Leger and Purist Paris F. Leger, John Golding, Christopher Green, 1977-01-01      From Millet to Léger Robert L. Herbert, 2002-01-01 In a preface prepared for this volume Herbert explains that these essays are linked by a focus on the relation of art to the urban industrial revolution BOOK JACKET      Léger and Purist Paris Tate Gallery, 1970      Léger and Purist Paris, 1975      (Fernand) Léger and Purist Paris, 1970      Léger and Purist Paris Neave Brown, 1970      Léger and Purist Paris John Golding, 1970      Léger and Purist Paris Fernand Léger, 1970      Fernand Léger Fernand Léger, Carolyn Lanchner, Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), 1998 Fernand Leger 1881 1955 is the only modern artist to choose modernity itself as his subject From his early series Contrastes de formes 1913 14 the first fully abstract works to emerge from Cubism through his last realistic paintings of construction workers from the early 1950s Leger's lifelong subject was the pulse and dynamism of contemporary life      Léger and Purist Paris [Exhibition] Nov. 18, 1970 - Jan. 24, 1971 Tate Gallery, 1970      Paris/Manhattan Peter Wollen, 2004 Peter Wollen is a master in the art of making unexpected connections and this new book suggests many different ways of writing and thinking about art      Léger and Purist Paris Fernand Léger, 1970      Painting and Sculpture in Europe, 1880-1940 George Heard Hamilton, 1993-01-01 This new edition of a book that offers the best available grounding in its huge subject as the Sunday Times called it includes color plates and a revised and expanded bibliography Professor Hamilton traces the origins and growth of modern art assessing the intrinsic qualities of individual works and describing the social forces in play The result is an authoritative guide through the forest of artistic labels Impressionism and Expressionism Symbolism Cubism Constructivism Surrealism etc and to the achievements of Degas and Cezanne Ensor and Munch Matisse and Kandinsky Picasso Braque and Epstein Mondrian Dali Modigliani Utrillo and Chagall Klee Henry Moore and many other artists in a revolutionary age      Joseph Csáky Edith Balas, 1998 Joseph Csaky 1888 1971 a neglected pioneer of early Modernism was a native of Hungary who became a dedicated member of the Parisian avant garde He took part in the 1912 Section d'Or Exhibition considered by many to mark the high point of the Cubist movement He was an intimate friend of such innovative giants as Picasso Braque yet he spent the last 30 years of his life in obscurity was virtually destitute at his death This ground breaking study includes a detailed discussion of his career over 100 illus of his major sculpture a translation of the artist's autobio that provides a wealth of new info about the early Parisian avant garde      Urban Utopias Malcolm Miles, 2007-11-21 Utopia tends to generate a bad press regarded as impracticable perhaps nostalgic or contradictory when visions of a perfect world cannot accommodate the change that is necessary to a free and self organizing society But people from diverse backgrounds are currently building a new society within the old balancing literal and metaphorical utopianism and demonstrating plural possibilities for alternative futures and types of settlement Thousands of such places exist around the world including intentional communities eco villages permaculture plots religious and secular retreats co housing projects self build schemes projects for low impact housing and activist squats in urban and rural sites This experience suggests however that when planning and design are not integral to alternative social formations the modern dream to engineer a new society cannot be realized The book is structured in four parts In part one literary and theoretical utopias from the early modern period to the nineteenth century are reconsidered Part two investigates twentieth century urban utopianism and contemporary alternative settlements focusing on social and environmental issues activism and eco village living Part three looks to wider horizons in recent practices in the non affluent world and Part four reviews a range of cases from the author s visits to specific sites This is followed by a short conclusion in which a discussion of key issues is resumed This book brings together insights from literary theoretical and practical utopias drawing out the characteristics of groups and places that are part of a new society It links today s utopian experiments to historical and literary utopias and to theoretical problems in utopian thought

