International Agencies The Emerging Framework Of Interdependence:

International Agencies Evan Luard, 1977 A Handbook of International Economic Institutions M. A. G. van Meerhaeghe, 2012-12-06 What made me write this book was a feeling that students of international economics needed to find out their knowledge of the theory with work on the practice of the major international economic organizations many of which are having a growing influence on the national economies of their members There was no single volume given over to a concise treatment of these organizations of the international organizations themselves can be seen The annual reports suited of course but as a rule these are not noted for being brief and to the point the items of importance have to be fished out of a sea of useless detail nor do they go in for criticism of their own activities In selecting the organizations to be dealt with in the book I was guided by the influence they exert I have left out those whose activities consist mainly in the drafting recommendations to which however meritorious they may be little or no attention is paid Some of them are included in the Introduction which provides a summary of a number of institutions not discussed separately in the body of the work There are however two exceptions the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development OECD as the organization replacing the Organization for European Economic Cooperation OEEC and the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development UNCTAD whose meetings have succeeded in drawing much attention of the press International Economic Institutions M.A. van Meerhaeghe, 2012-12-06 The text has again been brought up to date and extensively revised especially the EC chapter The chapter on the OECD has been transferred to Part One The brought up to date chapter on the CMEA has been maintained but at the time of writing its abolition was still not decided A new treaty on central and eastern European cooperation was not yet approved My thanks are due to the persons listed below who were kind enough to comment on the draft of certain chapters of part of chapters my former students Mr Marc Quintyn of the International Monetary Fund and Luc Everaert of the World Bank who in addition prepared information needed to bring the chapters concerned up to date Dr Horst Bockelmann economic adviser of the Bank for International Settlements Mr J Schotte of the Benelux secretariat Mr Lars Erik P Nordgaard of the EFTA Brussels Office Of course this does not necessarily imply that they share the conclusions of the chapters involved Numerous international and national civil servants and libraries kindly answered my questions I want to thank especially Mr Jozef van den Broeck head Information Office Belgium of the Social Commission of the European Communities and Mr A Carchon conseiller d'Ambassade Belgium and the library of the Belgian central bank I am very grateful to my wife who has helped me at every stage of the preparation of this edition She also undertook the compilation of the list of articles and the indexes M A G v M The United Nations:

Accountability

Across Borders Xóchitl Bada, Shannon Gleeson, 2019-06-17 Collecting the diverse perspectives of scholars labor organizers and human rights advocates Accountability across Borders is the first edited collection that connects studies of immigrant integration in host countries to accounts of transnational migrant advocacy efforts including case studies from the United States Canada and Mexico Covering the role of federal state and local governments in both countries of origin and destinations as well as nongovernmental organizations NGOs these essays range from reflections on labor solidarity among members of the United Food and Commercial Workers in Toronto to explorations of indigenous students from the Maya diaspora living in San Francisco Case studies in Mexico also discuss the enforcement of the citizenship rights of Mexican American children and the struggle to affirm the human rights of Central American migrants in transit As policies regarding immigration citizenship and enforcement are reaching a flashpoint in North America this volume provides key insights into the new dynamics of migrant civil society as well as the scope and limitations of directives from governmental agencies A Changing United Nations W. Knight, 2000-10-19 The United Nations is at a critical juncture It is faced with two distinct choices to remain a decision frozen in time or to develop a long term adaptation agenda and strategy that would allow it to be a relevant institution of global governance for the twenty first century Reform and reflexive institutional adjustments have failed to address underlying problems facing this organization After fifty five years of existence it is still considered an inefficient and ineffective world body Worse yet its relevance is being questioned This study offers a critique of existing UN change processes and then shifts focus to considerations of institutional learning strategies that would allow the UN to maintain relevance amidst the evolution of global governance arrangements Driving Europe Frank Schipper, 2008 Today we can hardly imagine life in Europe without roads and the automobiles that move people and goods around In fact the vast majority of movement in Europe takes place on the road Travelers use the car to explore parts of the continent on their holidays and goods travel large distances to reach consumers Indeed the twentieth century has deservedly been characterized as the century of the car The situation looked very different around 1900 People crossing national borders by car encountered multiple hurdles on their way Technically they imported their vehicle into a neighboring country and had to pay astronomical import duties Often they needed to pass a driving test in each country they visited Early on automobile and touring clubs sought to make life easier for traveling motorists International negotiations tackled the problems arising from differing regulations The resulting volume describes everything from the standardized traffic signs that saved human lives on the road to the European bus taking tourists from Stockholm to Rome in the 1950s Driving Europe offers a highly original portrait of a Europe built on roads in the course of the twentieth century List of Documents and Publications in the Field of Mass Communication Unesco, 1977 Global Community Akira Iriye, 2002 How did the global community both as an idea and as a reality originate and develop over time This text examines this concept by looking at the emergence growth and activities of international organizations from the 19th century to the 21st Akira Iriye one of this country's most preeminent historians proposes a significant rereading of the history of the past fifty years suggesting that the central influence on the international scene in this period was not the Cold War but rather a deepening web of international interactions The first systematic study of international organizations by a historian Global Community moves beyond the usual framework for studying international relations politics war diplomacy and other interstate affairs as it traces the crucial role played by international organizations in determining the shape of the world today
