Britain and Oman, c. 1945-1980 Tancred Bradshaw,2025-06-20 This book examines the relationship between Britain and Oman since the end of the Second World War up until the Iranian revolution Particular focus is given to the political and economic development of the state together with Britain's various overt and covert interventions principally in the three decades between 1945 and 1975 The author addresses themes which have previously been unexplored in the literature on Oman and British Imperialism in the Arabian Peninsula such as the establishment of the Sultan's Armed Forces and the impact of the oil industry The book shows that Sultan Said bin Taymur r 1932 1970 enjoyed considerable agency in his relations with the British who found it very difficult to persuade him to implement economic development and establish relations with his neighbours Britain's relations with successive sultans were deliberately concealed including the contribution of special forces in fighting Oman's insurgencies It is widely argued that when Qaboos bin Said became Sultan in 1970 a renaissance occurred however many newly discovered documents have called this into question They reveal how an inexperienced Sultan came to power with covert British support and Whitehall's direction of the war in Dhofar from afar These documents highlight the extent of British intelligence cooperation and psychological warfare planning to counter the insurgents in Dhofar However as this book demonstrates the Sultan also relied on non British advisors known as the mafia to secure financial assistance and establish diplomatic ties across the Middle East Finally the book details how British defence assistance continued well beyond the retreat from empire in the Persian Gulf

Fascist Italy and the League of Nations, 1922-1935 Elisabetta Tollardo,2016-10-27 This book analyses the relationship between Fascist Italy and the League of Nations in the interwar years By uncovering the traces of those Italians working in the organization this volume investigates Fascist Italy's membership of the League and explores the dynamics between nationalism and internationalism in Geneva The relationship between Fascist Italy and the League of Nations was contradictory shifting from active collaboration to open disagreement

Previous literature has not reflected this oscillation in policy focusing disproportionately on the problems Italy caused for the League such as the Ethiopian crisis Yet Fascist Italy remained in the League for more than fifteen years and was the third largest power within the institution How did a Fascist dictatorship fit into an organization espousing principles of liberal internationalism By using archival sources from four countries Elisabetta Tollardo shows that Fascist Italy was much more concerned with and involved in the League than currently believed The History Of Game Theory, Volume 1 Mary-Ann Dimand, Robert W Dimand, 1996-08-08 Game Theory the formal modelling of conflict and cooperation first emerged as a recognized field with a publication of John von Neumann and Oskar Morgenstern's Theory of Games and Economic Behaviour in 1944 Since then game theoretic thinking about choice of strategies and the interdependence of people's actions has influenced all the social s A Cultural History of Dress and Fashion in the Age of Enlightenment Peter

McNeil, 2018-11-01 Eighteenth century fashion was cosmopolitan and varied Whilst the wildly extravagant and colorful elite fashions parodied in contemporary satire had significant influence on wider dress habits more austere garments produced in darker fabrics also reflected the ascendancy of a puritan middle class as well as a more practical approach to dress With the rise of print culture and reading publics fashions were more quickly disseminated and debated than ever and the appetite for fashion periodicals went hand in hand with a preoccupation with the emerging concept of taste Richly illustrated with 100 images and drawing on pictorial textual and object sources A Cultural History of Dress and Fashion in the Age of Enlightenment presents essays on textiles production and distribution the body belief gender and sexuality status ethnicity and visual and literary representations to illustrate the diversity and cultural significance of dress and fashion in the period

Strategy and War Planning in the British Navy, 1887-1918 Shawn T. Grimes, 2012 Overturns existing thinking to show that the Royal Navy engaged professionally in war planning in the years before the First World War Pilgrims Society and Public Diplomacy, 1895-1945 Stephen Bowman, 2018-02-01 Drawing on rich archival research this book explores how the elite network of the Pilgrims Society whose members included J P Morgan and Andrew Carnegie attempted to influence the Anglo American relationship in the days before it became special Mothers, Criminal Insanity and the Asylum in Victorian England Alison C. Pedley, 2023-07-13 Tracing the experiences of women who were designated insane by judicial processes from 1850 to 1900 this book considers the ideas and purposes of incarceration in three dedicated facilities Bethlem Fisherton House and Broadmoor The majority of these patients had murdered or attempted to murder their own children but were not necessarily condemned as incurably evil by medical and legal authorities nor by general society Alison C Pedley explores how insanity gave the Victorians an acceptable explanation for these dreadful crimes and as a result how admission to a dedicated asylum was viewed as the safest and most human solution for the madwomen as well as for society as a whole Mothers Criminal Insanity and the Asylum in Victorian England considers the experiences treatments and regimes women underwent in an attempt to redeem and rehabilitate them and return them to into a patriarchal society It shows how society's views of the institutions and insanity were not necessarily negative or coloured by fear and revulsion and highlights the changes in attitudes to female criminal lunacy in the second half of the 19th century Through extensive and detailed research into the three asylums archives and in legal governmental press and genealogical records this book sheds new light on the views of the patients themselves and contributes to the historiography of Victorian criminal lunatic asylums conceptualising them as places of recovery rehabilitation and restitution

