Emerging-market Multinational Enterprises in East Central Europe Ágnes Szunomár, 2020-11-23 The rise of multinational enterprises MNEs from emerging markets is topical important and poses a number of questions and challenges that require considerable attention in the future from academia as well as business management The recent takeovers of high profile companies in developed or developing countries by non European emerging market MNEs EMNEs such as Lenovo Wanhua China Hindalco India CVRD Brazil Cemex Mexico Lukoil Russia etc as well as the greenfield or brownfield investments of emerging companies such as Huawei ZTE Tata Pepco etc show a new trend where new kind of firms become major players globally EMNEs have become important players in several regions around the globe ranging from the least developed countries of Africa through the developing markets in Latin America and Asia to the developed countries of the United States or the European Union including East Central European ECE countries EMNEs presence on the global level has resulted in numerous studies in the international literature but those research results barely cover EMNEs activities in the ECE region in the East Central European EU member countries including the Czech Republic Hungary Poland Slovakia and Slovenia The existing books typically focus on the investment activity of a single country or region such as China or East Asia but a comprehensive analysis is still missing in this regard The novelty of this edited volume is that it aims at exploring EMNEs location determinants strategies activities and challenges in East Central Europe by discussing its anomalies to the traditional theories as well as to other types of MNEs in the ECE region The authors focus on EMNEs not only from China but from other important emerging countries too such as Russia India South Korea Taiwan Turkey Brazil or South Africa

Korean Businesses: Internal and External Industrialization Johngseok Bae,Chris Rowley,2020-05-06 Essays in the book focus on the Korean model of industrialization and internal internationalization organizational capabilities and management roles and disadvantages inherent in the model The subjects covered include corporate catch up strategies foreign investment and future possibilities

Going Multinational Frédérique Sachwald,2013-01-11 At the beginning of the 1990s Korean firms embarked on an impressive wave of direct investment abroad This dramatic multinationalization was considered as yet another sign of Korea s remarkable economic performance especially as a high proportion of the foreign ventures were located in advanced countries But this unbalanced quest for globalization actually tested the Korean model to its limits after the 1997 crisis a new policy prepared the way for a surge of inward investment Using empirical tests and case studies this collection shows that Korean groups have invested in developed countries to jump over trade barriers but also to source advanced technology and marketing capabilities Moreover their ambitious strategies have been stimulated by oligopolistic rivalry among the chaebols From a policy perspective the book provides an original discussion of national ownership by questioning the substitutability between inward and outward foreign investment and its relationship with the evolution of the national innovation system By shedding light on the pattern of Korea s internationalization these essays make a valuable contribution to the theory of international production and provide important insights for the current policy debates on globalization and innovation led growth

New Multinational Enterprises from Korea and Taiwan Roger van Hoesel,2013-01-11 This volume represents the first substantive study of emerging multinationals MNEs from Asian economies drawing on the unique experiences of South Korea and Taiwan Combining an econometric investigation with detailed case studies of leading Korean and Taiwanese electronics companies it aims to demystify the nature and theoretical implications of these dynamic economic regions The author argues that many of these new multinationals do not possess the characteristics typically ascribed to MNEs such as technological leadership strong marketing positions or advanced managerial capabilities This is highlighted by documentation of recent developments in outward investment from Korea and Taiwan at both micro and macro level The implications of the recent Asian crisis for the internationalization of Korean and Taiwanese firms are also explored

The European Union, East Asia and South Korea Christian Franck,Kwang Ho Chun,2005 This book is the first to make the point on the different aspects of the relations between Europe and East Asia with a special focus on Korea The approach favours multidisciplinary by analyzing topics from different angles history economy and politics Korean Automotive Foreign Direct Investment in Europe J. Hyun, 2003-08-14 This book examines Foreign Direct Investment of major Korean automotive companies in Europe with particular reference to how economic integration has affected the motivations and patterns of FDI and industrial location The book is a valuable source of information on FDI the automobile industry in Europe and South Korea and business decision making process in general

Multinational Corporations Paz Estrella Tolentino, 2003-09-02 This work presents case studies of the emergence and evolution of Multinational Corporations MNCs based in eleven developed and developing countries of widely divergent patterns of national development From this analysis Tolentino develops a comprehensive theory of the emergence and evolution of MNCs from a macroeconomic perspective Japanese Multinationals in Asia Dennis J.

Encarnation, 1999-11-25 This collection explores the expansion of Japanese multinational firms into Asia a process which paralleled the region's growth as a major economic region The contributors discuss a wide range of topics including the reasons for moving manufacturing to other countries the flow of trade between Japan and these countries technology transfer within firms the impact of Japanese management practices in other Asian countries and competition between Japanese and American firms in Asia Multinational Firms and Impacts on Employment, Trade and Technology Robert E.

Lipsey, Jean-Louis Mucchielli, 2001-12-13 This collection of essays shows the high degree of complementarity between foreign direct investment and home export challenging the long held fear that firms investing abroad leads to a loss of employment and decline in the home country The Union and the World: The Political Economy of a Common European Foreign Policy

Alan Cafruny, Patrick Peters, 2003-08-21 During the last decade Europe has been transformed both politically and commercially The establishment of a genuinely single marketplace in the context of an expanding membership has enabled the European Union greatly to enhance its role on the world stage In the areas of trade and commercial policy the Union increasingly speaks with one voice As a result of the Maastricht Treaty on Economic and Political Union of 1993 a process has been set in motion whereby the embryonic mechanisms of a common foreign policy European Political Cooperation or EPC are gradually evolving into a more comprehensive Common Foreign and Security Policy CFSP The contributors to this volume describe and evaluate the nature and extent to which the European Union plays an independent role in international affairs This pioneering work makes an important contribution to the literature on the European Union since the chapters present a comprehensive picture of the Union's foreign economic policies and actions its foreign security policy and the supranational nature of much Union decision making The book is significant not only because of its dual focus on economics as well as politics but also because it comprehensively covers the broad range of Union policies in both the economic and political spheres The intended level of readership is undergraduate courses on the EU and on European politics upper level undergraduate courses in International Relations and graduate survey courses on the EU The book is sufficiently comprehensive and instructive to achieve a wide readership especially in North America and the UK Acta Koreana , 2002

Korea's Choices in Emerging Global Competition and Cooperation Lee-Jay Cho, Yoon Hyung Kim, 1998 Dynamics In Pacific Asia Kurt W. Radtke, 2014-07-16 First published in 1998 The writing of this book started in earnest with the establishment of a joint research group that gathered at the Netherlands Institute of Advanced Study Wassenaar The Hague between September 1995 and June 1996 The starting point was the question to what extent and in what way the new dynamics in South east Asia would influence Europe's global position and more specifically how these changes should be conceptualized in order to assist in the formulation of new policies to deal with the new international environment Most contributors to this book would agree that there is ample reason to view these changes as an opportunity for Europe and not just as a threat Business Korea, 1998 The Rise of Multinationals in Continental Europe Geoffrey Jones, Harm G. Schröter, 1993 This work offers a European dimension to the literature on multinational enterprise over the last 100 years It includes new material on the evolution of multinational firms in Germany France the Netherlands Switzerland Sweden and other countries Korea Update, 1995 Expansion Strategies of South Korean Multinationals Hong-sik Yi, 2004 motivation
