Legal Education and Professional Development American Bar Association. Task Force on Law Schools and the Profession: Narrowing the Gap,1992 Legal Education and Professional Development American Bar Association. Task Force on Law Schools and the Profession: Narrowing the Gap,1993 ABA Journal ,1992-10 The ABA Journal serves the legal profession Qualified recipients are lawyers and judges law students law librarians and associate members of the American Bar Association Educating Lawyers William M. Sullivan,Anne Colby,Judith Welch Wegner,Lloyd Bond,Lee S. Shulman,2007-03-09 The Challenge of Educating Lawyers This volume under the presidency of Lee Shulman is intended primarily to foster appreciation for what legal education does at its best We want to encourage more informed scholarship and imaginative dialogue about teaching and learning for the law at all organizational levels in individual law schools in the academic associations in the profession itself We also believe our findings will be of interest within the academy beyond the professional schools as well as among that public concerned with higher education and the promotion of professional excellence From the Introduction Educating Lawyers is no doubt the best work on the analysis and reform of legal education that I have ever read There is a call for deep changes in the way law is taught and I believe that it will be a landmark in the history of legal education Bryant G Garth dean and professor of law Southwestern Law School and former director of the American Bar Foundation Educating Lawyers succeeds admirably in describing the educational programs at virtually every American law school The call for the integration of the three apprenticeships seems to me exactly what is needed to make legal education more professional to prepare law students better for the practice of law and to address societal expectations of lawyers Stephen Wizner dean of faculty William O Douglas Clinical Professor of Law Yale Law School Reinventing Legal Education Alberto Alemanno,Lamin Khadar,2018-05-24 European legal teaching historically formalistic doctrinal hierarchical and passive is coming under increasing pressure to reimagine itself as pragmatic policy aware and action oriented Out of this context a bottom up movement of university law clinics appears to be emerging in Europe Although intellectually indebted to the US model the European variant reflects legal education and practice in Europe specifically the multi layered and multi genetic legal landscape resulting from the Europeanization and internationalization of national legal systems the globalization of European legal markets and the growing demand for civic engagement in view of increasingly powerful supra national institutions Through the prism of clinical legal education Reinventing Legal Education is the first attempt to gather scholarly and systematic reflections on the developments taking place in European legal teaching and practice This groundbreaking book should be read by anyone interested in how clinical legal education is reinventing legal education in Europe Affect and Legal Education Caroline Maughan,Paul Maharg,2016-03-23 The place of emotion in legal education is rarely discussed or analysed and we do not have to seek far for the reasons The difficulty of interdisciplinary research the technicisation of legal education itself the view that affect is irrational and antithetical to core western ideals of rationality all this has made the subject of emotion in legal education invisible Yet the educational literature on emotion proves how essential it is to student learning and to the professional lives of teachers This text the first full length book study of the subject seeks to make emotion a central topic of research for legal educators and restore the power of emotion in our teaching and learning Part 1 focuses on the contribution that neuroscience can make to legal learning a theme that is carried through other chapters in the book Part 2 explores the role of emotion in the working lives of academics and clinical staff while Part 3 analyses the ways in which emotion can be used in learning and teaching The book interdisciplinary and wide ranging in its reference breaks new ground in its analysis of the educational lifeworld of situations communities actors and interactions in legal education
