Metal Music and the Re-imagining of Masculinity, Place, Race and Nation Karl Spracklen,2020-05-11 Metal is a form of popular music Popular music is a form of leisure In the modern age popular music has become part of popular culture a heavily contested collection of practices and industries that construct place belonging and power

New Imagined Community Uriya Shavit,2009-09-22 Advanced media technologies have transformed immigrants relations with their departure and arrival societies This title explores how Muslim Arab religious scholars have developed over the years a theory that tasks Muslims living in the West with specific duties within the framework of their anticipated global Muslim nation

Imagining Home Sidney J. Lemelle,Robin D.G. Kelley,1994-12-17 This collection of original essays brilliantly interrogates the often ambivalent place of Africa in the imaginations cultures and politics of its New World descendants Combining literary analysis history biography cultural studies critical theory and politics Imagining Home offers a fresh and creative approach to the history of Pan Africanism and diasporic movements A critical part of the book s overall project is an examination of the legal educational and political institutions and structures of domination over Africa and the African diaspora Class and gender are placed at center stage alongside race in the exploration of how the discourses and practices of Pan Africanism have been shaped Other issues raised include the myriad ways in which grassroots religious and cultural movements informed Pan Africanist political organizations the role of African African American and Caribbean intellectuals in the formation of Pan African thought including W E B DuBois C L R James and Adelaide Casely Hayford the historical ideological and institutional connections between African Americans and South Africans and the problems and prospects of Pan Africanism as an emancipatory strategy for black people throughout the Atlantic

The Crisis from Within: Historians, Theory, and the Humanities Nigel Raab,2015-05-19 In The Crisis from Within Nigel Raab explores weaknesses that emerge when using interdisciplinary theories in historical analysis With chapters that focus on knowledge language memory imagining and inventing and civil society the analysis reveals how theoretical applications can be the source of interpretive confusion By drawing from a global range of historical works Nigel Raab demonstrates how this problem concerns all historical sub fields From science in the seventeenth century to communism in the twentieth century theories often overdetermine analysis in a way the historian never intended After the enthusiastic reception of theory for over a generation The Crisis from Within argues that the time has come to pause and think seriously about how we wish to proceed with theory

Imagining Holiness Justin Jaron Lewis,2009 Hasidic tales are often read as charming timeless expressions of Jewish spirituality The best known versions of these stories however have been rewritten for audiences outside traditional Judaism and few works have explored Hasidic tales as they were created by Hasidic Jews In Imagining Holiness Justin Lewis offers a radical reappraisal of how we think of Hasidic tales calling into question received notions of authenticity He focuses his study on the neglected Hasidic literature of the early twentieth century primarily the work of Israel Berger and Abraham Hayim Michelson and the literary and historical dynamics of its emergence posing questions about its place in Hasidic society the attitude of the Hasidim towards this literature and orality in Hasidic tradition as manifested in these Hasidic books Berger and Michelson wrote in the decade before the First World War a time of loss and decline for Hasidism Their books resisted modernity and positioned Hasidism as authentic Judaism but also reflected modern literary trends expressed tensions within Hasidism itself and depicted struggles between the soul and body Imagining Holiness will help readers understand the inner motivations of this religious culture at an important moment in its history Book Jacket

The Invention of Ancient Israel Keith W. Whitelam, 2013-11-19 The Invention of Ancient Israel shows how the true history of ancient Palestine has been obscured by the search for Israel Keith W Whitelam shows how ancient Israel has been invented by scholars in the image of a European nation state influenced by the realisation of the state of Israel in 1948 He explores the theological and political assumptions which have shaped research into ancient Israel by Biblical scholars and contributed to the vast network of scholarship which Said identified as Orientalist discourse This study concentrates on two crucial periods from the end of the late Bronze Age to the Iron Age a so called period of the emergence of ancient Israel and the rise of an Israelite state under David It explores the prospects for developing the study of Palestinian history as a subject in its own right divorced from the history of the Bible and argues that Biblical scholars through their traditional view of this area have contributed to dispossession both of a Palestinian land and a Palestinian past This controversial book is important reading for historians Biblical specialists social anthropologists and all those who are interested in the history of ancient Israel and Palestine

Chicana Power! Maylei Blackwell, 2011-08-01 The first book length study of women s involvement in the Chicano Movement of the late 1960s and 1970s Chicana Power tells the powerful story of the emergence of Chicana feminism within student and community based organizations throughout southern California and the Southwest As Chicanos engaged in widespread protest in their struggle for social justice civil rights and self determination women in el movimiento became increasingly militant about the gap between the rhetoric of equality and the organizational culture that suppressed women s leadership and subjected women to chauvinism discrimination and sexual harassment Based on rich oral histories and extensive archival research Maylei Blackwell analyzes the struggles over gender and sexuality within the Chicano Movement and illustrates how those struggles produced new forms of racial consciousness gender awareness and political identities Chicana Power provides a critical genealogy of pioneering Chicana activist and theorist Anna Nieto Gomez and the Hijas de Cuauhtemoc one of the first Latina feminist organizations who together with other Chicana activists forged an autonomous space for women s political participation and challenged the gendered confines of Chicano nationalism in the movement and in the formation of the field of Chicana studies She uncovers the multifaceted vision of liberation that continues to reverberate today as contemporary activists artists and intellectuals both grassroots and academic struggle for revise and rework the political legacy of Chicana feminism

Decolonisation,

Identity and Nation in Rhodesia, 1964-1979 David Kenrick, 2019-11-02 This book explores concepts of decolonisation identity and nation in the white settler society of Rhodesia now Zimbabwe between 1964 and 1979 It considers how white settlers used the past to make claims of authority in the present It investigates the white Rhodesian state's attempts to assert its independence from Britain and develop a Rhodesian national identity by changing Rhodesia's old colonial symbols and examines how the meaning of these national symbols changed over time Finally the book offers insights into the role of race in Rhodesian national identity showing how portrayals of a timeless black population were highly dependent upon circumstance and reflective of white settler anxieties Using a comparative approach the book shows parallels between Rhodesia and other settler societies as well as other post colonial nation states and even metropolises as themes and narratives of decolonisation travelled around the world
