Experiment Perilous:

Jacques Tourneur Chris Fujiwara, 2015-05-07 At least three of director Jacques Tourneur's films Cat People, I Walked with a Zombie and The Leopard Man are recognized as horror classics Yet his contributions to these films are often minimized by scholars with most of the credit going to the films producer Val Lewton A detailed examination of the director's full body of work reveals that those elements most evident in the Tourneur-Lewton collaborations the lack of monsters and the stylized use of suggested violence are equally apparent in Tourneur's films before and after his work with Lewton Mystery and sensuality were hallmarks of his style and he possessed a highly artistic visual and aural style This insightful critical study examines each of Tourneur's films as well as his extensive work on MGM shorts 1936-1942 and in television What emerges is evidence of a highly coherent directorial style that runs throughout Tourneur's works Hedy Lamarr Ruth

Barton, 2010-08-13 This true story of a Hollywood sex symbol's tumultuous life is a real page-turner Now here is a book that would make a great movie London Daily Mail Hedy Lamarr's life was punctuated by salacious rumors and public scandal but it was her stunning looks and classic Hollywood glamour that continuously captivated audiences Born Hedwig Kiesler she escaped an unhappy marriage with arms dealer Fritz Mandl in Austria to try her luck in Hollywood where her striking appearance made her a screen legend Her notorious nude role in the erotic Czech film Ecstasy as well as her work with Cecil B DeMille Samson and Delilah Walter Wanger Algiers and studio executive Louis B Mayer catapulted her alluring and provocative reputation as a high profile sex symbol In this biography Ruth Barton explores the many facets of the screen legend including her life as an inventor Working with avant garde composer and film scorer George Antheil Lamarr helped to develop and patent spread spectrum technology which is still used in mobile phone communication However despite her screen persona and scientific success Lamarr's personal life included a string of failed marriages a lawsuit against her publisher regarding her sensational autobiography and shoplifting charges that made her infamous beyond her celebrity Drawing on extensive research into both the recorded truths of Lamarr's life and the rumors that made her notorious Barton recognizes Lamarr's contributions to both film and technology while revealing the controversial and conflicted woman underneath In the Field Renee C. Fox, 2017-07-05 In the Field by Renee C Fox is a narrative account of the author's life as a sociologist It is not a memoir in the conventional sense rather it is an ethnographic autobiography Drawing on a vast reservoir of notes and documents that chronicle the span of her career this work also focuses on the places Fox's field research has carried her Propelled by a conviction to move beyond the boundaries of herself and of her native land Fox has done first hand research in Europe Central Africa and China as well as in the United States The majority of her research has centered on health illness and medicine Other recurrent themes that pervade her work include training for uncertainty the allocation of scarce resources the relationship between self and others detachment and concern the particular and the universal the harm that can result from intended good and the questions posed by illness and accident pain and suffering and death It is Fox's commitment as a teacher and mentor of generations of students that lies at the heart of this book This volume will inspire new generations of social researchers Breaking the Glass Armor Kristin Thompson, 2020-05-05

Classical works have for us become covered with the glassy armor of familiarity wrote Victor Shklovsky in 1914 Here Kristin Thompson defamiliarizes the reader with eleven different films Developing the technique formulated in her Eisenstein's Ivan the Terrible Princeton 1981 she clearly demonstrates the flexibility of the neoformalist approach She argues that critics often use cut and dried methods and choose films that easily fit those methods Neoformalism on the other hand encourages the critic to deal with each film differently and to modify his or her analytical assumptions continually Thompson's analyses are thus refreshingly varied and revealing ranging from an ordinary Hollywood film Terror by Night to such masterpieces as Late Spring and Lancelot du Lac She proposes a formal historical way of dealing with realism using Bicycle Thieves and The Rules of the Game as examples Stage Fright and Laura provide cases in which the classical cinema defamiliarizes its own conventions by playing with audience expectations Other chapters deal with Tati's Les Vacances de Monsieur Hulot and Play Time and Godard's Tout va bien and Sauve qui peut la vie Although neoformalist analysis is a rigorous distinctive approach it avoids extensive specialized vocabulary and esoteric concepts the essays here can be read separately by those interested in the individual films The book's overall purpose however goes beyond making these particular films more accessible and intriguing to propose new ways of looking at cinema as a whole Society and Medicine Judith P. Swazey, 2017-12-02

