Legend Of Saint Christopher:

The Legend of Saint Christopher Margaret Hodges, William Caxton, 2002 Legend of Saint Christopher Margaret Hodges, 2009-09-23 The legend of Saint Christopher first written in the thirteenth century tells the story of a strong man named Offero who wants to find the greatest ruler in all the world and to serve him as his bearer Offero's search is in vain until a mysterious child at a riverside asks Offero to carry him over the river Only after Offero has carried the child over the river does he discover the child's true identity Then Offero's name is changed to Christopher Author Margaret Hodges retells with power and simplicity this unforgettable tale of the man who became known as the patron saint of travelers And illustrator Richard Jesse Watson has created hypnopompic paintings that dramatically capture Offero's journey and the brilliance of his discovery of the One he sought Based on old nursery rhymes the poetic text by Newbery Honor winner Kathi Appelt and the beautiful light filled paintings of Debra Reid Jenkins combine to make this gentle bedtime story a perfect illustration of God's abiding love The Story of Saint Christopher and the Story of Saint Cuthbert Mary

MacGregor, 2017-11-19 Two beautifully written retellings of the legend of St Christopher which is largely allegorical and of the real life story of St Cuthbert one of the most important early Medieval Christian religious figures of northern England by master storyteller Mary MacGregor The legend of St Christopher first appeared in western Europe during the ninth century and told the story of an extraordinarily tall man named Offero who after first serving Satan converted to Christianity and one day unknowingly carried the young Jesus across a river In this way he was renamed Christopher or the carrier of Christ Later martyred by pagans Christopher was canonized by the Catholic Church and is to this day the patron saint of travellers There is little concrete evidence that Christopher actually existed and the legend was most likely derived from the story of Saint Menas a third century Egyptian in the Roman army executed for refusing to recant his Christian faith In addition Christopher's river crossing episode is most likely a retelling of the ancient Greek legend of Jason who carried an old woman across a raging river who was actually Hera wife of Zeus and the goddess of woman and marriage The story of St Cuthbert is based on the life of an early Celtic Christian monk who through his life and work made famous the monasteries of Melrose and Lindisfarne in Northumbria in the Northeast of England Famously Spartan and known for his generosity to the poor he was accredited with the gift of healing and was known as the Wonder Worker of Britain He carried out missionary work all over Britain and Ireland and founded an oratory at Dull Scotland which later became a monastery and then the University of St Andrews Canonized after his death he became the patron saint of northern England Illustrated by Eleanor Fortescue