Modernity and Nostalgia Romy Golan,1995-01-01 Golan argues that reactionary issues such as anti urbanism the return to the soil regionalism corporatism xenophobia and doubts about the new technology became central to cultural and art historical discourse Focusing on the overlap of avant garde and middle of the road production she investigates the import of these issues not only in painting sculpture and architecture concentrating on the work of Leger Picasso Le Corbusier Ozenfant Derain the Surrealists and the so called naifs but also in the decorative arts in the spectacle of world and colonial fairs and in literature Throughout she finds evidence that artists turned from the aesthetics of the machine age toward a more organic naturalistic art This leads her to ask whether the famous and momentous shift of the avant garde from Paris to New York in 1939 did not in fact begin two decades earlier in 1918 Modern Architecture: A Critical History (Fifth) (World of Art) Kenneth Frampton,2020-09-08 An extensively revised and updated edition of a bestselling classic on modern architecture and its origins by Kenneth Frampton Kenneth Frampton s highly acclaimed survey of modern architecture and its origins has been a classic since it first appeared in 1980 Starting with the cultural developments since 1750 that drove the modern movement moving through the creation of modern architecture and exploring the effects of globalization and the phenomenon of international celebrity architects this book is the definitive history of modern architecture For this extensively revised and updated fifth edition of Modern Architecture Frampton added new chapters exploring the ongoing modernist tradition in architecture while also examining the varied responses to the urgent need to build more sustainably and create structures that will withstand changing climates This new edition features completely redesigned interiors and an updated and expanded bibliography making this volume more indispensable than ever Cubism and Reality Christopher Green,2025-08-21 What was Cubism How did this strange new way of making paintings and sculptures enable artists so decisively to change the trajectory of Modern Art In responding to these questions distinguished art historian Christopher Green presents a bold new interpretation of the movement and three of its key protagonists Stemming from a critical re evaluation of the author s own first responses to Cubist artworks as a student of the late artist and critic John Golding

Cubism and Reality challenges the commonly held view of Cubism as either a retreat from reality into abstraction or an invitation to convert the real into the surreal arguing instead that Georges Braque Pablo Picasso and Juan Gris wanted above all to find ways of intensifying and expanding painting's capacity to give viewers more not less of their lived experience of the world Lavishly illustrated and filled with rich new insights and approaches to the artwork that are the product of decades worth of research Green argues that for the three artists reality was not objectively always there but was created by their own perceptions and could be transformed by their imaginations The artwork becomes not merely a dead material fact but somewhere into which wishes lived experiences and memories can enter ours over a century later as well as theirs Green explores how Cubist artworks ask us to reflect in far reaching ways on visual art's relationship to everyday visual experience and questions how it is that we still believe that drawings paintings and sculptures can represent the world as we see and know it In doing so Cubism and Reality tackles a fundamental issue that has preoccupied artists critics and art enthusiasts for over a century well into our present age the survival of hand made representational artworks in the epoch of photography film and latterly digital reproduction

Visions of the Human Tom Slevin, 2015-05-28 In what ways do the artistic avant garde's representations of the human body reflect the catastrophe of World War I The European modernists were inspired by developments in the nineteenth century yielding new forms of knowledge about the nature of reality and repositioning the human body as the new object of knowledge New visions of the human subject were created within this transformation However modernity's reactionary political climate for which World War I provided a catalyst transformed a once liberal ideal between humanity environment and technology into a tool of disciplinary rationalisation Visions of the Human considers the consequences of this historical moment for the twentieth and twenty first centuries It explores the ways in which the technologies of the self that inspired the avant garde were increasingly instrumentalised by conservative politics urbanism consumer capitalism and the society of the spectacle This is an engaging and powerful study which challenges prior ideas and explores new ways of thinking about modern visual culture

Léger Yvonne Brunhammer, 2005 This book was written by both a personal friend of Leger and the former chief curator of the Musée des arts décoratifs in Paris therefore providing a fascinating insight into the work of Leger
