone you love no longer is practicing the Faith

Creating the Evangelizing Parish Frank P. DeSiano, Kenneth Boyack, 1993 Creating the Evangelizing Parish challenges those who realize the importance of evangelization and are eager to make an impact on Catholic Church life today Co authors Frank DeSiano and Kenneth Boyack clearly explain the definition of evangelization and offer for further clarification an encounter model of evangelization which specifically places the ministry into the framework of personal relationships The authors then describe actual parish dynamics and organization in terms of their universal evangelizing purposes as understood by the church Creating the Evangelizing Parish is key reading for church leaders who want to take charge of their parishes direction establish evangelization teams and implement effective parish strategies for renewal Every pastor pastoral staff member parish counselor and other workers in evangelization will gladly welcome this book as a pastoral and practical resource for their ministry Creating the Evangelizing Parish will richly reward those who look for new directions in their ministry and the church BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Crabgrass Catholicism Stephen M. Koeth, 2025-08-19 How suburbanization was a crucial catalyst for reforms in the Catholic Church The 1960s in America were a time of revolt against the stifling conformism embodied in the sprawling uniform suburbs of the 1950s Typically the reforms of the Catholic Church's Second Vatican Council which aimed to make the Church more modern and accessible are seen as one result of that broader cultural liberalization Yet in Crabgrass Catholicism Stephen M Koeth demonstrates that the liberalization of the Church was instead the product of the mass suburbanization that began some fifteen years earlier Koeth argues that postwar suburbanization revolutionized the Catholic parish the relationship between clergy and laity conceptions of parochial education and Catholic participation in US politics and thereby was a significant factor in the religious disaffiliation that only accelerated in subsequent decades A novel exploration of the role of Catholics in postwar suburbanization Crabgrass Catholicism will be of particular interest to urban historians scholars of American Catholicism and religious studies and Catholic clergy and laity