The American Indian Mind in a Linear World Donald Fixico, 2013-07-04 Currently there are three approaches to studying American Indians from how white Americans approach Indian studies from the dynamics or exchange of Indian white relations and from the Indian point of view Donald Fixico an American Indian has been teaching and writing history for a quarter of a century This book is the direct result of his experience as a scholar who thinks like an Indian in an academic environment created predominantly by non Indian thinkers This book addresses current approaches to studying Native American traditional knowledge and acknowledges an Indian intellectualism that has up until now been ignored in studying Native American history Written primarily from inside the Native world but fully cognizant of the American cultures outside of that world his unique voice speaks to a need for understanding the interior Native world a world in which linear thinking is atypical and circularity is preferable

France, Britain and the United States in the Twentieth Century: Volume 2, 1940-1961 Andrew J. Williams, 2019-12-31 In his account of the relationship between France the UK and the US Andrew Williams successfully intertwines diplomatic history with international thought We are presented with a historical stage that includes both the doers and the thinkers of the age and as a result this is a must read for both diplomatic historians and historians of international thought The second in a multivolume study this volume takes the story beyond the fall of France into the war years the period of post war reconstruction and the Cold War As with the first volume Williams is an excellent guide stepping over the ruins of past worlds and introducing us to an epoch with more than its fair share of both visionaries and villains Yet in this second volume the stakes are higher as the United States comes to terms with its role as the paramount world power Britain faces a world that challenges its imperial order and France is picking up the pieces from its defeat Lucian Ashworth Memorial University Canada Following on from his outstanding first volume reviewing the complex interwar relationships between France Britain and the United States Williams second volume is an indispensable and lucid overview of the vitally important era of post war reconstruction From national post war developments to institutional structures and superpower shifts Williams examines clearly and engagingly the final passing of pre modern power structures and the emergence of a new Europe Amelia Hadfield University of Surrey UK At a time of intense debates about Europe the Anglosphere and empires old and new Andrew Williams's book is a timely demonstration that the weight of emotion in the shaping of foreign policy and its makers should not be forgotten Unearthing some of the forces profondes in diplomacy and reflecting on feelings of humiliation and liberation in national constructs Andrew Williams discusses the cultural conceptions and misconceptions that French American and British diplomats had of each other thereby revisiting the reasons why the special relationship was largely a myth but one which had tangible consequences on French and British policies in their retreat from empire By connecting the personal and the national the structural and accidental Williams offers essential insights into the major conflicts of the period and their impact on diplomatic cultures across the Atlantic M lanie Torrent Universit Picardie Jules Verne Amiens France The second volume of this study of France s unique contribution to the international relations of the last century covers the period from the Fall of France in 1940 to Charles de Gaulle s triumphant return to power in the late 1950s France had gone from being a victorious member of the coalition with Britain and the United States that won the First World War to a defeated nation in a few short weeks France then experienced the humiliation of collaboration with and occupation by the enemy followed by resistance and liberation and a slow return to global influence over the next twenty years This volume examines how these processes played out by concentrating on France s relations with Britain and the United States most importantly over questions of post war order the integration of Europe and the withdrawal from Empire

The International Tin Cartel John Hillman,2010-02-25 This book brings together two areas of inquiry the history of tin and its role in producing countries and the history of cartelization as a solution to the inherent difficulties of primary commodity markets     Bibliographical History of Electricity & Magnetism Paul Fleury Mottelay,1922     Howard's Long March Roy Campbell McDowall,2009-03-01 Australia s strategic depiction of China has assumed increased importance as it attempts to harmonise economic interests focusing on China with security interests primarily the United States In this period of strategic transition how Australia incorporates the rise of China into its existing security commitment under ANZUS has become a delicate issue This investigation follows the intriguing evolution of the Howard Government s depictions of China and reveals a complex and calculated strategy that successfully transformed a potentially volatile conflict of interests into a functional foreign policy     The Austro-Hungarian Army and the First World War Graydon A. Tunstall,2021-09-30 Definitive new history of the Austro Hungarian Royal and Imperial Army during the First World War     The Church of England and the Second World War John D. Alexander,2025-08-28 In The Church of England and the Second World War John D Alexander analyses how historic Christian ethical traditions influenced the Church of England s contributions to British pre war and wartime public policy debates These traditions include just war holy war pacifism and Christian realism as deployed by such diverse Anglican figures as Cosmo Gordon Lang William Temple Herbert Hensley Henson George Bell Cyril Forster Garbett Charles Raven Percy Hartill Evelyn Underhill Vera Brittain and James Parkes Additional themes include war as divine judgement humanitarian intervention and Church of England responses to the Holocaust As a case study in the application of Christian ethical traditions this book makes vital connections between Anglican studies international relations theory and the diplomatic military and humanitarian challenges of the mid twentieth century     Subject Index of Modern Books Acquired British Library,1911     Subject Index of the Modern Works Added to the Library of the British Museum in
