International Boundary Study, 1961 Revisiting Prussia's Wars against Napoleon Karen Hagemann, 2015-03-30 In 2013 Germany celebrated the bicentennial of the so called Wars of Liberation 1813 15 These wars were the culmination of the Prussian struggle against Napoleon between 1806 and 1815 which occupied a key position in German national historiography and memory Although these conflicts have been analyzed in thousands of books and articles much of the focus has been on the military campaigns and alliances Karen Hagemann argues that we cannot achieve a comprehensive understanding of these wars and their importance in collective memory without recognizing how the interaction of politics culture and gender influenced these historical events and continue to shape later recollections of them She thus explores the highly contested discourses and symbolic practices by which individuals and groups interpreted these wars and made political claims beginning with the period itself and ending with the centenary in 1913 Working Plan for the Reserved, Protected and Unclassed Forests of the Jhansi and Banda Districts United Provinces of Agra and Oudh, in the Bundelkhand Forest Division, Eastern Circle United Provinces of Agra and Oudh (India). Forest Department, 1911 Accounts and Papers of the House of Commons Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 1845 Parliamentary Papers Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 1845 From the Black Mountain to Waziristan H. C. Wylly, 2021-11-05 This is a historical account of the Khyber Pass area of Pakistan previously known as Waziristan and the home of the ethnic Pashtuns It was written in 1912 before the start of WWI therefore but this North Western frontier region has always been fiercely contested The Penny Cyclopaedia of The Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge (Great Britain), 1842 The Land beyond the Border Johannes Becke, 2021-05-01 Based on three case studies from the Middle East The Land beyond the Border advances an innovative theoretical framework for the study of state expansions and state contractions Johannes Becke argues that state expansion can be theorized according to four basic ideal types a form of patronage patronization the imposition of a satellite regime satellization the establishment of territorial exclaves exclavization or a full fledged takeover incorporation Becke discusses how both irredentist ideologies and political realities have shaped the dynamics of state expansion and state contraction in the recent history of each state By studying Israel comparatively with other Middle Eastern regimes this book forms part of an emerging research agenda seeking to bring the research fields of Israel Studies and Middle East Studies closer together Instead of treating Israel s rule over the occupied territories as an isolated case Becke offers students the chance to understand Israel s settlement project within the broader framework of postcolonial state formation
