fresh and accessible approach to stimulating student interest in the human experience Invitation to Anthropology

Luke E. Lassiter, 2009 Lassiter's accessible introduction to anthropology encourages students to evaluate its relevance in our increasingly complex world Part I focuses on the underlying assumptions and concepts that have driven anthropological theory and practice since its modern inception Part II explores cross cultural human issues showing how anthropological studies offer relevant insight into human beings and valuable models for thinking and acting Invitation to Anthropology is an ideal text for undergraduate students easily supplemented with case studies in anthropology Historical Developments and Theoretical Approaches in Sociology - Volume II Charles Crothers, 2010-11-30 Historical Developments and Theoretical Approaches in Sociology in two volumes is a component of Encyclopedia of Social Sciences and Humanities in the global Encyclopedia of Life Support Systems EOLSS which is an integrated compendium of twenty Encyclopedias Sociology is one of several social science disciplines and smaller bodies of knowledge which seeks to understand the patterns in social life There is a broad congruence between the objective configurations of social life and the components of the disciplines studying them the body of sociological knowledge is socially constructed and the pathways to its gaining of knowledge influenced by a variety of factors Moreover since social life is ever changing sociology often has to scramble to catch up with the changing social world This work is built up around four broad topics the first providing important shared contextual material and then followed by three broad levels of social analysis with each of these four parts containing a number of chapters with more specific and in depth information The theme essay provides a general introduction and overview of the theme as a whole In total the work holds 40 contributions written by a selection of many international renowned specialists from 12 countries It was important to obtain a wide range of viewpoints giving the ways in which social issues arise quite differently in a range of countries These two volumes are aimed at the following five major target audiences University and College Students Educators Professional Practitioners Research Personnel and Policy Analysts Managers and Decision Makers NGOs and GOs Penal Culture and Hyperincarceration Chris Cunneen, Eileen Baldry, David Brown, Mark

Brown, Melanie Schwartz, Alex Steel, 2016-05-13 What are the various forces influencing the role of the prison in late modern societies What changes have there been in penalty and use of the prison over the past 40 years that have led to the revalorization of the prison Using penal culture as a conceptual and theoretical vehicle and Australia as a case study this book analyses international developments in penalty and imprisonment Authored by some of Australia's leading penal theorists the book examines the historical and contemporary influences on the use of the prison with analyses of colonialism post colonialism race and what they term the penal colonial complex in the construction of imprisonment rates and on the development of the phenomenon of hyperincarceration The authors develop penal culture as an explanatory framework for continuity change and difference in prisons and the nature of contested penal expansionism The influence of transformative concepts such as risk management the therapeutic prison and preventative detention are explored as aspects of penal culture

Processes of normalization transmission and reproduction of penal culture are seen throughout the social realm Comparative contemporary and historical in its approach the book provides a new analysis of penalty in the 21st century Contesting Moralities Iliana Sarafian,2023-04-14 Roma identities have often been presented in literature as collectively constructed and in opposition to those who are not Roma Contesting Moralities challenges these preconceptions about Roma identification by disentangling the binaries between Roma and non Roma state and non state public and private It explores topics resonating in contemporary Romani studies that are in need of further exploration through individual perspectives including history activism kinship childhood and gender hierarchies The book paints a complex picture of inequality and how it is negotiated amid conflicting ambiguous and contradictory regimes of power and moral demands including those of state and kin

Culinary Linguistics Cornelia Gerhardt,Maximiliane Frobenius,Susanne Ley,2013-07-04 Language and food are universal to humankind Language accomplishes more than a pure exchange of information and food caters for more than mere subsistence Both represent crucial sites for socialization identity construction and the everyday fabrication and perception of the world as a meaningful orderly place This volume on Culinary Linguistics contains an introduction to the study of food and an extensive overview of the literature focusing on its role in interplay with language It is the only publication fathoming the field of food and food related studies from a linguistic perspective The research articles assembled here encompass a number of linguistic fields ranging from historical and ethnographic approaches to literary studies the teaching of English as a foreign language psycholinguistics and the study of computer mediated communication making this volume compulsory reading for anyone interested in genres of food discourse and the linguistic connection between food and culture Now Open Access as part of the Knowledge Unlatched 2017 Backlist Collection Living Beings Penelope Dransart,2020-06-03 Living Beings examines the vital characteristics of social interactions between living beings including humans other animals and trees Many discussions of such relationships highlight the exceptional qualities of the human members of the category insisting for instance on their religious beliefs or creativity In contrast the international case studies in this volume dissect views based on hierarchical oppositions between human and other living beings Although human practices may sometimes appear to exist in a realm beyond nature they are nevertheless subject to the pull of natural forces These forces may be brought into prominence through a consideration of the interactions between human beings and other inhabitants of the natural world The interplay in this book between social anthropologists philosophers and artists cuts across species divisions to examine the experiential dimensions of interspecies engagements In ethnographically and or historically contextualized chapters contributors examine the juxtaposition of human and other living beings in the light of themes such as wildlife safaris violence difference mimicry simulation spiritual renewal dress and language Handbook of New Religions and Cultural Production Carole Cusack,Alex Norman,2012-03-28 This volume fills a lacuna in the academic assessment of new religions by investigating their cultural products such as music architecture food et cetera Contributions explore the manifold ways in which new religions have contributed to humanity's creative output The Community of the Weak

Hans-Peter Geiser, 2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism the social the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story na ,

Live Literature Ellen Wiles, 2021-05-21 This ground breaking book explores the phenomenal growth of live literature in the digitalizing 21st century Wiles asks why literary events appeal and matter to people and how they can transform the ways in which fiction is received and valued Readers are immersed in the experience of two contrasting events a major literary festival and an intimate LGBTQ salon Evocative scenes and observations are interwoven with sharp critical analysis and entertaining conversations with well known author performers reader audiences producers critics and booksellers Wiles's experiential literary ethnography represents an innovative and vital contribution not just to literary research but to research into the value of cultural experience across art forms This book probes intersections between readers and audiences writers and performers texts and events bodies and memories and curation and reception It addresses key literary debates from cultural appropriation to diversity in publishing the effects of social media and the quest for authenticity It will engage a broad audience from academics and producers to writers and audiences What is Anthropology? Thomas Hylland

Eriksen, 2004-08-20 Leading anthropologist Thomas Hylland Eriksen shows how anthropology is a revolutionary way of thinking about the human world Perfect for students but also for those who have never encountered anthropology before this book explores the key issues in an exciting and innovative way Eriksen explains how to see the world from below and from within emphasising the importance of adopting an insider's perspective He reveals how seemingly enormous cultural differences actually conceal the deep unity of humanity Lucid and accessible What is Anthropology draws examples from current affairs as well as anthropological studies The first section presents the history of anthropology its unique research methods and some of its central concepts such as society culture and translation Eriksen shows how anthropology helps to shape contemporary thinking and why it is inherently radical In the second section he discusses core issues in greater detail Reciprocity or exchange or gift giving is shown to be the basis of every society Eriksen examines kinship in traditional societies and shows why it remains important in complex ones He argues nature is partly cultural and explores anthropological views on human nature as well as ecology He delves into cultural relativism and the problem of understanding others Finally he describes the paradoxes of identity ethnic national religious or postmodern as the case may be