The essays in this volume pay tribute to the achievements of Renee C Fox in the fields of medicine and sociology Many of the contributors are Fox's colleagues and former students from medicine sociology nursing and bioethics The title Society and Medicine reflects the leitmotif in Fox's work her studies of and teaching about the nature of medicine and medical research the training and work of their practitioners the interrelationships between medicine and the societies and cultures of which it is a part and above all the moral and spiritual dimensions of the healing arts Essays in Medical Sociology Renée Claire Fox, This outstanding collection of essays by Renee C Fox encompasses almost thirty years of original pioneering research in the sociology of medicine Based on fieldwork in a variety of medical settings in the United States Belgium and Zaire these ethnographic essays examine chronic and terminal illness medical research therapeutic innovation medical education and socialization and bio ethics Within this framework three empirical cases have been singled out for special scrutiny the process of becoming a physician the development of the artificial kidney machine and organ transplantation and the evolution of medical research in Belgium Without ignoring social structural or psychodynamic factors Dr Fox has explored basic cultural phenomena and questions associated with health illness and medicine values beliefs symbols rites and the nuances of language ethical and existential dilemmas and dualities and the complex interrelationships between medicine science religion and magic She draws systematically and imaginatively upon anthropological psychological historical and biological insights and integrates observations and analyses from her own studies in American Western European and

Central African societies This second augmented edition includes Professor Fox's more recent contributions to the expanding field of the sociology of medicine They are The Evolution of Medical Uncertainty The Human Condition of Health Professionals Reflections on the Utah Artificial Heart Program Is Religion Important in Belgium Medical Morality is Not Bioethics Medical Ethics in China and the United States and Medicine Science and Technology The work also includes a new introduction Endings Beginnings and Continuities Now anthropologists sociologists medical educators scientists researchers and students can join her on her journeys into the field and share with her the priceless insights to be gained from the physicians nurses medical students patients and their families who are working living and dying on the edge of what is known scrutable and remediable on the edge of medical science Glamour and Style Stephen Michael

Shearer, 2022-03-01 She was called the most beautiful girl in the world and during Hollywood's Golden Age of the 1930s and 1940s she set standards of beauty and sophistication copied through out the world during the three decades of her film career When she made her American cinema debut opposite Charles Boyer in Walter Wanger's moody 1938 romance drama Algiers her character's first appearance in that film literally took audiences' breaths away Her exotic beauty was heralded in picture after picture Glamour and Style is a photographic tribute to this extraordinary woman Focusing on her spectacular beauty it contains hundreds of photographs many never before published and gowns by designers from Adrian and Robert Kalloch to Elois Jenssen and Edith Head It features running commentary by biographer Stephen Michael Shearer author of the definitive book on the star Beautiful The Life of Hedy Lamarr This book gives film fans and avid readers an ample opportunity to view and understand this most remarkable beautiful woman and introduces her work and glamour to a new generation of filmgoers Experimentation with Human Beings Jay Katz, Alexander Morgan Capron, Eleanor Swift

Glass, 1972-07-24 In recent years increasing concern has been voiced about the nature and extent of human experimentation and its impact on the investigator subject science and society This casebook represents the first attempt to provide comprehensive materials for studying the human experimentation process Through case studies from medicine biology psychology sociology and law as well as evaluative materials from many other disciplines Dr Katz examines the problems raised by human experimentation from the vantage points of each of its major participants investigator subject professions and state He analyzes what kinds of authority should be delegated to these participants in the formulation administration and review of the human experimentation process Alternative proposals from allowing investigators a completely free hand to imposing centralized governmental control are examined from both theoretical and practical perspectives The conceptual framework of Experimentation with Human Beings is designed to facilitate not only the analysis of such concepts as harm benefit and informed consent but also the exploration of the problems raised by man's quest for knowledge and mastery his willingness to risk human life and his readiness to delegate authority to professionals and rely on their judgment The Human Radiation Experiments Advisory Committee on Human Radiation Experiments, 1996-06-06 This book describes in fascinating detail the variety of experiments sponsored by the U S government in which human subjects were exposed to radiation often without their knowledge or consent Based on a review of hundreds of thousands of heretofore unavailable or classified documents this Report tells a gripping story of the intricate relationship between science and the state Under the thick veil of government secrecy researchers conducted experiments that ranged from the mundane to such egregious violations as administering radioactive tracers to mentally retarded teenagers injecting plutonium into hospital patients and intentionally releasing radiation into the environment This volume concludes with a discussion of the Committee s key findings and guidelines for changes in institutional review boards ethics rules and policies and balancing national security interests with individual rights Ethicists public health professionals and those interested in the history of medicine and Cold War history will be intrigued by the findings of this landmark report
