Expanding Our Vision David Mendelsohn, 1998-11 We need to expand our vision The information explosion has forced us to continually narrow our focus in order to handle the enormous amount of material being published every year in our own field This in turn has unwittingly tunneled our vision resulting in us missing out on a wealth of wonderful ideas and materials found in the literature of other disciplines Expanding Our Vision is intended to open a window onto a wealth of wonderful ideas and material that are extremely pertinent to us but are only available in the literature of other disciplines The intent of this book is to expand the vision of teachers who read it It is not intended as a methods book with recipes for the classroom for Monday morning nor is it a teacher training book but rather a teacher education book The contributors to this volume are all inspirational teachers researchers and speakers highly regarded in the TESOL profession and well known all over the world
