Legorreta + Legorreta Legorreta + Legorreta, Ricardo Legorreta Vilchis, Víctor Legorreta, 2004 New buildings projects 1997 2003 Jacket The New Architecture of Mexico John V. Mutlow, 2005 This book explores the modern architecture the modern architecture of Mexico with an emphasis from the early 1980s to the present day It is particularly appropriate now given a renewed interest in the recent modern architecture of Mexico and as the w Concise Encyclopedia of Mexico Michael Werner, 2015-05-11 Concise Encyclopedia of Mexico includes approximately 250 articles on the people and topics most relevant to students seeking information about Mexico Although the Concise version is a unique single volume source of information on the entire sweep of Mexican history pre colonial colonial and moderns it will emphasize events that affecting Mexico today event students most need to understand Linking Architecture and Education Anne Taylor, 2009-05-16 For the past forty years Anne Taylor has studied how schools classrooms playgrounds homes museums and parks affect children and how they learn As a result she has developed a holistic sustainable philosophy of learning environment design She argues persuasively that architects must integrate their design knowledge with an understanding of the developmental needs of learners while at the same time educators parents and students must broaden their awareness of the built natural and cultural environment to maximize the learning experience In other words schools and other environments can themselves become three dimensional textbooks When architects are cognizant of newer models of education and educators view the environment as more than a box in which to teach prescribed lessons the result is an informed architecture that enables children to discover the power of their own learning The book presents numerous examples of dynamic designs that are the result of interdisciplinary understanding of place Taylor includes designer perspectives forums derived from commentary by outside contributors involved in school planning and a wealth of photographs of thoughtful and effective solutions to create learning environments from comprehensive design criteria Because the concept of school is enlarged to a community campus the book also spawns a new model of teaching and learning This book is essential reading for educators architects and community members who are anxious to transform education in America and elsewhere Anne Taylor is the most outstanding educator leading proponent and practitioner in the three dimensional textbook field Her work is the finest resource available for connecting students young and old to their learning environments and visa versa Edward E Kirkbride NCARB REFP Before Western man divided the universe into discrete subject matter areas the order in the universe was and still is both interdisciplinary and holistic The branching of trees spiraling of shells meandering of streams and the radial designs of flowers for example represent an analogy of mathematics biology and art The current artificial separation of subject matter is in contrast to the way the world is constructed and the way children perceive it Architecture and the study of the built natural and cultural environment synthesize the world of material things and the world of ideas Further more it helps us to realize that we are a part of not

apart from the environment This book is a tool and a gift to designers educators and students everywhere to assist them in seeing the meaning behind all that we view and use for living on earth To know our precious relationship to our surroundings is the intent of this book In this way life is a work of art and each of us is an artist Anne Taylor

Modern Architecture in Mexico City Kathryn E. O'Rourke, 2017-02-10 Mexico City became one of the centers of architectural modernism in the Americas in the first half of the twentieth century Invigorated by insights drawn from the first published histories of Mexican colonial architecture which suggested that Mexico possessed a distinctive architecture and culture beginning in the 1920s a new generation of architects created profoundly visual modern buildings intended to convey Mexico's unique cultural character By midcentury these architects and their students had rewritten the country's architectural history and transformed the capital into a metropolis where new buildings that evoked pre-conquest colonial and International Style architecture coexisted Through an exploration of schools a university campus a government ministry a workers park and houses for Diego Rivera and Luis Barragan Kathryn O'Rourke offers a new interpretation of modern architecture in the Mexican capital showing close links between design evolving understandings of national architectural history folk art and social reform This book demonstrates why creating a distinctively Mexican architecture captivated architects whose work was formally dissimilar and how that concern became central to the profession UAE and the Gulf George Katodrytis, Kevin Mitchell, 2015-03-30 At the end of the 20th century Dubai attracted international media attention as the world sought to make sense of the city's extraordinary growth Exuberant projects such as the Burj Arab the Burj Khalifa and the Palm Islands attracted investment in dreams to transform the region While the global financial crisis kept dreams from becoming reality this issue of AD seeks to present a view of architecture and urbanism in the United Arab Emirates UAE and other states in the wider Gulf Cooperation Council GCC at a time when greater economic stability promises new beginnings The issue presents examples of architecture that transcends preoccupation with fabricating images and traces the process of making contemporary Gulf cities from material tectonics to large scale masterplans By presenting the architecture of UAE and the Gulf within the context of broader regional developments and global trends it highlights how projects in the UAE Qatar Kuwait and Saudi Arabia have contributed to unprecedented urban growth while emphasising the continuing environmental challenges of building in the region In addition to highlighting various sustainable initiatives intended to counteract these challenges the issue also explores how computational design and new technologies are being innovatively employed to mitigate the impact of arid climates Contributors include Ameena Ahmadi Kelly Hutzell Varkki Pallathucheril Todd Reisz Rami el Samahy Terri Meyer Boake Jeffrey Willis International architects Foster Partners Frank Gehry HOK IM Pei Legoretta Legoretta Jean Nouvelle Reiser Umemoto Allies and Morrison Regional architects AGi Kuwait DXB lab UAE X Architects UAE
