New Perspectives in Language, Culture, and Personality William Cowan, Michael Foster, E.F.K. Koerner, 1986-01-01 On the occasion of the 100th anniversary of the birth of Edward Sapir 1884 1939 a conference was held in the Victoria

Memorial Museum Ottawa Canada where Sapir had his office for most of his time as Chief of the Anthropological Division of the Geographical Survey of Canada 1910 1925 This volume presents papers from that conference Both Sides of the Bullpen Robert S. McPherson, 2017-10-19 Between 1880 and 1940 Navajo and Ute families and westward trending Anglos met in the bullpens of southwestern trading posts to barter for material goods As the products of the livestock economy of Navajo culture were exchanged for the merchandise of an industrialized nation a wealth of cultural knowledge also changed hands In Both Sides of the Bullpen Robert S McPherson reveals the ways that Navajo tradition fundamentally reshaped and defined trading practices in the Four Corners area of southeastern Utah and southwestern Colorado Drawing on oral histories of Native peoples and traders collected over thirty years of research McPherson explores these interactions from both perspectives as wool blankets and silver crossed the counter in exchange for flour coffee and hardware To succeed traders had to meet the needs and expectations of their customers often interpreted through Navajo cultural standards From the organization of the post building to gift giving health care and burial services and a credit system tailored to the Navajo calendar every feature of the trading post served trader and customer alike Over time these posts evolved from ad hoc business ventures or profitable cooperative stores into institutions with a clearly defined set of expectations that followed Navajo traditional practices Traders spent their days evaluating craft work learning the financial circumstances of each Native family following economic trends in the wool and livestock industry back east and avoiding conflict In detail and depth the many voices woven throughout Both Sides of the Bullpen restore an underappreciated era to the history of the American Southwest They show us that for American Indians and white traders alike in the Four Corners region during the late 1800s and early 1900s barter was as much a cultural expression as it was an economic necessity Friendship and Happiness Melikşah Demir, 2015-04-09 This is the first book that explicitly focuses on the relationships between various types of friendship experiences and happiness It addresses historical theoretical and measurement issues in the study of friendship and happiness e g why friends are important for happiness In order to achieve a balanced evaluation of this area as a whole many chapters in the book conclude with a critical appraisal of what is known about the role of friendship in happiness and provide important directions for future research Experts from different parts of the world provide in depth authoritative reviews on the association between different types of friendship experiences e g friendship quantity quality and happiness in different age groups and cultures An ideal resource for researchers and students of positive psychology this rich clear and up to date book serves as an important reference for academicians in related fields of psychology such as cross cultural developmental and social Changed Forever, Volume I Arnold Krupat, 2018-04-01 The first in depth study of a range of literature written by Native Americans who attended government run boarding schools Changed Forever is the first study to gather a range of texts produced by Native Americans who voluntarily or through compulsion attended government run boarding schools in the last decades of the nineteenth and the first decades of the twentieth centuries Arnold Krupat
